U.S. No Longer World Leader, De Gaulle Says

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle asserted today that "things have changed" and the United States no longer directly or indirectly runs the affairs of the Western world.

Speaking to a jam - packed news conference in the Presidential Palace under the glare of television and newsreel lights, the president sharply declared that the post war era of U.S. dominance in the West has ended.

"Now Europe," he said, "has emerged as an entity capable of living its own life, because it is full of (its own) values and means."

19 Riding Clubs, Nine Bands to Take Part in Rodeo Parade Through Springs

Nineteen riding clubs and nine bands have indicated they will ride in the Pageant of the Rockies parade Thursday, Aug. 6, it was announced this morning at a rodeo Ramrod meeting at the Broadmoor Hotel.

Gov. John A. Love, a Colorado Springs resident when he is not in the Statehouse at Denver, has indicated that he will be present to serve as parade marshal.

Other entries will include the Pejn Indians, the Koshare Indian Dancers, Miss Colorado contestants, and other special entries. Trophies will be awarded to each entry, plus special awards for category winners.

The breakfast meeting was attended by 57 Ramrods and members of the board of directors of the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo, including William Thayer Tutt, president.

An invitation was issued to Ramrods to attend a rodeo pep party at 6 p.m. today at the American Legion Hut.

Committee reports given at the meeting indicated that more than 600 persons will be coming down from Denver to attend the rodeo aboard a special train which will pull in Thursday, Aug. 6, the second day of the rodeo. Ramrods have been requested by Earl Schwab, chairman of the hospitality committee, to meet the train and greet the visitors.

The annual show is being publicized all over Colorado, including Pueblo and Denver. Ramrod members will be attending civic club meetings in various principal cities to push out-of-town ticket sales.

Colorado Springs merchants plan even greater participation than usual, according to Jim Tuor, chairman of the merchants committee. Stores and business firms will display ro-

Nation Reports Little Relief From Heat Wave

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Scattered thundershowers today over a wide section of the nation brought little relief from temperatures that have been soaring 10 to 25 degrees above normal for several days.

The Weather Bureau said warm weather pockets settled in widely separated cities along the northern tier of states. Caribou, in northern Maine, had a high Wednesday of 98, where the normal July high is 75. Far to the west, Glasgow—in eastern Montana—had a high of 96, compared to normal July maximum readings of 85.

Weathermen reported that the only area in the nation where temperatures were running within the normal range was the desert region in the Southwest. That area normally has daytime highs of 100 degrees or higher.

Scattered thundershowers continued in widely separated areas, with Georgia and the Atlantic Coast getting a heavy soaking.

Heavy rain flooded city streets in Atlanta, where the water was six feet deep at one intersection. Many streets were impassable.

Savannah, Ga., was soaked for the second night in a row as 1.8 inches of rain fell in six hours.

Another Ambush Carried Out by Viet Nam Reds

The attack occurred about 25 miles northwest of Saigon near the Ranger camp at Trung Lap.

Under recoilless cannon, the guerrillas destroyed an armored personnel carrier and inflicted 20 casualties, including 6 killed, U.S. spokesmen said.

The government forces also lost a number of weapons.

Trung Lap is a Ranger training camp near the edge of Communist-controlled "D Zone," a few miles from a Viet Cong training camp. The area is largely covered by jungle in which the Viet Cong has built a huge network of tunnels and fortifications.

For the past week, the Viet Cong has hit a large government unit somewhere in South Viet Nam every day, often resulting in heavy government casualties.

"The whole trouble is that they never seem to learn to put out adequate security or flank guards," a high American officer said Wednesday commenting on Vietnamese army tactics.

"We've done everything we can to instill these things into them, but unnecessary bloodshed continues."

Restaurant Man Plans to Appeal Integration Rule

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Owners of a restaurant and a motel are preparing to appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court the landmark decision by a three-judge federal court upholding constitutionality of the new Civil Rights Act.

"I think justice will prevail and we will be given a favorable verdict by the Supreme Court," said Lester Maddox, proprietor of the Pickrick Restaurant.

Moreton Rolleston Jr., head of the Heart of Atlanta Motel Corp., said he would abide by the order but would appeal immediately.

The men commented Wednesday shortly after the judges issued injunctions against their

Mail Slowdown in Britain May Result in Strike

By COLLIN FROST

LONDON (AP) — The phone bill fails to come on time—fine.

The old soldier's pension arrives five days late—that's not so jolly.

This is the sort of situation that has plagued 55 million Britons for two weeks because of a mailmen's slowdown. Now union leaders have ordered the 120,000 mailmen to strike at midnight Saturday and to stay off the job until the government meets their wage demands.

Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home called an emergency Cabinet meeting today, seeking to avert the crisis. Britain has not had a postal strike on such a scale in this century.

Already 45 million letters are piled up unsorted in London and other major centers.

Some are the lifeblood of the Mechanical Abe Lincoln Biggest 'Star' at Fair

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—The individual star of the World's Fair is none other than Abraham Lincoln.

Some audiences he holds in spellbound silence. Others he sets to cheering wildly.

People go away from his performances in awe with praise and such exclamations as "Stupendous!" "Tremendous!" and "Most impressive and inspiring." Many return time and again.

He is a new type of animated figure so lifelike many find it hard to believe he isn't really real. He fits the exact description of Lincoln as to face and figure dress, speech and mannerisms.

There is seldom the slightest sound from the audiences—except for cheers. These come with a roar at the end, when the figure takes its seat.

Speaking at the pavilion dedication when the fair opened, Disney said he first conceived the idea about 10 years ago. He said a number of people expressed misgivings, feeling that any attempt at a mechnical recreation of Lincoln might not be in keeping with his memory.

However, he persisted, and such fears vanished everytime anyone saw the finished product.

They're still vanishing at the rate of nearly 25,000 persons a day, all that the Illinois Pavilion can handle. The free exhibition already has passed the million mark.

The champion viewer so far is one man who sat through seven successive performances.

There has been some confusion.

An elderly grandmother wanted to know, "What is the name of the actor that plays Lincoln?"

Brooklyn Torn Again by Race Riots; 200 More Store Windows Smashed

WHILE RIOTS RAGED—Blast from whistle of Keystone Cop-garbed Shriner brings a look of surprise to Mrs. Joanie Cartwright of East Liverpool, Ohio, in mid-town Manhattan Wednesday night, during Shriner convention. At the time this picture was made, New York police were struggling to quell race riots in Brooklyn and Harlem, less than five miles away. Little signs of the tensions affecting other parts of the gigantic city were to be seen in the tourist area of Broadway, as the Shriners held their national convention. NEW YORK (AP) — Negro rioting and looting and police gunfire erupted again during the night despite a broadcast by Mayor Robert F. Wagner for peace and order.

Police shot and wounded three Negroes and arrested 122 in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn in the fifth straight night of disorders in the city.

Police said about 200 store windows were smashed during the night in the section, raising the total to nearly 500 in the city.

The trouble broke out in Harlem Saturday night after a white police lieutenant fatally shot a 15-year-old Negro boy last Thursday. The lieutenant said the youth was coming at him with a knife. The disorders have centered for the past two nights in the predominantly Negro Bedford - Stuyvesant district.

Wagner, who cut short a European trip, went on radio and television and said continued disorders could set back Negro and civil rights programs for half a century.

"Law and order are the Negro's best friend—make no mistake about that," he said. "The opposite of law and order is mob rule, and that is the way of the Ku Klux Klan and the night riders and the lynch mobs."

Some 150 Negro leaders in a rare display of unity among their various factions demanded the immediate ouster of Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy.

Wagner, in his speech, expressed "complete confidence" in Murphy, a former beat patrolman who obtained a law degree before advancing to his $35,000 a year post.

In Washington, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, a Harlem Negro Democrat, said the violence represented "the built-in, continuing resentment of the black people of the black ghetto of New York" against police policies.

He said the violence could be "ended before the sun goes down" if Wagner would: set up a non-police board to review charges of police brutality; assign a Negro police captain to the troubled Harlem precinct; suspend Lt. James R. Gilligan, who shot the Negro youth; expand the jurisdiction of grand juries to include "misuse of police authority," and stop assigning rookie policemen to Harlem.

Negro Harlem has a population of some 300,000.

In Manhattan, 500 white teenagers pelted Negro demonstrators outside police headquarters. A police charge broke up the mob.

Harlem, however, was quiet—even quieter than on a normal summer Wednesday night, police said.

There were no riot arrests. No police shots were fired. No streets were sealed off in the nation's largest Negro community where violence had flared for four nights in a row following the fatal shooting of a 15-year-old Negro boy by a white police lieutenant.

Fifty-four Negroes were arrested Wednesday night and early today in Brooklyn's predominantly Negro Bedford-Stuyvesant section. Charges included felonious assault, looting from stores whose windows were smashed, and disorderly conduct.

Many in the Brooklyn crowds headed for home or other shelter when rain started late in the night.

The Brooklyn violence erupted less than three hours after Mayor Robert F. Wagner made a television and radio appeal for peace and declared: "Law and order are the Negro's best friend. The opposite of law and order is mob rule, the way of the Ku Klux Klan and the lynch mob."

The Democratic mayor, who interrupted a trip to Europe and flew home Tuesday, announced a program to end racial violence and promised increased efforts to end slum conditions to recruit more Negroes for the police force and to review charges of police brutality.

Wagner later told newsmen that there is "some evidence" of Communist instigation of the racial rioting.

Navy Scientists Plan to Create 'Supermen'

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Navy biological scientists are seriously dreaming of some day making men "temporarily superhuman" in strength and muscular control by giving them chemicals, it was disclosed today.

They also are speculating about eventual development of —"skin farms": these would be vast supplies of human skin, grown from individual skin cells in special chambers, and kept in readiness for use in mass disasters.

—"Instant acclimatization" the ability to make a fighting man adjust to the terrific heat of a desert in minutes or hours rather than in days or weeks by giving him special drugs.

These are concededly long-range ideas, whose realization could come only from breakthroughs on tough research problems still under intensive study. They were outlined in a special issue of "Naval Research Reviews," a publication of the Office of Naval Research.

In one report, Dr. Robert K. Jennings, head of ONR's biochemistry branch, described basic research to explain the chemistry of muscle action.

Among the possible benefits if this research is successful, he said:

"We may be able to deal more effectively with (muscle and nerve) poisons an enemy might employ against us; we

Anti-Poverty Bill Gets 'Rights' Amendment

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration leaders drove for Senate passage of President Johnson's $962.5-million antipoverty bill today after accepting a state's rights amendment they hoped would pick up support from Southern Democrats.

The bill has come under heavy attack from Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the Republican presidential nominee. He has called it a backward-looking hodgepodge with "the single objective of securing votes."

Goldwater was not on hand when the Senate opened debate on the bill Wednesday. The fight against it was led by Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., who had joined Goldwater earlier in denouncing the measure in a minority report from the Labor Committee.

The extent, if any, to which Goldwater was going to mix in the debate was uncertain. He was to return to the Senate chamber today for the first time since his nomination and his GOP colleagues planned a round of welcoming speeches.

Under an agreement reached Wednesday to limit debate on the bill and its amendments, Democratic leaders expressed confidence the measure would be passed and sent to the House late in the day.

One move bolstering their hopes was the approval by voice vote of an amendment by Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., to prohibit the establishment of youth camps in any state without the consent of that state's governor.

A major feature of the legislation is authority to establish a job corps to provide education, work experience and vocational training for young people age 16

Laos Neutralists Driven Back by Commie Forces

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Communist forces reoccupied Phou Koutt Hill Wednesday night, routing neutralist troops from the strategic point 20 miles west of the Plaine des Jarres.

A neutralist spokesman said the Pathet Lao retook three peaks of the 4,200-foot hill, but neutralist forces which captured it Tuesday still held positions at the foot.

The spokesman said 3 neutralists were killed and 12 wounded in the skirmish.

Phou Koutt has changed hands four times during the past two months. It overlooks the main east-west road leading to the Communist-held Plaine des Jarres, 110 miles northeast of Vientiane, to the north-south road between Vientiane and Luang Prabang, the royal capital.

Exiles Report Battle With Castro Forces

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Cuban exiles have reported they fought Fidel Castro's military forces while landing supplies to anti-Castro guerrillas early Tuesday.

A communique issued by Commandos L and the Revolutionary Recovery Insurrectional Movement Wednesday night said the encounter lasted 10 or 12 minutes off the north coast of Cuba.

The communique said four exiles and an American identified as Don Baker of Fort Lauderdale fired 42 rounds from 20mm cannons and between 450 and 500 rounds from rifles and automatic weapons. It also said men were landed.

The exiles fled in their 30-foot boat for an undisclosed base but had to change their course to the Florida Keys after they ran short of fuel.

They were apprehended by federal authorities and held for questioning.

Springs Praised For Location of New Ampex Plant

By DICK MOORE

Business Editor

When the Ampex Corporation realized, two years ago, it would need additional facilities, it searched all through the west for a suitable location, that is until it took a look at Colorado Springs. Ernie Knapp, personnel manager of Ampex, told Chamber of Commerce Round Up members today.

"Here in Colorado Springs we found educational, recreational and the general type of living conditions suitable not only for business but for family living," Knapp said.

"We needed an area suitably located for central transportation, land available for purchase at a proper price and also an area where an efficient labor force could be obtained. We found all this and more in Colorado Springs. Since coming here, we have been happy with the community, people and facilities," he adds.

The new Ampex building, now under construction at Wooten Road and U. S. Highway 24, will be a 91,000 square foot building designed for the manufacture of professional audio recorders for use in radio stations, and video recorders to be used in television transmission. It will be erected, including the cost of the ground at a cost of over $1,500,000.

The steel supports of the building are now up and the outer shell will be erected next,

World's First Captive Killer Whale to Survive

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—The Pacific Northwest's biggest—two and a half tons—gal celebrity gained a name Wednesday and will swim or be coaxed into a new home today.

Henceforth, the world's only captive killer whale is to be called — what else — "Moby Doll." Doll's new quarters are in the ocean, a wire screen away from the Straits of Georgia and freedom.

The 17-foot mammal was christened by Dr. Murray Newman, curator of the Vancouver Aquarium. He is her landlord at both the floating dry dock in which she has resided since capture a week ago and the more spacious pen for which she is bound.

The whale was harpooned by hunters. They then tried to kill it by rifle bullets. When they failed, the aquarium ordered it brought to shore.

Scientists now say they are quite certain Moby Doll will survive. Her wounds are healing, thanks to 15 million units of penicillin which have knocked out the infection from the harpoon gash.

Just as important, Doll is eating. Her first morsel was a two-pound flounder on Tuesday. She topped that with two 10-pound salmon and cod stuffed with vitamin B12. The vitamins should tickle her appetite even more. She may be expecting, although there is no way to tell for sure.

Dr. Joe Lomas, veterinarian of the British Columbia Racing Association, said he arrived at the number of units of penicillin by figuring it should be double that proper for a horse.

The medicine was shot into her from a basket suspended from a 100-foot derrick via a 12-foot syringe. The vitamin injections were incased in four darts —two of them bounced off her hide.

Biggest problem facing cetologists and physicians is how to get Moby Doll to move. They hope she'll go voluntarily. Otherwise, they'll have to coax her a bit.

CU Prexy Asks State Aid for Junior Colleges

BOULDER (UPI) — University of Colorado President Joseph Smiley today said he strongly favored state support for junior colleges.

Smiley spoke at a workshop on the administration of the junior college. The workshop opened Monday and will continue for three weeks on the CU campus.

Smiley said Colorado has not yet made clear commitments in favor of expanding the junior college system, largely for financial reasons.

"The present tax structure in many states put such a heavy burden on property taxes that citizens have sought to meet education needs with types of institutions that rely on statewide tax support," Smiley said.

"The answer, obviously, is that equitable ways must be found to distribute the tax burden, with the staes assuming teh major share of the cost of general and technical programs, and the benefitting communities financing adult education and special programs directly related to particular needs of the community," he said.

Smiley said it would be unwise and undemocratic to concentrate all the state's resources on colleges and universities without providing adequate opportunity for terminal education in general and vocational and technical fields.

Junior colleges, Smiley said, enroll more than 25 per cent of all students going to college for the first time.

"By 1970, the two-year colleges will be the first college attended by about 75 per cent of students," he said.

Nearly one-half of the nation's poor families live in rural areas, President Johnson disclosed in his message on the Agricultural Economy.

Nikita 'Interferes' Again In U.S. Election Issues

EDITOR's NOTE—The Republicans' nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater has been sharply criticized by many newspapers in allied European countries, and now by Soviet Premier Khrushchev—in a manner that for a diplomat would be improper interference in internal affairs. Is it proper? What is its aim? John M. Hightower, AP diplomatic affairs writer, provides some answers.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The sharp debate over U.S. foreign policy which is developing in this year's presidential election campaign seems likely to excite more reaction in foreign countries than any American political dispute since the end of World War II.

Much of the European press has already expressed bitter criticism of the nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater, assailing him as the leader of those who would change fundamental U.S. positions in world affairs.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev raised the operation to the summit level this week by denouncing both the Republican nominee and the platform on which he is running.

This kind of action by a foreign official is traditionally classified in diplomacy as interference in the internal affairs of the United States, and the diplomat who tried it would quickly find himself in serious trouble.

In 1888 British Ambassador Lionel Sackville-West was sent home for taking sides in the contest between Grover Cleveland and Benjamin Harrison, and his fate is well remembered in the Washington diplomatic corps to this day.

But the rules that silence ambassadors do not operate for presidents and premiers, speaking from distant capitals. The betting in diplomatic quarters here is that considerably more will be heard from Khrushchev before next election day.

Khrushchev told a Polish audience that the candidate put forward by the Republican party "made it clear that he wants to enter the White House under the slogans of unbridled anti-communism and war threats."

He also asserted that the Republican platform, which he denounced as warlike, had been adopted "in an atmosphere reminiscent of the fascist gatherings in Nuernberg."

The big question raised among U.S. foreign policy officials who are always concerned with the aim of Khrushchev's maneuvers, is what he hopes to accomplish by an attack at this time.

Is he seeking to magnify the concern expressed in the European press that Goldwater, if he became president, would radically alter U.S. policies toward the Communist countries, toughening American attitudes, and would possibly make some changes in nuclear weapons policy?

Does he wish to arouse anti-American fears in the restless Communist countries of Eastern Europe and thus try to tie them closer to the Soviet Union?

Does he want to prove for internal political reasons that he can be more anti-Goldwater than his Chinese foes within the Communist camp who pursue a strong anti-American policy anyway?

Or is his purpose to influence American voters against the senator and thus strengthen the election prospects of President Johnson?

In 1960 he spoke out against Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon. At that time Khrushchev had broken off friendly personal relations with President Dwight D. Eisenhower over the U2 plane incident, and he expressed his antagonism toward Nixon by identifying him with Eisenhower.

The dominant reaction in the United States then to Khrushchev's interference was that he was helping Nixon by attacking him. Possibly this estimate, reflected in editorials and newspaper columns at the time, got through to the Kremlin. Midway of the campaign between Nixon and the late John F. Kennedy, the Soviet leader tried to switch to a neutral position.

Speaking of the two candidates, he said: "They are a pair of boots. Which is better, the right or the left boot? It would be difficult to distinguish between them."

The Soviet press and radio then quickly took up this neutral line and it remained the Soviet position until the election.

Diplomats here believe the present campaign debate on foreign policy probably will be more far reaching and involve more fundamental issues than any in the past 20 years.

Where the Communist problem is concerned, for example, the Johnson administration has been following a policy of trying to treat different Communist countries differently according to their willingness to make practical agreements with the United States. In the Kennedy-Johnson administration the outstanding example of this policy is the limited nuclear test-ban treaty signed with the Soviet Union last summer.

In his acceptance speech Goldwater spoke of all Communist governments as enemies, in this sentence:

"We must make clear that until (Communism's) goals of conquest are absolutely renounced, and its relations with all nations tempered, communism and the governments it now controls are enemies of every man on earth who is or wants to be free."

Goldwater also spoke in an interview with the German news magazine Der Spiegel, of his "disagreement with diplomatic recognition of Russia" and said this recognition should be regarded by the United States as a tool for use in its relations with the Soviet Union.

In the same interview he talked of the possibility of making tactical nuclear weapons "of a very small nature" available to NATO with control of the weapons "to be rested as closely as possible in NATO itself."

Soviets Charge 'Witnesses' With Smuggling

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet newspaper has accused foreign tourists, including two Americans, of trying to smuggle religious literature into the Soviet Union.

The Communist government here publishes atheistic literature and seeks to eliminate religion, although the Russian Orthodox Church claims that almost a quarter of the Soviet Union's 226 million people are believers.

The report appeared in last Sunday's issue of Soviet Byelorussia, a newspaper published in Minsk, 420 miles west of Moscow. The newspaper reached Moscow today.

The report denounced Jehovah's Witnesses, accusing them of trying to work in Communist countries "against the idea of peaceful coexistence and peace in the world."

A person whose name translates from Russian letters as William John, identified as an American businessman, was reported to have hid the Bibles in boxes that he imported. The report said they were published by the United Bible Society of New York, Geneva and London.

Another American, identified as a woman but with a name that translates as Hughes Dinsh, tried to import 700 copies "of anti-Soviet and religious books" published by the Central Intelligence Agency and the U.S. State Department, the report said.

RAINS

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—A woman looked out her window Wednesday and saw a man apparently stuffing another man into the trunk of a car. She called police.

Soon Michael Lambert, a mechanic, was explaining to them how he put a fellow mechanic into the trunk and drove him around the block to check a rattle in the trunk.

Dear Abby--

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Offered in Good Faith!

DEAR ABBY: Our son spent a year at the State University and now he thinks he is ready to educate his parents. This is what happened. He met a very high-class girl, and before she would introduce him to her family she gave him some lessons in table manners. This girl and her parents are motoring thru our town this summer and they plan to stop here to meet us. Our son offered to give his mother and me a few pointers in table manners like this girl gave him. I told him over my dead body. What is your opinion of: (A) a girl who would give a young man lessons on how to eat? (B) a young man who would suggest giving his parents the same lessons? —KNOWS HOW TO EAT

DEAR KNOWS: (A) Apparently the girl thought your son needed the lessons, and she liked him well enough to teach him. I admire her. (B) Your son is well-motivated in offering to teach you. If you don't care to learn, that's your business. But don't get sore about it. The girl's parents probably know that table manners aren't everything — as you do.

DEAR ABBY: I don't drive a car, never have, and all my friends know it so, naturally, I must depend on others for rides. Whenever there is a club meeting, church doings, or something my friends know I want to attend, why must I call THEM and beg a ride? Don't you think they should call ME and offer a ride? It seems, around here, if you don't ask you don't go. —NOT PUSHY

DEAR NOT PUSHY: Most people are too preoccupied with their own business to guess who needs a ride. And unless you ask, they have no way of knowing. Don't be so sensitive. If you need a ride, call whomever you think is going and ask for a lift. If you are pleasant, prompt and appreciative, and do not take them out of their way, I am sure you will be welcome.

DEAR ABBY: A couple who lived in our neighborhood recently split up. When the wife left she took everything that was not nailed down, including all the linen, kitchen utensils, appliances, you name it. Last week one of the neighbors called and invited us to a shower for the husband! She said she thought it would be nice if we all got together and helped to put him back into housekeeping. Abby, have you ever heard of giving a MAN a shower because his wife left and took everything? —SHOCKED

DEAR SHOCKED: No. What this country needs is a good all-purpose umbrella to protect us against showers.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "'K' In Detroit": Don't wait too long for a 38-year-old "boy" whose mother still waits up for him.

Prince Charles Reported Ill With Pneumonia

ABERDEEN, Scotland (AP)—Prince Charles, eldest child of Queen Elizabeth II, was confined to a nursing home today with pneumonia. His condition was said to be not serious.

The prince was camping on the grounds of Balmoral Castle with a number of other boys from the Gordonstoun School he attends when he was taken ill.

He was rushed by car to the nursing home by Sir George Middleton, the royal doctor at Balmoral, and Dr. David Short, consultant physician at the Aberdeen Royal Infirmary.

The prince, who will be 16 Nov. 14, is heir apparent to Britain's throne.

The camping expedition for the prince and his schoolmates was part of the Gordonstoun summer curriculum. The school specializes in toughening its boys physically in addition to educating them.

DYE PREPARATION

Cochineal, a natural dye, is prepared from the dried bodies of a tropical scale insect. Swarms of these bugs are brushed from cactus plants upon which they feed and are killed by placing them in hot water, or by exposing them to dry heat.

The Thirty Years War, from 1618 to 1648, was the last of Europe's great religious wars.

New Mexico Has Perpetual Water Shortage Threat

By JOHN McMILLION

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (UPI)—Out New Mexico way they tell the story about the New Yorker who drove into the tiny town of Fort Sumner — famed only because Billy the Kid's bones rot there — to get gas.

The New Yorker looked out over a vast expanse of arid, red hills, broken by bone-dry arroyos, and said:

"Man, it's dry here, how much rain do you get a year?"

The grizzled proprietor of the service station spat a chaw of tobacco and replied, "About seven or eight inches."

"That's sure not much," retorted the dude.

"By Gosh, if you were here the day we got it you'd think it was," replied the oldtimer.

That story pretty well sums up New Mexico's water problems perennially—and in 1964 in particular.

There just never is enough water and when there is it all comes at one time.

Every indication points to the Land of Enchantment going into one of its infamous dry cycles, with 1964 shaping up as the third and worst year in the cycle thus far.

Lack of winter moisture, an almost rainless spring and harsh, hot winds have created a serious drought situation in the state.

On the eastern side of the state, farmers in Curry and Roosevelt Counties — where 86 per cent of New Mexico's wheat is grown — have written off the dryland crop for all practical purposes and are depending on irrigated wheat, which has increased considerably the past few years, to save the day.

Ranchers say if there isn't some substantial moisture soon they'll start cutting back their herds.

This would mean an unloading of cattle onto an already depressed cattle market and could bring a return of the disaster of the late 1950's when drought and excess numbers of cattle combined to cause the bottom to drop out of the market.

All the trouble isn't confined to eastern New Mexico.

The lush Middle Rio Grande Valley faces its second severe water shortage in two years and the prospect of rationing of irrigation water. Lack of an adequate snowpack in Northern New Mexico and southern Colorado has depleted the runoff in the Rio Grande and water storage level in Elphante Butte and Caballo reservoirs, both on the Rio Grande near Truth or Consequences, N.M., are far below normal.

Northwestern and Northern New Mexico are in better shape and in southwestern New Mexico it is always dry so no great concern has been voiced.

The biggest trouble area was on the eastern plains, where wheat, grain sorghum, cotton, peanuts and other crops are grown and where thousands of cattle graze.

For all practical purposes there has been no good moisture on the plains since last summer.

In Lea County, drought conditions have resulted in numerous grass fires, including one last spring which burned off 11,000 acres in one whack. Forests in southern New Mexico are tinder dry and scattered fires already have broken out.

Complicating the problem have been the hot winds which have seared the state. Until they end little relief is in sight.

Oldtimers in New Mexico have been saying:

"It won't rain until the wind stops!

"And the wind won't stop until it rains!"

Cost Reduction Merit Awards Are Presented

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara led a cost reduction rally at the Pentagon today where they handed certificates of merit to 19 government workers who helped have $2.5 billion last year.

The 19 honored included:

Richard C. Kettering and Merl D. Meek, Army Depot, Pueblo, Colo.

Maj. Richard T. Moss, headquarters, Air Defense Command, Ent Air Force Base, Colo.

Fanfare was put into the ceremony marking a statistical achievement. There was a Pentagon concourse packed with some 4,000 officials and employes, a band, and serious and joking comments by the President.

Johnson told McNamara and the audience that nowhere had response to his economy-in-government plea been greater than in the Defense Department.

"Our military muscle has grown while the fat has been cut away," he said.

The President said, too, that "we can afford to spend to keep our country safe, but we cannot spend one dollar more than is necessary."

He said he "was happy to arrive at the Pentagon one day after the Senate unanimously approved" the military pay raise bill.

Then he poked a bit of fun at the economy minded McNamara and his affinity for computers to obtain answers. Johnson told his audience of government officials and employes that:

"I am happy your computuers gave you time off to attend these ceremonies." And he said he would "use such influence as I have to see that this is not charged against your annual leave."

McNamara introduced each of the recipients of the certificates of merit as they filed up on stage, with Johnson shaking the hand of each and spreaking to them briefly.

The President said that he was proud to meet and congratulate the 19 people who had helped save $2.5 billion in the fiscal year just ended.

Cuban President Gets More Economic Power

HAVANA (AP)—President Osvaldo Dorticos assumed No. 1 status in Cuba's economic picture today with the announcement that he had taken over duties of minister of the economy and chairman of the Economic Planification Board.

A government announcement said Dorticos was replacing Regino Boti, who was being "liberated" of those responsibilities and would be given another position.

The sudden change was not explained.

Dorticos thus controls planning of the Cuban economy. He already had been chairman of the Commission for the Economy of the United Party of the Socialist Revolution.

The Dorticos appointment is the second unexpected Cuban Cabinet shift concerning economic duties this month.

Alberto Mora, minister for foreign commerce, was "liberated" early in July and replaced by Marcelo Fernandez, then president of the National Bank of Cuba.

No explanation was given for Fernandez' appointment.

SLIDE BURYS CAR

SAN JUAN, P.R. (UPI)—A landslide has blocked a mountain highway in eastern Puerto Rico and police feared Wednesday that three persons in a car might be buried under it.

An estimated 20,000 tons of earth and rock crashed down from the slopes of 3,000-foot El Yungue eak Tuesday and piled up on the road.

40 Million Pounds Beef Sold Abroad

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Agriculture Department decision to sell beef abroad under the surplus disposal law known already has resulted in sales of about 40 million pounds of meat for about $16 million.

The department began its export sales of beef after the cattle industry complained that beef imports were affecting the price of fed cattle. The industry pushed for an import quota to hold down the amount of beef that entered the United States in competition with domestic beef.

Woodland Park News

By MRS. VERNA ROBERTS 687-9398

A trail ride was enjoyed by 16 members of the Woodland Park 4-H Club Thursday. Jerry Martin is leader of the horsemanship group.

A 4-H Conservation workshop was held this past week at Manitou Park, which two boys from each county attended. Everett McKean, Teller County extension agent, was director of this camp. The youth sudied surveying, range management, formulation of farm conservation plans, forestry, and wildlife conservation.

On Wednesday the group attended the melodrama at the Imperial Hotel in Cripple Creek.

Spending the weekend in Denver were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Potter and family.

Wednesday night supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mert Cummins and family were Mr. and Mrs. Fay Roberts.

The First Baptist Church held Vacation Bible School this past week, with an average of 54 attending. The week was concluded by a program on Friday night.

Serving as faculty members throughout the week were: Mrs. Paulina Hines, Mrs. Viola Moon, Mrs. Herb Starr, Mrs. Lillian Daugherty, Mrs. Charlene Seaney, Mrs. Jo Etta Mathews, Mrs. Rose Davis, Mrs. Marilyn Cummins, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, Mrs. Jane Bonifield, Mrs. Pat Cummins, Mrs. W. O. Pipes, Miss Alana Parker, Miss Carol and Marlene Omstead, and Mrs. Jane Ward. Mrs. Ethyl Kientz and Mrs. D. R. Ethridge were in charge of refreshments. Mr. Ethridge was in charge of handiwork.

Rev. Seany and Dave Walker treated the boys to a fishing trip on Wednesday.

Tom Sorrels was appointed to serve the term as school board member, replacing Mr. Tillman.

Mrs. Walter Wann and family, of Kimball, Neb., spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Starr. Jimmie returned home with his mother after spending several weeks with his grandparents. Ranee remained for a longer visit.

The summer libraby is being held each Monday, Wednesday and Friday, with a story hour on Wednesday.

Mrs. Jack Potter and Mr. Jess Thyfault attended the funeral of Mr. Thyfault's mother, Mrs. Eva Thyfault, in Florence on Thursday. We extend our sympathy to this family.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jim Selby and family for a few days this past week were his mother, Mrs. Jim Poteet, and girls of Pueblo.

A shower honoring James David Leitner, new son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Leitner, was held Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Jim Selby with Mrs. Raymond Pickett as co-hostess. Others present were Mrs. Walter Derby, Mrs. Ronnie Leitner, Mrs. Vincent Leitner, Mrs. Francis Hollingsworth, Mrs. Jim Poteet, Mrs. Jim Morris, Mrs. Bob Hollingsworth, Mrs. Fay Roberts and the guests of honor.

Rev. and Mrs. Wesley G. Hankins and family moved to Omaha, Neb., this past week, where Rev. Hankins has been appointed as pastor of the First Methodist Church.

Rev. Hankins has been resid-in Woodland while on leave as Missionary to Paraguay. He has been chairman of the Billy Graham campaign in Asuncion and vice president of the World Vision Pastors' Conference in 1963. He has been missionary in South America for 13 years. He and his family plan to return in the near future.

Funeral services were held for Henry Peters, 77 Monday at Our Chapel of Memories. Mr. Peters was born in Dysart, Iowa and had been a Colorado resident since 1935. He died Friday night at a Colorado Springs hospital. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Minnie Peters, of Woodland Park; two daughters Mrs. Marjorie Ray, Franklin, N.C., and Mrs. Mary Jane Clark, Darlington, Mo.; two sons, Milton Peters, Albuquerque, N.M. and Alvin Peters, Indio, Calif.; three sisters, Anena Moeller, Staples, Minn., Rosa Moeller, Everly, Iowa, and Lula Paulsen, Lamar, Colo.; and 10 grandchildren. The Rev. Perry Epley officiated at the funeral services. Burial was in Memorial Gardens. Pallbearers were Rusty Downs, Lester Boggs, Richard Edwards, Bert Bergstrom, Don Clifford and Carol Musser.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Roberts and sons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Davis and family, to help celebrate the fourth birthday of Kenny David.

Rev. and Mrs. Perry Epley and children spent last week in South Dakota with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Carrey.

"Can you come back later? I've finished with him, but he's one of our best customers and I hate to wake him."

Drunken Driving Test Demanded By State Group

DENVER (UPI)—A law to require suspected drunk drivers to submit to a chemical alcohol test or have their licenses suspended was demanded today by a group of Colorado citizens.

The group, headed by Denver surgeon Dr. John Horton, testified before the Legislative Council committee on Driver Licensing.

Dr. Horton told the committee that studies showed it was safe to assume that 50 per cent of all fatal accidents involve alcohol.

Another member of the group testified that one out of every three persons arrested for drunken driving in 1963 refused to take a blood alcohol test.

"This is a loophole in the law which is being abused," said William T. Evans of Denver. "This loophole must be closed."

Committee chairman Rep. Norman Ohlson, R-Colorado Springs, was uncertain if such a recommendation would be outside the scope of his group's assignment.

Sen. Woody Hewett, R-Boulder, said if the committee does not recommend such legislation, he will introduce it personally.

Ohlson said the committee will meet Aug. 14 to try to come up with recommendations to present to the Legislature next January.

Since 1946, the Federal government has granted $1.69 million to aid in the construction of 6,810 hospitals and other health facitilies under the Hill-Burton Act.

Brazil continued efforts to find a compromise solution to avoid a split with Mexico and Chile while satisfying most other member nations.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk asked the conference Wednesday to impose sanctions on Cuba, and urged a warning to the Castro regime that "the full weight of the regional security system will be applied" if it persists in subversion.

Rusk also called on the Free World countries to "take appropriate steps in the field of trade with Cuba." The United States has had only partial success in its own efforts to persuade its allies to cut off their trade with Cuba.

Doctor Seeks Missing Buggy Wheels in Lake

Dr. Paul H. Draper, 2000 Mesa Rd., reported to the sheriff's office that four buggy wheels worth a total of $100 had possibly been stolen or gone to the bottom of Stratton Lake.

According to Broadmoor Police Officer J. Weide, the doctor had put the wheels in the lake to tighten the iron rims as he intended to use them in a parade which is coming up shortly.

He left them there Sunday and when he came back Tuesday they had gone. They could have sunk and Draper is considering having skuba divers look for them.

be able to treat diseases which incapacitate men today, and we may even learn how to create men who are temporarily superhuman in their strength and muscular control to deal with emergencies without being harmed."

Jennings also told of pioneering studies on the cultivation or growth of animal and human cells outside the body.

"Such cultures develop characteristics which are not exactly like the cells and tissues found in the body. When enough has been learned about the factors which control the growth and differentiation of, let us say, skin cells, it may be possible to have 'skin farms' to which the physician can turn for replacement parts when large numbers of casualties are brought to him after natural or man-made holocausts."

Dr. Leonard M. Libber, chief of ONR's physiology branch, outlined the theoretical concept of drug-induced "instant acclimatization" for men suddenly transported by aircraft from a temperate climate into the seething heat of a desert.

In the quest for such a breakthrough, he said, scientists at the Naval Medical Research Institute, Bethesda, Md., are doing basic research on the hypothalamus—the body's ingenious thermostat—to determine how this brain organ transmits information to the nervous and chemical messengers of the body.

ONR is supporting related investigations of techniques whereby various drugs are injected directly into the area of the hypothalamus.

Springs Praised For Location of New Ampex Plant

Knapp said. The work is on schedule and at completion Dec. 1, will be equipped to house 500 manufacturing people.

The company is now operating on a limited schedule in a leased building at 100 Commerce St. and is employing 22 persons in a pilot operation. At the time of the move to the new building, the company will employ from 125 to 150 people, Knapp said.

At the present most of the electronic work is being done by women but within the year 40 to 60 per cent of mechanical inspection work will be carried on by men, Knapp said.

While the local operation will involve manufacturing as its primary function, approximately 50 persons will work here in a designing and engineering section.

The Ampex Corporation with headquarters in Redwood City, Calif., has four divisions in the electronic and related industries. It is the company which made magnetic recording practical just 15 years ago. Its 30 employes in 1948 have grown to 5,700 and its annual sales have increased from $136,000 in 1948 to approximately $95,000,000 in the current year.

Crews Busy Repairing Streets in Springs

City Street Department crews spent 2,332 manhours last month in repairing and patching holes in Colorado Springs streets.

City Street Superintendent Don Lawrie said a total of 2,119,300 pounds of hot mix were used in the street patching operations.

Lawrie said employes spent an additional 1,830 manhours in street sweeping, 349 hours in curb, gutter and sidewalk repairs, 643 hours in grading or cutting down old streets and 299 manhours preparing for paving.

Dealer, Youth Fined On Liquor Sale Count

Magdalene Shumate doing business at Harry's Liquor Store, 401 E. Pike's Peak Ave. was fined $50 and costs by Justice of the Peace James F. Quine Wednesday for selling liquor to a minor.

According to the information filed against the defendant, the store sold liquor to a youth under the age of 21, July 8.

The boy who was 18 also appeared in court and was fined $50 and $7 costs for buying liquor and having it in his possession.

Restaurant Man Plans to Appeal Integration Rule

establishments in the first two court tests of the new law.

The effective date of the injunctions was delayed until Aug. 11 to allow time for appeals.

Rolleston filed suit against the government to block enforcement of the law within two hours after it was signed on July 2 by President Johnson.

Maddox was sued by three Negroes he chased from his restaurant at gunpoint on July 3. The Negroes later were joined by the Justice Department.

Both suits questioned the constitutionality of the public accommodations sections of the law.

Basic arguments in each case hinged on whether Congress had constitutional authority to enact the law. The court disposed of this issue before ruling on the law's application.

The decisions were handed down by Chief Judge Elbert P. Tuttle of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals and District Judges Lewis R. Morgan and Frank A. Hooper.

They said that motels and restaurants offering to serve interstate travelers can be brought under interstate commerce regulations as the act directs, and therefore cannot discriminate against Negroes.

"It is clear that the definition includes the Pickrick," the court held. "This is the limit of the case. Congress had the power to go this far."

All three judges concurred in both injunctions.

In a special concurring opinion, Hooper said it appeared that the Pickrick came within the law since it offered to serve interstate travelers by virtue of its location and a sign on a major route.

However, Hooper added, "The majority opinion rules in effect that segregation in this particular restaurant affects commerce because of the fact that a substantial portion of the food which it serves has moved in commerce."

In the motel decision, the court held there was no need to justify the outlawing of discrimination on the ground that the business is actually in the stream of commerce.

"The power of Congress," the court said, "when that body seeks to occupy the full extent of its powers under the Constitution 'extends to those activities intrastate which so affect commerce . . . as to make regulation of them appropriate means to . . . the exercise of the granted power of Congress to regulate interstate commerce.'"

The judges pointed out that the scope of congressional power must be taken to be at least as broad as that exercised in the adoption of the Sherman antitrust act and legislation affecting labor relations.

Ranch Items Worth $2,011 Reported Stolen

Riding equipment worth a total of $2,011 was stolen from George Hutchison, of the Hitch Rack Ranch, the sheriff's office reported Wednesday.

Eyewitness Tells Of Looters in New York Rioting

EDITOR'S NOTE—Looters roaming the Negro section of Brooklyn are among the most conspicuous element in the racial disorders in New York City now. An AP newsman, a Negro, gives an eyewitness report.

By AUSTIN SCOTT

It was late in the evening after most of the excitement in Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant section was over. It was raining.

The police had thinned out. Many store window were broken.

One youth leaped through the broken window to pass out bottles. I stood with the rest of the gang, who gathered around the window so nobody could see from the street what was going on.

It took maybe three minutes for them to run away with the liquor. No policeman showed.

All evening there was scattered vandalism along a 12-block stretch of Brooklyn's Broadway, a street of small shops.

It had a decidedly different mood from the violence in Harlem, the dense Negro section in Manhattan.

In Brooklyn, people on the streets said the violence scared them or that they didn't think it made sense.

In Harlem, I heard them scream obscenities at police and chant, "Kill them, kill them." There was none of that in Brooklyn.

At first, the Brooklyn crowds were mostly youngsters in their early teens. They taunted police, but didn't seem bent on making serious trouble.

They gathered in small groups on street corners, yelled or chanted in unison, or marched up the street. When police converged they scattered, howling with laughter.

As the evening wore on, older groups of adults in their mid-20s replaced the kids. They smashed windows, overturned trash cans, and dropped bottles and light bulbs from the platforms of the elevated train route that runs along Broadway.

Many of the adults seemed more curious than violent. They flocked to the sound of smashing glass before police arrived.

Police fired dozens of shots from time to time to dispense them. They drove police cars up onto the sidewalks to chase the people away.

From the smashed shop windows, looters ran off with an assortment of merchandise. Burglar alarms were ringing up and down the street.

Many restaurant and bar owners closed early in the evening.

"I got caught in the trouble the other night," said one, a Negro. "I'm getting out of here and going home."

Two Money Thefts Reported to Sheriff

Two thefts of money were reported to the sheriff's office Wednesday.

The first happened at the Albert Pick Motel, 5800 N. Nevada Ave. Keith Polokoff, Wheeling, Ill. told Deputy Sheriff Bob Snuggs that $7 was taken from his wife's purse which was in the bedroom.

The second incident was reported by Donald Hobbs, 3106 N. Institute St., who said that $3.66 was taken from a jar drawer. The coins were collector's items.

Brooklyn Torn Again By Vicious Race Riots

Helmeted police, waving night sticks, charged the white teen-agers. Other policemen escorted the Negro pickets to a subway station three blocks away. This march took 15 minutes, and at each cross street the whites hurled more missiles, striking the police as often as the pickets.

The fray left the streets around police headquarters strewn with broken glass and other debris.

A policeman and a young woman picket were injured by missiles in the melee. They were treated at hospitals and released.

In Brooklyn, a crowd composed mostly of Negro teen-agers gathered around a truck with a loudspeaker and jeered officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People as they appealed to Negroes to get off the streets. Police dispersed the crowd.

Thirty-five Negro leaders, who attended a meeting in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section, said in a resolution that "the people can no longer be restrained."

The leaders—clergymen, merchants and political figures—told police they can no longer serve as restraining influences in their community of 500,000.

The leaders met at the request of police Capt. Edward Jenkins, commanding officer of the 79th Precinct. Jenkins asked that they "carefully weigh" the risks of more riots.

The leaders' reply was in a resolution that said:

"Violence and disorder do not occur in a vacuum. In dealing with riots and disorder, we are dealing with symptoms rather than causes. Therefore the basic evils from which the community suffers must be corrected, because the people can no longer be restrained."

The leaders demanded an audience with the mayor in Bedford-Stuyvesant and made a number of other demands on city officials to improve the lot of Negroes and Puerto Ricans.

In Harlem, police raided the headquarters of the Black Nationalist group headed by Malcolm X in a room at the Hotel Theresa, 125th Street and Seventh Avenue.

They said they seized a loaded rifle and more than 100 rounds of ammunition.

The raid was made at 3 a.m. today on the basis of an anonymous tip to the New York Journal-American. No one was in the raided room.

Mayor Wagner, who looked weary after his speedy trip home and many hours of conference with aides, made a fervent appeal for law and order in his radio and television appearance.

He said continued disorders could set back Negro progress and other civil rights programs half a century.

He announced a nine-point program which, among other things, called for further restraints against any abuse of power by police, closer contacts between city officials and minority groups and stepped-up efforts to wipe out poverty. Wagner said jobless and hopeless youths are "the loose gunpowder of our time."

Wagner added, however: "We will not be browbeaten by prophets of despair, or by peddlers of hate, or by those who thrive on continued frustration."

The mayor said President Johnson telephoned him Wednesday and authorized him to state that the assignment of FBI agents to New York City was "solely to assist, support and supplement what we are already doing in the way of meeting the threats to law and order."

Wagner said FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has supplied Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy "with certain information which is of greatest interest and use."

This cryptic remark was taken in some quarters as a reference to the statement by City Council President Paul R. Screvane, who was acting during Wagner's absence in Europe, that the Harlem disorders were incited in part by "Communists and other fringe groups."

"The nation and the world have their eyes on New York," the mayor said. "I can't exaggerate what is at stake here."

Wagner said the killing of the Negro boy by the white police lieutenant a week ago today outside a school in Yorkville—about two miles from Harlem—"raised questions about the responsibility and behavior" of the police.

Wagner, however, expressed complete confidence in Police Commissioner Murphy. The mayor said he had directed Murphy to insure that policemen do not go beyond the requirements of duty, and to punish those officers who do.

The lieutenant involved in the shooting said the boy was coming at him with a knife and ignored warnings before the fatal shots were fired. Some witnesses and civil rights leaders have disputed this version. A grand jury is investigating the case.

Murphy has turned down demands by Negro leaders that the lieutenant be fired—or at least suspended during investigation.

About 150 Negro leaders—in highly unusual demonstration of unity— issued early today a demand for the immediate firing of Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy; Deputy Commissioner Walter Arm, the public relations man for the police department; and the "inspector who led the riot squad in Harlem."

The Negro leaders, said to represent 52 Negro organizations, met Wednesday night in Harlem.

Among the organizations reported to have been represented were the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Congress of Racial Equality, the African Nationalists, the Urban League, the Black Muslims, the Muslim Black nationalist group led by Malcolm X, and several religious groups.

The leaders decided to send a five-man committee of their unity group— which was not given a name—to a meeting Friday night of Harlem Youth Opportunities Unlimited, a civic group, to join in a discussion of ways of presenting the grievances of Harlem residents to government officials.

Government funds have been allotted to the civic group to fight poverty and otherwise improve conditions in the area.

The unity group also demanded that the mayor come to witness the "many ills that affect Harlem" and receive from the group a program to "improve the situation."

Part of Cascade Avenue Will Be Widened

A portion of Cascade Avenue is being widened to permit three lanes for northbound traffic and a compulsory right turn lane for northbound traffic at Kiowa Street.

Maurice Pearce, director of public works, said the first phase of the project would be to make the street seven feet wider between Pikes Peak and Kiowa.

Pearce said the work was being done in that section now because the curb and gutter is already torn up on the east side of the street there and the property owners are cooperating in the project.

The remainder of the project between Colorado Avenue and Pikes Peak Avenue will be done later. A final determination on just what will be done here is to be determined later this year.

Carson Team Assists Visitor After Ledge Fall

The Ft. Carson Leadership a Mountain Training School assisted in bringing a man down from the North Cheyenne Creek Trail Tuesday afternoon. The man, David Feighan of Highland Pk., Mich., was hiking along North Cheyenne Creek when he ventured out on a ledge over-looking the stream.

The rock ledge was wet and slippery and Feighan lost his footing and slid approximately 30 feet to the stream bed below.

One of Feighan's fellow hikers walked to the nearest telephone and called the rescue team from Carson who immediately proceeded to the area. Feighan was unconscious from the fall and was carried up the slope to the trail by the rescue team using a stokes litter. He was then helped down the trail and taken to Penrose Hospital.

Hospital officials Wednesday described Feighan's condition as very good. He was treated for a possible rib fracture, head injuries, and minor cuts.

Feighan is visiting the Colorado Springs area from Michigan on a vacation. He started the hike with three other companions yesterday morning and the accident occurred about 1:30 Tuesday afternoon.

The Carson team is one of two which gives demonstrations each Tuesday and Thursday at 10:30 a.m. in North Cheyenne Canon to keep their climbing skills sharp and to present the Army in action for visitors to the Pikes Peak region.

Albert Martin Nice, 837 E. Vermijo Ave., who homesteaded in eastern El Paso County from 1908 to 1943, died Wednesday at a local hospital. He was 87 and had been a resident of Colorado Springs since 1943. He was a member of the First Church of the Brethren.

Mr. Nice was born in Clay County, Ind., Dec. 23, 1876. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nellie Mae Nice, of Colorado Springs; a son, Oscar E. Nice, Colorado Springs; two daughters, Mrs. Helen Templeton and Mrs. Ruth Metzger, both of Colorado Springs; a sister, Mrs. Rhoda Robinson, Denver; a brother, Charles Nice, Parsons, Kan.; two grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Swan Drawing Room. The Rev. Samuel McCamen will officiate. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

Acting British Consul Attacked on Beach

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The acting British consul at San Juan, Puerto Rico, Annie (Nancy) Clay, was attacked and beaten by a knife-wielding man on a San Juan beach Tuesday, a British Embassy spokesman said here today.

Miss Clay managed to wrest the knife from the would-be purse snatcher, but suffered a number of cuts and disiocations of an arm and wrist, the embassy said. The attacker fled.

Miss Clay was treated at a U.S. Army Hospital.

European Press Is Assailed by U.S. Methodist

LONDON (AP)—Bishop Fred Pierce Corson of Philadelphia, president of the World Methodist Council, accused the European press today of giving its readers unworthy caricatures of Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Bishop Corson at present in award from King Olav of Norway, wrote in the Methodist Recorder that the Republican presidential nominee is "a straightforward, honest man" whom the late President John F. Kennedy respected.

"It is notable that Kennedy and Goldwater were very warm personal friends," Bishop Corson wrote. "Each respected the other, and Goldwater was frequently in conference with the president, who valued Goldwater's appraisal of public situations even though he did not adhere to Goldwater's position."

The Methodist leader praised the senator as a personal fighter against segregation who only took issue with the civil rights bill on two points regarding its constitutionality.

The Methodist Recorder did not agree with the bishop's defense of Goldwater. An editorial said the bases of Goldwater's Republican party victory were fear of communism, resentment at civil rights for Negroes, and resistance to the central authority of the government. It claimed there were "the seeds of fascism" in his policies.

Deaths

LIBERTY, N.Y. (AP)—Harry Grosinger, 76, sole owner and a founder of the famed Grossinger Hotel in the Catskills, which he built from a farm boarding house to a resort of international fame, died of coronary thrombosis Wednesday.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Wilbur Hamilton, 54, former Republican city chairman and a power in his party in Pennsylvania for many years, died Wednesday of an apparent heart seizure.

MANHASSET, N.Y. (AP)—Herb Sheldon, 51, who appeared on network television and radio for 12 hours a week during the 1950s, died Tuesday of a heart attack.

POMONA, Calif. (AP)—Dr. L. Wendell Fifield, 73, a native of Benton Harbor, Mich., and a Congregational minister known nationally through his church, died Tuesday of a cerebral hemorrhage.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lucille B. Wendt, 54, a bacteriologist chemist and lawyer, died Wednesday of a respiratory ailment. She played a key role in the Senate subcommittee's 1959-1960 investigation of the drug industry.

265th Suicide Reported at Golden Gate

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Thousands of tourists snap photographs over the majestic Golden Gate Bridge every year. To them it is synonymous with San Francisco.

To San Franciscans, the rust-red suspension bridge is becoming synonymous with suicide. Death leaps from the span have become so frequent that an expression—"I'm about ready for the bridge"—is a common way of expressing disgust with life.

Wednesday a soldier stopped his car on the Golden Gate span and raised the hood. Cars veered around him. He slammed the hood down, ran to the bridge's railing and leaped over to his death.

Drake E. Rogers Jr., 20, of Petaluma, Calif., described by his commanding officer as "an outstanding soldier," was the bridge's 265th known suicide.

There could be any number of victims who leaped in darkness and drifted to sea, never to be found.

In the 27 years since it was completed, the bridge has been a means to death for an odd assortment.

Victims include a man who leaped twice, a little girl forced to leap by her father—who followed her in a graceful dive—and a stunt man who didn't plan to die.

One young woman leaped and lived.

Cornella Van Ireland, 22 years old when she jumped on a sunny afternoon in 1941, explained that: "I had an irresistible impulse to jump and suddenly I clambered over the railing and fell into space."

She plunged 235 feet and struck the waters of San Francisco bay at 80 miles an hour.

"I know I prayed, but I had no sensation of falling. I don't remember when I hit the water, but I know I was conscious every moment," said Miss Van Ireland, who recovered from multiple injuries and later married.

Others have leaped because of unrequited love, financial or marital troubles, illnesses and possibly acrophobia—the fear of heights.

Dr. S. I. Hayakawa of Mill Valley, Calif., noted authority on general semantics, once said the choice of a bridge for a suicide may be a simple matter of aesthetics.

"The fact that suicide is many times more frequent off the Golden Gate Bridge, while almost unthinkable off the ugly Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, is a comment on both the aesthetics and psychology of suicide," Dr. Hayakawa said.

An Oakland psychiatrist said, "The Golden Gate provides a more peaceful setting for the final act of a man's life. When someone jumps from it he is, in a way, joining all those who went before him."

A California Highway Patrol officer assigned to the bridge thinks it is popular for suicides "because of its convenience, notoriety and glamour."

Why hasn't something been done to discourage, or prevent, the jumpers? The solution isn't simple, bridge authorities point out, mostly because of wind resistance and a desire not to clutter the lines of classic structure.

JUST CHECKS

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP)—A would-be bandit wearing a black bandana over his face pulled a pistol on service station owner Patrick Kennedy Wednesday night.

Police said Kennedy screamed for help and the gunman fled—on a bicycle.

Jacqueline Still Gets Letters From Nation

By HELEN THOMAS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her two children plan to move their vacation spot from Cape Cod to Newport, R.I., next week. They will go Monday to Hammersmith Farm, home of Mrs. Kennedy's mother.

The widow of the late President Kennedy previously had leased a 22-acre estate, Annandale Farm, next door to Hammersmith, home of Mrs. Kennedy's stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss.

However, she has decided instead to take the children to her mother's summer home because "she feels the children have had too many environmental changes lately," according to Mrs. Kennedy's press secretary Pamela Turnure.

Miss Turnure said Wednesday the former First Lady and her youngsters will formally move to New York at the end of September. Both her home in Washington and her country estate "Wexford" at Atoka Va. have been put up for sale.

Mrs. Kennedy's office also will be moved to New York in September. The cost will be paid by the government until December.

Miss Turnure said Mrs. Kennedy's mail continues to pour in at a rate of 400 to 500 letters a day. Many of the letters, she said, express "great interest" in a traveling exhibit of Kennedy effects. Other letters comment on Mrs. Kennedy's decision to move to New York, with most indicating they understand her reasons and agree that "whatever is best for her she should do," Miss Turnure said.

Mrs. Kennedy's Georgetown house has been a magnate for tourists and still is even while she and her children, Caroline, 6, and John Jr. 3, are away, vacationing at Hyannisport, Mass., with members of the Kennedy clan.

Mrs. Kennedy decided to leave Washington because of the strong memories it holds for her of her former life. "She thought the change would be beneficial," said Miss Turnure.

GAIN REPORTED

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Tidewater Oil Co. today announced a modest gain in consolidated net income for the first six months of 1964.

Net income for the first six months was $19,342,000, equal to $1.30 per common share after preferred dividends, compared with 1963's first half figures of $19,306,000, or $1.30 per common share.

Red Prince Rejects Summit Meeting Talks

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Prince Souphanouvong of the pro-Communist Pathet Lao has rejected neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma's suggestion for a summit meeting of the rival Laotian leaders in New Delhi to resolve differences, it was announced Wednesday.

A spokesman for Souvanna's office said the so-called Red Prince had termed the capital of India an "inappropriate" place for such a meeting and reiterated earlier suggestions that it be held in the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh or the Indonesian capital of Jakarta.

Both Indonesia and Cambodia are friendly to Communist China, the Pathet Lao's principal foreign backer in the Laotian civil war. Relations between Peking and New Delhi have been strained since their border war two years ago.

State Secret Disclosed By Secretary Rusk

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk disclosed a state secret Wednesday night.

The terrace atop the State Department building, which overlooks much of downtown Washington, is not available to guests because it is under repair.

Apologizing at a formal dinner for Malaysia's visiting Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman, Rusk said the terrace had begun to leak on "those of us on the famous seventh floor," where he and his top aides have their offices.

"This is dangerous to say, I know," Rusk said. "It opens the way for our Republican friends to say that the Republicans built the State Department and it worked fine and then the Democrats got in and it began to leak."

ADELAIDE—A 17-story apartment building, the largest in South Australia, will be built here next year.

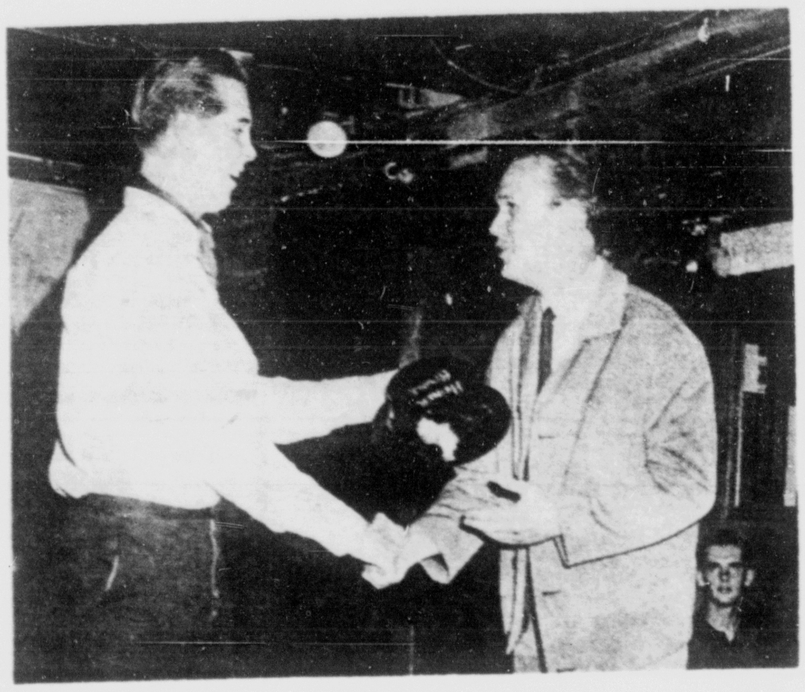
Meal Call

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Yankee doodle damsels and dandies are eating more beef chicken, turkey, fruits and vegetables, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Preliminary estimates of this year's per capita food consumption indicate the following ups and downs: meat, up about a pound, more beef, less pork and lamb; poultry, up 1½ pounds; fresh fruits, up five pounds; eggs, down one or two; dairy products, down one per cent; coffee, down slightly, sugar cereals and bakers products, no change.



HAT FOR CELEBRITY — For many years it has been the custom of the Imperial Players at Cripple Creek to award villain's hats to visiting celebrities. Shown receiving his at the Sunday afternoon performance of "Ticket-Of-Leave Man" is Herr Heiner Bruns, Literary Manager of the Municipal Theatre in Freiburg, Germany. Herr Bruns is visiting the United States and observing theatres typical of the country from coast to coast. He was the guest of Miss Nancy Elder of Denver, who has recently returned from an acting tour of Germany. Actor Rory Donohue is shown making the award.

EUROPE IN THE CARIBBEAN

NEW YORK (UPI) — A 13-day Caribbean cruise that resembles a five-country tour of Europe will begin Sept. 12 when the Furness liner Ocean Monarch sails from New York to five Caribbean Islands featuring the historical, cultural, architectural and culinary highlights of Spain, Denmark, England, France and Holland. Ports of call are San Juan, St. Thomas, Barbados, Martinique and St. Maarten.

HINTS FROM Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise:

I am forever trying your hints, but the one that heads the list as far as I am concerned ,is the home-made furniture polish recommended by an antique dealer.

Just in case some of your readers missed it, may I repeat it?

Use: One-third cup of each:
Boiled linseed oil
Turpentine
Vinegar

Mix together and shake well before using. Pour on soft cloth to apply and wipe completely dry with another clean soft cloth afterwards.

"Don't" try to boil your own linseed oil. Buy it at a paint or hardware store.

We did all of our walnut and maple furniture with this polish yesterday and it brought out the grain of the wood and made it beautiful. —D. E. D.

Yes, and antique stores and museums use this. —Heloise

Dear Heloise:

When children have childhood diseases (mumps, measles, etc.) write the date of the illness and which disease it was on the back of their birth certificate.

In later years when mother has forgotten, or is not around to ask, you can save yourself lots of worries.

The same applies to church ceremonies. Write the dates on the back of the baptism certificate.

These certificates you will always keep. —Mrs. J. J. T.

Letter of Laughter

Dear Heloise:

I have a friend with a zany sense of humor. She had a recipe which called for crushed lemon drops (candy). She placed them in a bag and tried to crush them with a hammer and it failed absymally.

Whereupon, she put the candy in a heavy plastic bag (allowing plenty of room so they weren't crowded), placed the bag in her driveway, and ran over it with her car. A perfect job of crushing! —Mary Matteson

I hope the bag didn't split. Our sides did when we read this . . . —Heloise

Dear Heloise:

We save our old newspapers for paper drives. It has always been a problem to keep the stacks of papers neat, and then to tie them in bundles for the boys to pick up.

Recently I discovered that the broad side of the large, brown paper bags (in which we get our groceries) are the exact size of a folded newspaper.

When I picked up the old papers I slide the pack into a bag in the garage. When the bag is full, I keep it lying broadside and place another bag on top of it to continue storing more papers.

This keeps the stack neat and it is easy to hand them over to the Scouts without having to tie them in bundles. —Esther Dobner

Dear Heloise:

I use attractive clippon earrings, which no longer clip tightly enough, as tie-backs for my curtains. —Mrs. W. Tarwid

Dear Heloise:

Here is something I discovered when washing a small garment that has stays: (Bras, waist-cinchers, garter belts, etc.)

I put the garment in a zippered cotton pillow cover and if any stays or supports come loose, they will be in the bag and you don't have to worry about them getting into the drain of the washer. —Mrs. C. Simon

Dear Heloise:

If you stand on a table when painting your rooms, slip children's worn or too small socks on the legs of the "table." This way your hardwood floors are saved from scratches and the table is easier to move.

I've been painting this way for years. Really saves time and also strain on legs. —Mrs. W. H. Wischer

It is best to use the table "without" the leaves as the bars under the table help to support the weight. And be "sure" to test this. I don't know how strong your table is or hat you weigh. — Heloise

For belles looking to lose weight: barbells designed for the feminine market. A set of princess bells is made of smooth plastic-like compound that won't rust and is as durable as iron. (Diversified Products Corp., Opelika, Ala.).

Now an "electronic baby sitter." Actually it is an electronic transceiver that enables continuous transmission of any sounds in the room. The Robot "sitter" broadcasts the sound from a child's crib to any other room in the house. (Westinghouse, Metuchen, N.J.).

A new chandelier utilizes interchangeable sets of crystal in six different colors. The buyer selects the exact color he desires. Fixture and crystal are purchased separately. (Thomas Industries, Inc., 207 E. Broadway, Louisville, Ky.).

For homemakers in need: hook that can be mounted almost anywhere around the house without damaging surfaces with holes, screws, bolts or nails. A simple steel rack is mounted by pressing it onto the surface. Adhesive foam tapes take care of the ticky business. The hooks can be moved from side to side for convenience in spacing. (Modern-Air Mfg. Co., 4436 W. Roosevelt Rd., Chicago, Ill.).

When a slide fastener is difficult to keep closed, sew a small hook in the facing directly above the metal tab on the fastener. The slot in the tab can then be caught in the hook so that the fastener won't slide open.

Marshes Will Be Honored At Reception

The Rev. and Mrs. Spencer W. Marsh Jr., will be honored at a reception in the Centennial Room in the First Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Mr. Marsh became associate pastor in charge of youth work in the First Presbyterian Church here three years ago and is now leaving to become one of three co-pastors of the First Presbyterian Church in Bethlehem, Penn. The plan of having three co-pastors rather than one senior minister with associates or assistants is an experimental one that will offer many challenges to the young men involved.

During the three years the Marshes have been associated with the church here they have made many friends, both within and outside of the church. All are invited to take this opportunity to wish them well.

Rice-Liver Main Dish

The ingredients are: 1 1-3 cups of raw rice, 1 cup cooked, cied chicken liver, 2 medium onions, chopped; 2 nice cloves garlic, chopped, 1 diced green pepper, 3 tablespoons olive oil, 3 chopped - up scallions; 1 tablespoon parsley flakes; enough salt and pepper so it should taste like something.

"Cook the rice, nice it should not stick together, but you'll be sure to turn off the fire a little before it's finished. While this is cooking, saute the onion, garlic and pepper in olive oil until they're nice and brown. Add this to the almost cooked rice. Now you can also add the diced chicken livers, salt and pepper, the scallions and the parsley. Put a little dot here and there with margarine and cover and cook for 15 minutes in a 350 degree over. This makes 5 or 6 portions you won't be ashamed of and its' a sneaky way to make the kids eat liver."

The declarer in today's hand overlooked a simple safety plan which would have placed his four spade contract safely beyond reach of the unkind fates. West opened the kind of clubs and South ruffed with the five of spades. A trump was led and the king was played from dummy. East was in with the ace, and another club forced declarer to ruff again. A diamond to the jack put North in to lead a spade. East followed with the six, and South after a momentary hesitation played the queen. This cost him the hand, for he could not avoid losing two heart tricks as well as two spades.

There was no way for declarer to know that the trumps were divided three-one; nevertheless, the proper play by South on the second round of spades is to finesse the 10 in his hand. For by so doing, he can assure his contract. If the finesse succeeds, the gain is obvious but, if West wins with the jack of spades, it is the last trump held by the opposition.

There is no damaging return that West is in position to make and, when South regains the lead, he can discard three of North's hearts on the top diamond honors. A heart is led to the king and ace, and declarer can now cash the queen and ruff his remaining heart with the dummy's four of spades.

CAPITOL STUFF On TOUR

By THEO WILSON

SAN FRANCISCO — All through the convention, the Republican men kept telling the Republican women, at breakfasts and luncheons and receptions, how nifty it was that wome were becoming so involved in politics.

They kept referring to Sen. Margaret Chase Smith's candidacy for the Presidency as an example of how far the females have advanced. At one meeting Gov. Bill Scranton startled at least one listener by noting that GOP men like to see their women "in all kinds of positions."

As a convention expert myself — never having attended one before — I can see the day coming when the men will live to regret their encouraging words. Women have been running parties a lot longer than men, and when they really take over the big bash known as the national convention, they won't violate all the rules of successful party - giving, the way the gentlemen have been doing for years and years.

Like inviting windbags and ear - benders to attend and then letting them get loose.

There isn't a hostess alive who doesn't know better than that. If you have to invite Old Garrulous to your party — and let's face it, there are more of them at a convention than there are of us quiet fellow Americans —you don't let him talk, center stage, to a glassy-eyed captive audience. This is a cardinal rule of throwing a good party, especially with the whole country looking in on it.

So, when the women take over the convention of the future, the only people who will be allowed to address a session of any kind, or second a nomination, or make an introduction, or present a motion will have been screened as to wit, charm and ability to shut up quickly.

(Don't ask me where the ladies will be able to scare up enough speakers to qualify. Surely there must be some men in politics who can pass the test.)

SPELLBINDING A LA HAROLD E. STASSEN

Here' an example of the kind of spellbinding I had to listen to. Harold E. Stassen talking: "This life now has a priority concern in continuing to follow the creative center philosophy, to bring about a monumental step forward in educational opportunity for the youth of America, a veritable modern charter of opportunity especially directed for those with the exceptional capacity and ability to well serve the nation and mankind in this modern space-atomic age; to accomplish the modernization, strengthening and improving of the United Nations so as to decrease the danger of a nuclear holocaust; to move on through the fulfillment of civil rights and respect for the dignity of all to the ultimate reconciliation between the races in America and to the assurance that the abundance of automation may become a blessing within a free economy with real results for all, including those now sidetracked in the poverty pockets of our country and who need above all the opportunity and motivation to be productive for themselves and for others."

Uh-huh.

This kind of talk is terribly catching. At the convention of tomorrow the ladies undoubtedly will drum out of the corps any press aide who becomes infected. My very first day, at a press briefing, with only us reporters there to hear him, a candidate's press agent earnestly told us that something was "a spontaneous demonstration of grass roots feeling in the country." Now, I mean, after all!

A veteran political reporter — I recognized him because he was wearing a button reading: "I'd rather write than be President" — assured me that this happens all the time, adding cheerfully: "Like a Grade B movie, isn't it."

Not that the press isn't also going to be put through some changes when the women take over. We are going to have to do our part, too, to make the convention a success.

For instance, the entire press corps missed a great opportunity last week to add color, drama, and excitement and all that to the little get - together here.

Belted on the head by everybody from Gen. Albert Wedemeyer to President Eisenhower, the reporters just sat there like clumps while the Republicans whistled, clapped and cheered in their delight.

Properly coached, the press would have staged a mass walkout, like the Dixiecrats did in 1948. Then it would have been a convention to go down in history as the first where the highly competitive news guys marched out like buddies instead of the way they usually leave kicking each other in the shins trying to get to the phones first.

(Come to think of it — and that was a real switch — about the only kind words said in public about the press came from Dick Nixon during the last session in what one columnist called the Bull Palace.)

ELEGANT HATS WOULD BE SO MUCH NICER

The ladies who take over the convention eventually have got to do something about those delegates and the alternates too. If they must wear those hats, can't some politically minded designers donate their talents and dream up something elegant? It would look so much nicer in the pictures.

And that platform! After all, women know everything about streamlining their figures, so it should be nothing for them to streamline a 10,000-word job.

They will find it a little tougher to convince the men that they shouldn't fight in public and call each other names.

When women call each other names, they have the decency to do it behind each other's backs, not out in public for the whole country to see. There's a lesson there.

Carpenter May Leave Hospital Shortly

HOUSTON (UPI)— Astronaut M. Scott Carpenter, who orbited the earth without difficulty but found a motorscooter too much to handle, will be released from a Houston hospital within the next few days.

Doctors examined the native Coloradan's broken arm and performed minor surgery on both feet Tuesday. He broke the arm and a toe und banged up a knee last week in Bermuda when he lost control of his motorbike while trying to dodge an oncoming car.

The doctors took the cast off the arm to see whether it was healing properly. There had been some fear that it might be necessary to re-break the bones and set them again.

A spokesman said the medics did perform "minor surgery" on the broken toe and also on the other foot to correct a deformity of a toe that had caused him discomfort in the past.

Carpenter, who orbited the earth three times in 1962, was in Bermuda to take part in a project to send astronauts beneath the sea for long periods of time.

BURN TREATMENT IS COMPLICATED

A severe burn injures the largest organ of the body. It also is an illness because the charred tissues create chemical changes involving electrolytes and proteins. When this balance is altered, the efficiency of many other organs of the body is disturbed. In addition, the victim may develop complications such as pneumonia, hepatitis, or stroke.

The care of these individuals presents problems that seldom are discussed. It is so time-consuming only the very poor and the very rich can afford it. Hospitalization may continue for months. Hours of daily care from nurses, physicians, and other attendants are required.

When a large area of the skin is involved, the person is helpless and must be cleaned, fed, and helped with all bodily functions. A tube is placed in his stomach and in the bladder and needles in the veins for intravenous feeding. He cannot see or hear if large bandages cover the eyes and ears.

Thus, he may be isolated completely from the world. Any movement is painful because it stretches or rubs the burned part. Complications add to his misery. Coughing hurts and infections irritate the involved skin.

The charred skin requires meticulous attention. Surgeons beg people to donate skin to cover the large raw areas. These grafts seldom last more than three or four weeks but help pull the victim through the early and more critical period. The patient's own skin will be used to cover strategic areas such as the face, neck, and hands. These autoplastic grafts are permanent.

The hospital must be equipped for this type of care. Special beds may be needed to turn the patient without producing pain or disturbing the burn or the skin graft. Many severe cases require a dozen or more blood transfusions. Few physicians have the patience and personality to limit their practice to burns. For this reason, large medical centers are opening facilities for treatment of these patients.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

Bone Infection

Mrs. B. writes: 1. What bacteria cause osteomyelitis? 2. Can any type of infection bring recurrences?

Reply

1. Virtually every type of micro-organism is capable of causing bone infection. But staphylococci and streptococci accounts for 90 per cent of all cases.

2. Recurrences are always possible.

Bronchial Secretions

P. M. J. writes: A man of 62 coughs up a large amount of thick, gluey secretions from the lungs. Could this be cystic fibrosis?

Reply

This is boubtful unless he has been bothered with a heavy secretion since infancy. Chronic bronchitis is a more likely cause, due to smoking, bronchiectasis, or emphysema.

Activity After Surgery

W. W. writes: Is it true that exercise is needed arter an operation to prevent the development of phlebitis?

Reply

Activity helps by improving circulation and preventing stagnation of blood. The exercises are mild—such as wiggling the toes and fingers or sitting on the side of the bed.

Hygienic Precautions

M. B. writes: Is it safe to visit a home where a member of the household has hepatitis?

Reply

Actress Tells Why She Signed Up With Series

By JOAN CROSBY

NEW YORK (NEA) — Patricia Barry, a red-headed beauty and one of television's busiest actresses, was explaining why she had agreed to appear in a series next season.

"The thing is I love Jack Klugman, and when they told me he was going to be in the series, it helped me decide. Of course, later I found they had told him I was going to be in the series, and that's what helped him decide."

The NBC series is something new in programming. The overall title is "90 Bristol Court," and it consists of three separate but interwoven comedies, with "Karen," "Tom, Dick, and Mary" and "Harris Against the World." In an engaging bit of television whimsy, all the people involved live at the same Southern California bungalow court. So there will be an occasional overlapping of actors, as "Karen" spills into "Tom, Dick and Mary," and "Harris" takes on his neighbors as well as the world.

It's "Harris Against the World" that will occupy Emmy Award winner Klugman and Patricia Barry. And she has rationalized herself right into believing a television series will allow her to spend more time with her family.

Patric (what's what she likes to be called) is married to producer Philip Barry Jr. and is the mother of two girls, 13 and 6.

"The children are at an age where they need some of my time. I can do this show like ordering groceries. There will be a regular shooting schedule, the same hairdresser, the same director, the same studio. This kind of a schedule takes less out of you. You can plan your time. You know when you will have days off. And if there are special thigs at school I must attend, they can write me out of a script."

BUILDS BIG PLANT

NEW YORK (UPI) — Imperial Oil Co. announced Wednesday it will build Canada's first acronitrile plant at Sarnia, Ont., at a cost of $5 million. Acronitrile is a basic ingredient in plastics, synthetic rubbers and man-made fibers.

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has sent to President Johnson for his signature a $1,534,994,000 authorization for construction of military facilities in this country and overseas.

The house approved this compromise measure Wednesday and the Senate passed it shortly afterward.

A separate appropriation bill to finance these projects already has been passed by the House. The Senate has not acted upon the money measure.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union says it isn't shipping American wheat to Cuba.

A minister at the Soviet Embassy here told the State Department Wednesday that reports of such shipments were false.

Capt. Artur H. Fertig, skipper of the Sister Katingo, reported a few days ago that Russian stevedores in the port of Novorossisk told him that American grain was being shipped from the Soviet Union to Cuba.

Fertig's ship was boarded and searched by Russians when it left Novorossisk without clearance last week. The United States protested against what it called excessive mehods employed by Soviet authorities.

Georgi M. Kornienko, the Soviet minister, denied the reports of the grain shipments. He suggested Fertig made his charge "to provoke trouble" because of the incident at the Black Sea port.

A State Department spokesman, asked whether this government was satisfied with Kornienko's statement, replied that "we continue to seek any possible information" about the matter.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Seminars to clarify for businessmen provisions of the Civil Rights Act pertaining to personnel—from hiring to firing— are planned by the National Association of Manufacturers.

Under the new law the federal government is placed in the position "of final arbiter of personnel practices," W. P. Gullander, NAM president, said in a statement. Because of this, he said, "there is need of genuine appreciation of its implications at policy levels of management."

WASHINGTON (AP)—World War II veterans are facing increasingly tougher job competition from youngsters of the postwar baby boom, a Labor Department official says.

Louis Levine, director of the U.S. Employment Service, says the younger men who are coming into the labor market are generally better educated and better equipped for the jobs.

"With each passing year, veterans become especially vulnerable to the rapidly changing labor conditions and hiring specifications," Levine said in an article in "Employment Service Review," published by the Labor Department.

But Levine said that by and large veterans have fared well in the years since the GI Bill 20 years ago provided the nation with its biggest single boost in education and job training.

He gave this profile of the average World War II veteran:

"Three out of four veterans live in urban areas. Their average annual income (last year) was $5,100 as compared with the $3,200 for non-veterans. Their unemployment rate last year was about half (3.2 per cent compared with 6.2 per cent) of that experienced by non-veterans."

NATIONAL COUNCIL FIGHTS BIGOTRY

NEW YORK (UPI) — A resolution calling on the constituent communions of the National Council of Churches to "recognize the ever present danger of anti-Semitism" has been adopted by the General Board. The Board called on the churches to "recognize anti - Semitism, no matter what its origin, as absolutely irreconcilable with the profession and practice of the Christian faith."

"The spiritual heritage of Jews and Christians," the resolution said, "should draw us to each other in obedience to the one Father and in continuing dialogue."

Engineers Face 'Keeping Up' With Knowledge

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Graduate engineers can discard about 50 per cent of their professional knowledge 10 years from now because it will be obsolete.

The pity of it is that only about half of what the engineer must know by 1974 is available at present.

Westinghouse Electric Corp. is taking steps to remedy this situation with its New Engineering Concepts Program. This plan is designed for non-management engineers who have about 10 years' engineering experience.

Recently 17 Westinghouse engineering managers from the United States and Canada put the finishing touches on a four-week program aimed at keeping professional engineers up - to-date on new trends and new knowledge.

John R. Van Horn, Westinghouse manager of professional development, said:

"The graduate of 10 or more years ago received his college education at a time when modern techniques of design and analysis, now rapidly becoming conventional, were not taught in undergraduate schools nor, in many cases, even in graduate schools."

Van Horn said most of the men in the current Westinghouse program earned their engineering degrees from 15 to 20 years ago. They now supervise departments ranging in size from 20 to 100 engineers.

Carnegie Institute of Technology helped design the program with top lecturers supplied by the University of Pittsburgh, Case Institute of Techonology and Princeton University.

The goals of the program are to encourage self - education of the engineering manager in new fields by providing understanding and familiarization with new concepts and developments.

During the sessions, which ran five days a week and some evenings, managers covered son is now deputy ambassador in South Viet Nam.

such fields as modern and numerical analysis, probability and statistics, logic theory, physics, new concepts in engineering materials and energy conversion.

U.S. and Red China Will Resume Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassadors of the United States and Red China will resume their nine-year-old informal talks July 29 in Warsaw.

State Department officials, in reporting this today, said the 121st session will be routine.

Wang Kuo-chuan, a high-ranking Red Chinese official, was named to the Warsaw post a few weeks ago. Earlier, he was Peking's envoy to Communist East Germany.

The U.S. ambassador is John Moors Cabot.

Although labeled routine, the first meeting will be the first between an American and a Red Chinese diplomat since the Communist Pathet Lao began its military drive in Laos on May 16, with the backing of the Communist Viet Minh.

The U.S.-Red Chinese meetings started in 1955 in Geneva when U. Alexis Johnson represented the United States. John-

Plans for Brazilian Revolt Are Disclosed

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—The War Ministry has confirmed documents published by the news magazine O Cruzeiro showing that a brother-in-law of ex-President Joao Goulart received some $5 million from Fidel Castro to finance a revolt in Brazil.

The documents said Leonel Brizola, a former member of Congress who fled to Uruguay with Goulart after the rightist military coup last April, was promised $10 million in all by the Cuban prime minister.

The Brazilian Congress gave final approval Wednesday to a constitutional amendment extending interim President Humberto Castello Branco's term an extra year, until March 15, 1967.

Program Fights Red Influence in Latin America

By RICHARD L. ARKIN
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UP) — A training program operated by American labor, management and the federal government is helping counter communist influence in Latin American trade unions.

The American Institute for Free Labor Development (AIFLD), now two years old, has trained thousands of potential leaders in the concepts of the democratic labor movement.

"Fighting communism is not the sole purpose of AIFLD," Serafino Romualdi said in the AFL-CIO Federationist. But "its graduates have found . . . that they had to fight it if they were going to continue to work for the development of the free labor movement."

Our graduate in British Guiana used parliamentary techniques taught by the AIFLD to dislodge an agent of Marxist Premier Cheddi Jagan from the presidency of the Commercial and Clerical Workers Union.

Romualdi said graduates have been just as successful in Venezuela, Honduras, Brazil, Bolivia and Chile where "the challenges were met head on; the graduates not only held their own but eliminated totalitarian elements from a number of important unions."

The institute, organized by the AFL - CIO, American industry and the Latin American Alliance for Progress, is promoting a new concept of labor's role in national affairs.

"The old concept of confining organized labor's role to . . . wages, working conditions, and, above all fighting against the employer," Romualdi said, "is being supplanted by the new concept of labor as a full fledged partner in a national society . . ."

"There was a time," he said, "when a Latin American leader's primary qualification was his ability to sway listeners to his point of view through oratory." He said that this is no longer true; that the new type of labor leader "cannot be improvised." Romualdi added:

"Today's labor leader must have deep within himself a burning desire to serve his fellow workers and . . . his own country. But he must also acquire a great deal of technical knowledge and this requires specialized education and intensive study."

The field programs are tailored to the country in which they operate. In some there are full-time resident schools offering eight to 10-week courses similar to the program in Washington. In others, short - term seminars are held in various industrial complexes. Eventually the Institute hopes to have both programs in each country supplemented by the Washington operation.

Students in the European course are given a first - hand look at trade union operations in other countries. After a three-week orientation period at the Washington school, they spend eight weeks investigating the workings of the Israeli Histadrut (General Confederation of Labor), the Italian Confederation of Labor Unions and the International Labor Organization in Geneva. In West Germany, they are taken to West Berlin and—when possible —at East Berlin, where they can see the dramatic contrast "between the worlds of democracy and totalitarianism."

The Institute also is involved in promotion of social development work through its social projects department and is helping build the largest housing project in the western hemisphere near Mexico City.

"The concept of the various economic power elements in a free society working together, instead of in opposition," Romualdi said, "has become the most fundamental creed of the Institute. The idea of labor and management pulling together is . . . a necessity for the continued growth of a democratic society."

Lucky Scouts whose names were selected from the Scout-O-Rama Treasure Chest were named by John Alexander, chairman of the 1964 Scout-O-Rama. The name of every Scout who sold one or more books of Scout-O-Rama tickets was placed in the Treasure Chest for an opportunity to secure items of equipment if their name was selected.

The top award went to Cub Scout Eric Griffis of Pack 13 sponsored by Longfellow School PTA. Cub Griffis received a brand new bicycle presented by Rotarian Harold Hawks. The second place winner is Scout Gary Jasmund of Troop 23 sponsored by First Methodist Church. Scout Jasmund received a transistor radio presented by Gordon Shouse Television and Radio Company.

Alexander stated that the 1964 Scout-O-Rama, sponsored by the Rotary Clubs of Colorado Springs, was the most successful in the 20 years the yearly event has been held. Next years Scout-O-Rama will be held the first week in April, 1965. The Scout-O-Rama, the regions largest youth show, is a major activity of all Packs, Troops and Explorer Posts in the Pikes Peak area.

More than 20,000 persons attended the 1964 event with more than 7000 Scouts and leaders helping to produce the huge event.

The Rotary Clubs of Colorado Springs furnished the pesonnel for the executive committee and 70 sponsors for Scout-O-Rama booths. Scores of Rotarians served as members of the various committees. Hundreds of Cubs and Scouts received gift certificates for Scout equipment or for camp fees.

Speeder Fined $50 in JP Court Wednesday

Dennis Pigott, 24, 413 Prairie Rd., was fined $50 Wednesday in Municipal Court when he pleaded guilty to a speeding violation. Judge Clinton Cole pointed out to Pigott that this was his third speeding violation this year, thus the stiff fine.

Donald Schreder, 28, Rural Route 3, pleaded guilty to a speeding violation. His $15 fine was suspended by the judge when Schreder presented proof of a mechanical difficulty with his vehicle.

James Dennis, 21, 502 S. 8th St., also pleaded guilty to a speeding violation and was fined $15.

Arthur Benton, 18, 2604 Weir Ave., was fined $15 on a guilty plea to careless driving. Disposition on a charge of injury to city property was continued for 10 days.

James Crance, 21, 22 W. Uintah St., failed to appear in court on a charge of speeding and his $25 bond was ordered forfeited.

A charge of the signal light violation was dismissed against William Paul, 49, 230 N. Walnut St., on the failure of Police Officer Charles Jackson, who cited Paul, to appear in court.

John Griffin, 19, 1342 E. Monument St., pleaded not guilty to charges of riotous conduct and breach of peace and Judge Cole set Aug. 5 for his trial to the court. Griffin, currently in city jail, was placed on a $50 bond Tuesday, but at Deputy City Attorney Bob Isaac's motion, the bond was increased to $200 by the judge.

Planning Group Approves Zone Change Request

A special public hearing Wednesday by the El Paso County Planning Commission approved the petition and appeal of Leo H. Ververs, to change an A-1 Garden Home District to a C-2 Suburban Business District.

The 526 by 631 feet area is adjacent and north of Yampa Street and west of North Circle Drive. There was no opposition to the proposal.

Appearing on his own behalf Ververs assured the commission of minimum right of way provisions for the extension of Uintah Street, through the area in the event contemplation of the extension is in county plans.

The dedication of right of way footage was also supported by two interested property owners north of the Ververs area, Orville F. Bush and Mrs. Marion Neece, who pledged the additional 10 feet right of way on the north side making a total of 80 feet. The right of way dedication was included in the motion and carried.

The petition was the only item of business on the agenda. Planning Board Vice Chairman Dietz Lusk Jr., presided at the hearing in the absence of regular Chairman William A. Crumrine. Introduced to the board prior to the hearing was Sharon Boles, new Planning Board secretary.

Both Political Parties Hold Meetings Tonight

The El Paso County Democratic and Republican Parties will hold Legislative District meetings tonight.

The Republicans will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the City Auditorium and the Democrats will meet at 8 p.m. in the County Office Building.

Weldon Tarter, Republican chairman, said that delegates to these GOP assemblies are the same dedegates which were selected in the precinct caucuses in each precinct on May 18 and who were delegates to the Republican County Assembly on May 23.

All persons who were delegates to the El Paso County Democratic Assembly are automatically delegates to these legislative district meetings, according to Atty. John Bennett, county chairman.

These meetings will be a rerun. The parties held the meetings in June, but a Supreme Court decision, given further specific direction by a three man panel of federal judges in Denver wiped out the results.

These meetings are necessary because of the earlier reapportionment accomplished by the state assembly.

Under the latest reapportionment act and the final determination of the courts that the 1964 elections will be conducted under the present districting system, the meetings had to be held again.

Under the new reapportionment, El Paso county gained a senatorial district, increasing the senate strength of the county to three.

The five representative districts in the county remain as they were, running from numbers 19 through 23.

The Democratic party is expected to re-designate the candidates it named at the earlier legislative meetings.

At that time, the party had a vacancy in District 19.

Alfred Coxe and Lindy Fields were named candidates for District 20.

As far as is known all candidates who were nominated at the El Paso County Assembly for the House of Representatives and for the Colorado Senate will seek nomination again.

In addition, William O. Lennox, who is now a member of the house of representatives, has announced he will seek nomination to Senate District 12, which is El Paso County's third senate seat.

There is a possibility there will be at least one more candidate who will seek nomination from the same district.

Two years ago, in the 1962 off-year election, the voters of Colorado approved what was referred to as the "Little Federal Plan," and officially labeled "Amendment No. 7," because it was the seventh proposed amendment to the state constitution on the ballot.

This provided for reapportionment of the state, which had not been done for about 50 years.

The assembly earlier this year implemented that amendment by reapportioning the state. The reapportionment was challenged and the U. S. Supreme Court said that it was unconstitutional, citing the principle of "one man — one vote."

The high court said that the Colorado Senate was not properly based on population, and so it had to be reapportioned. Further, it ruled that both houses were involved since they had both been reapportioned on the same bill. Therefore, the reapportionment of the Colorado House was thrown out along with the reapportionment of the state senate.

To conform with the high court order, Gov. John A. Love called a special session of the legislature and a new reapportionment plan was adopted.

This wasn't all new. The assembly simply adopted the same plan for the house that it had adopted earlier, since the federal high court had not found fault with that.

However, a new basis of representation in the senate was set up. This new basis gave El Paso County one more senator.

Since then, the Colorado Supreme Court has ruled that the last reapportionment of the senate was not done properly, but said that the state does not have to change it until after the upcoming election.

While all the legal decisions were being rendered and the governor and the state assembly were trying to figure out what to do, days kept passing and the calendar turned.

As the time passed, both parties held their regular meetings, such as the legislative district meetings, and so now must hold them again.

TWO-CAR CRASH INJURES ONE — One driver was injured Wednesday night, in a two-car crash causing damages amounting to total loss on one car and $750 to a second. John Alfred Skaggs, 22, Xenia, Ohio, suffered a vertebrae injury and an abrasion to the left forearm. He was taken by E and E Ambulance to Memorial Hospital where he was treated and released. Police said the Skaggs car was going south on 19th Street when it entered the Uintah Street intersection and collided with a car driven by Clifford Lawson, 24, Ft. Carson, going east on Uintah Street. Police ticketed Skaggs for reckless and careless driving. (Gazette Telegraph Photo)

LITTLE SHEPHERD — Wet Back, the monkey, and Pat, the dog, will give human cowboys at the Ute Trail Stampede this week an eyefull on the art of herding sheep. The monkey and the dog are featured at the annual rodeo which opens Friday at 1:30 p.m. and will continue through Sunday. The monkey and dog are owned by Earl Wharton of San Saba, Texas.

Monkey and Dog To Perform At Ute Rodeo

A dog and a monkey will show the human cowboys at the Ute Trail Stampede at Woodland Park this week the fine art of penning sheep. Woodland Park Saddle Club officials, sponsors of the three-day rodeo, said that Earl Wharton of San Saba, Texas, has confirmed that he will bring his trained Border Collie and a "cowboy" monkey to the Woodland Park rodeo.

The special act will be one of the features of the annual Ute Trail Stampede staged in the rodeo arena in downtown Woodland Park at 1:30 p.m., Friday Saturday and Sunday, that will also include Brahma bull riding, saddle bronc busting, bareback bronc riding, barrel racing and bulldogging by human cowboys.

Wharton reported that Wet Back, the monkey, will wear a "monkey sized" cowboy outfit complete with half-pint hat and chaps while riding Pat. The Border Collie mount — Pat — is one of the breed that has been found to work with sheep better than most dogs.

Wet Back and Pat will appear at each of three matinee shows. In addition, youngsters at the rodeo will get to meet the canine mount and his almost human rider after the rodeo performances.

The 1964 Woodland Park Stampede will be the 17th annual rodeo at the top of Ute Pass. Other rodeo activities will include a Saturday morning parade and a cowboy ball Saturday night at the new Saddle Club hall on the rodeo grounds.

Police List Shed Fire As Arson

City Police today listed a shed fire as arson, Wednesday, set by unknown persons amounting to $97 damage. Fire was extinguished by the victim, Dorothy Marie Shearer, 1554 Happiness Dr., who told police she discovered the fire after smelling smoke from her kitchen.

Police listed damages to the shed, a power mower, tent and a baseball bat. Burnt stick matches were found inside the shed.

A neighbor reported seeing three youths 12 or 13 years of age enter the back gate at the victim's address.

Revue Contestants Will Get Free Rodeo Tickets

Boys and girls of age 12 and under who present themselves as contestants in the Kiddies Rodeo Revue Saturday Aug.1 at Acacia Park, and who actually compete in the contest will receive, among other things, a free ticket to the matinee performance of the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo.

The afternoon show will be held Thursday, Aug. 6.All contestants in the revue will attend as guests of the Gazette Telegraph which sponsors the dress-up contest.

The revue will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday.

It should be emphasized that the Kiddies Rodeo Revue is open to all children age 12 or under whether they live in town, in the country, or if they are summer visitors to the area. It is not necessary for contestants to live on farms or ranches. They do not have to be members of riding clubs.

There will be three classes in which boys and girls will be judged. The first class will be the Novelty Costume class which is open to those youngster who wish to dress in fancy "dude" outfits, or as clowns, gamblers, dance hall girls, or other type of Western costume.

The second class will be the Working Cowboy or Cowgirl open class. As the name indicates, this is for boys and girls who come dressed in the working clothes of the cowboy or cowgirl. This class is open to the losers in the Riding Club class and to all boys and girls who do not enter the Novelty Costume class.

Third class is the Working Cowboy or Cowgirl Riding Club class for the finalists in the Riding Club contest which are currently being held.

During the past two weeks, riding and saddle clubs in the area have been holding preliminary contest to select the finalists for Saturday's contest.

Last Sunday the Lone Tree Riding Club selected two boys and three girls to participate in the finals. They include Jerry Brown, who won first place in the boy's division; Jerry Olsen, second place, boy's division; Paula Jean Woodward, first place, girl's division; Christine Goetsch, second place, girl's division; Kathy O'Rourke, third place, girl's division.

All five will compete in the Riding Club finals.

There will be a boy and girl winner in each class. First place winner will receive handsome horse trophies and belt buckles. All contestants will receive Rodeo Revue ribbons, and all will be given free ice cream bars in addition to the free tickets to the Aug. 6 afternoon performance of the rodeo.

There is no entry fee. Youngsters have only to be present at 9 a.m. Saturday at Acacia Park dressed in whatever attire is necessary for the class they wish to enter.

PRACTICE ROUND—Joy Garrett, Colorado Springs' entry in the Miss Colorado Pageant, goes through a rehearsal of the song she sang in the talent portion of the pageant, Wednesday. Two dozen girls are in Denver preparing for the finals Friday night when one will be chosen Miss Colorado to vie for the title of Miss America in September in Atlantic City. Joy, the 19-year old Colorado College student won the preliminary talent contest. She is from Forth Worth, Texas. (AP Wirephoto)

Demos Take Strong Stand On Housing, Urban Renewal

By GLENN URBAN
Gazette Telegraph
Political Writer

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the fourth in a series about the Democratic State Assembly and Convention held Saturday in Denver.)

The Colorado Democratic party took a strong stand on housing and urban renewal in the resolutions adopted at the state convention and assembly held in the Denver Hilton last Saturday.

The resolutions stated the party's stand on national affairs, state affairs and civil rights.

The civil rights action was reported in the first two of this series and the third reported on a portion of the party's stand on national issues, of which housing and urban renewal were a part.

The resolution on Housing and Urban Renewal stated that the Democratic Party is committed to an attack on slums and their attendant social and economic evils.

The party said that the following programs "have been conceived and sponsored by the Democratic Party."

"Lower interest rates and guaranteed loans for home owners, low-rent public housing, urban renewal, housing for the elderly, cooperative housing, rural housing, moderate income housing, loans for community and area planning and development of college housing."

The resolution stated that the "programs administered by the Housing and Finance Agency are a major force in stimulating employment through the construction of homes. The Democratic Party of Colorado reaffirms its support of these programs."

To implement those programs, the resolution stated that the party "Supports the proposed Housing and community Development Act, which was recommended by President Johnson in his special housing message to congress in January."

Other issues listed in the resolutions report dealing with national affairs:

— Civil Rights. The party went on record as supporting the Johnson Administration of the new Civil Rights Bill.

The resolution asked for a review "of the activities of the House Un-American Activities Committee and the Senate Internal Affairs Sub-Committee with the goal of limiting appropriations to amounts actually required for legitimate investigations undertaken in order to promote legislation."

— On Natural Resources, the resolution stated, "We strongly support the wise development and protection of all of our natural resources."

(a) It supported "programs and continued research to protect our water and air against pollution and waste, and development of additional water conservation and reclamation projects."

(b) It supported "the continuing development of our National Park System and the inclusion of recreational facilities in water and forest projects."

(c) It urged the Congress to "pass such laws as may be necessary to subsidize mining and to effect the immediate development of mineral wealth."

— Control of Monopolies. The resolution stated that the party traditionally opposed monopoly in the economic structure and proposed "that the Democratic Party work to re-establish and preserve this nation's original policy of guaranteed opportunity of enterprise available to all." To do this it asked:

(a) "Vigorous and impartial enforcement of all anti-monopoly and restraint of trade laws."

(b) "Congressional review of all incentives granted to business, in order to assure that such incentives actually encourage competition and do not merely bestow added privilege upon monopoly-type businesses."

(c) It also commended President Johnson for "his efforts in launching a thorough study of vertical integration and the cost-price spread in the food industry, as a needed step in checking monopoly practices among food chains."

In this regard, it strongly urged "legislation to make it unlawful for chain stores and other retailers, such as those in automobile, newsprint, food and other fields, to engage, through vertical integration, in natural resources 'development and processing."

—Economy in Government. "We strongly support President Johnson's campaign for economy in government by elimination of wasteful spending, in order to obtain a dollar's worth for each tax dollar spent."

— Tax Reform. "We urge continuing efforts to close tax loopholes and to make more equitable the Federal Income tax, through whatever legislative amendments and enforcement procedures are necessary."

— Elections and Sufferage. The resolution asked for a "comprehensive review of the Hatch Act, with a view toward certain modifications which will grant Federal employees the right to greater participation in political activites."

The resolution stated, "Federal employees should have the same rights as do all other citizens to openly support candidates of their choice, to attend and participate in political meetings and rallies, and be delegates to political assemblies and conventions."

— Immigration and Naturalization. The party supported the position of the late President John F. Kennedy, who called for revising to nationality and immigration legislation of the McCarran-Walter Act of 1952.

The resolution stated that, "This legislation has proven itself to be discriminatory, unfair and prejudicial to the interests of the United States."

It asked that the present numerical level for immigration favor of a non-discriminatory standard."

— Presidential Inability and Succession. The party stated there is a need for an amendment to the U. S. Constitution in order to provide for presidential inability and succession.

The resolution stated that the party "urges support of a measure such as Revised Senate Joint Resolution 139, which has been favorably reported to the Senate Judiciary Committee by the Subcommittee on Constitutional Amendments."

The party urged prompt passage of this measure by Congress and early ratification of the proposal by the Colorado General Assembly.

Next, the state program proposed by the state Democrats.

Piggy Banks Hit By House Burglars

City Police today reported the looting by thieves Wednesday afternoon of the residence of Mackenzie Kerr, 3 S. Hayman St., taking the contents of two piggy banks and several $2 bills totaling $116.

Police said the plastic banks were opened with a knife, believed to be one found at the scene. The intruders had passed up a movie camera, and valuable watches while ransacking the house.

Entry was made through an unlocked back garage door through a door leading into the house from the garage that owner stated was believed to be locked at the time, police said.

Czechs Prepare To Attract More Tourists

By MURRAY J. BROWN

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (UPI) — Czechoslovakia may be one answer for Americans seeking to get off the beaten tourist track now that travel to East European countries is no longer frowned upon by Washington.

For the Czech government figuratively has rolled out the red carpet for western tourists, especially Americans who can get as high as four times the official rate of 7 crowns for their dollars.

Besides offering a glimpse of life behind the Iron Curtain, Czechoslovakia is rich in historical and scenic sites. The cultural and religious center in Central Europe during the Middle Ages, the country still is dotted with countless castles, palaces, cathedrals and other preserved or restored architectural and catural attraction for the foreign visitor.

The official Czechoslovak Travel Bureau (Cedok) invited several Amerian travel writers to visit this Socialist (Communist) Republic as its guests. We flew from New York aboard a Boeing 707-jetliner of Sabena Belgium airlines which flies direct to Prague in about 8 hours.

In recent months, the Czechs have overhauled travel regulations, opening the borders with Germany and Austria for tourists and easing restrictions which has discouraged visitors from the west.

Visas are easier to come by. In the United States, an American can obtain a visa for $4 generally within 48 hours after submitting the necessary documents—an application, a passport and photographs. Visas also can be obtained at border crossings without difficulty.

In addition, it is no longer necessary for Americans to pay in advance for accommodations, meals, tours ,etc. Nor are they limited to specific areas of the country. There are no prohibitions against photographs, except for obvious military installations.

With a guide provided by Cedok, we toured Prague and Western Bohemia, including visits to restored Lidice, the renowned spas of Karlovy Vary (Karlsbad) and Marianske Lazne (Marienbad) and Plzen (Pilsen), long famed for its breweries and Skoda plants.

Prague must rank with the most beautiful cities in Europe, if not in the world. The weathered statue of "Good King" Wenceslas still stands at the end of the square (actually a wide tree-lined street) named in his honor in the center of the city.

The Old-New Synagogue in the former Ghetto also is the oldest in Europe, built in 1270. Close by is the old Jewish Town Hall with the clock inscribed with Hebrew numbers and the Pincus Synagogue museum where the names of the more than 70,000 Czech Jews who died in Nazi concentration camps have been hand-painted on the walls.

Prague also offers numerous fine restaurants and cafes. American music is very popular and the twist, hully gully and other modern western dances are favorites. U.S.-made movies also are popular—Prague has scores of movie houses in addition to more than 20 legitimate theaters and two opera houses.

Hotels were clean and comfortable in the old European style—huge bathtubs and feather-bed coverings. Prices in the Cedok - operated establishments are standardized throughout the country. By western standards, they were surprisingly moderate, particularly with the favorable exchange rate.

Rattler Bite Fatal To New Mexico Man

ROY, N.M. (UPI)—A Canyon Largo, N.M., rancher died Tuesday of a rattlesnake bite after riding a horse 10 miles to a dirt road and then traveling 40 more miles by car to the nearest doctor.

Dead was George Esquibel, 52. Roy Police Chief Romero Santos said Esquibel decided it would be easier to make the 50-mile trip by horseback and car than to return to his ranch only four miles from where he was bitten by the snake.

Santos said Esquibel was in "bad shape" when he arrived in Roy, a small town in the rugged canyon and range country of northeastern New Mexico. He died shortly after at his father's home.

Pure radium costs about $25,000 a gram.

'Burglar Cops' Are Outdated Now in Denver

By EDWARD M. McMANUS

DENVER (UPI) — Denver woman on phone! "Help! Police! There's a burglar in my basement!"

Officer: "Relax, lady. Just get his badge number . . ."

A couple of years ago, the joke had been across the country and back and had made many an honest cop in Denver bristle a bit.

Today it is outdated.

Four years ago, the first evidence of a police burglary scandal in Colorado's capital city was uncovered. When all the results were in, two years later, 50 men had been stripped of their uniforms and kicked off the police force. Thirty of them were sent to prison.

The aftermath of the scandal was colored by politics, climaxing with City Auditor Thomas Currigan's election as Mayor last year. Currigan unseated Richard Y. Batterton after a campaign in which the police situation was the major issue.

Immediately after the election, the man Batterton appointed to clean up the Police Department, James Slavin of Kalamazoo, Mich., resigned with a bitter farewell statement. Currigan then appointed the veteran Dill to head the department.

Dill made sweeping changes in police procedures right away, junking many of Slavin's reform techniques. Among other things, Dill —Reduced drastically the number of "technicians" assigned to various duties at headquarters, reassigning these officers to the streets.

—Boosted the number of two-man patrol cars.

—Increased the number of sergeants on the force to beef up supervisory personnel.

—Eliminated the department's planning agency and cut back the Internal Affairs Bureau, which polices the policemen.

Dill's primary aim has been to put as many of his men as possible on basic police duties.

"We don't need planners," he said recently. "I do the planning. We need policemen. A big planning staff is fine for propaganda or press releases, but we can't afford those frills."

This is typical of Dill's attitude and it seems to have won him many friends, particularly within the department, where morale is improved. But it also has brought criticism from people who feel he has undone much of what Batterton and Slavin were trying to do to get the department back on its feet again.

James Childers retired as police chief in the fall of 1961 after the scandal broke following a state investigation. Then the city called in the skilled staff of the International Association of Chiefs of Police to evaluate the situation and make recommendations for correcting the ills of the department.

Slavin won the endorsement of the association and, following his appointment early in 1962, he undertook many of the reforms recommended.

But he was working under some severe disadvantages. He was new to Denver, even not accepted fully by the press, and remained aloof from the men of the force. And the term of the man who appointed him, Mayor Batterton, would run out the following year.

Currigan seized the police scandal as a campaign issue, blaming Batterton for it and jabbing at the mayor and Slavin for the city's rising crime rate. Batterton fought back with the claim that it was his administration that cleaned up the scandal. Slavin was caught in the middle.

He resigned a few days after his boss's defeat at the polls, telling his men: "I hope that you get what you want under the new command and also that when you get it you want it."

Dill, a balding, soft-spoken man, took over. He had been a Denver policeman since 1935 and, unlike Slavin, he preferred to wear the two gold stars of chief of police on his uniformed shoulders.

His last assignment under Slavin was as warden of City Jail — not one of the more sought-after jobs in the department. But Dill shows no outward animosity toward Slavin and shies away from talking about the way Slavin or other chiefs handled the department.

Dill has had the full support so far of both the mayor and Daniel S. Hoffman, a lawyer Currigan appointed as manager of safety to oversee the police and fire departments.

COLORADO SPRINGS
GAZETTE TELEGRAPH
Your Freedom Newspaper
Ever striving for the Pikes Peak Region to be an even better place to live

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is self-control, no more, no less. It must be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Response to A Labor Boss

Mr. E. E. Mitchell, who signs himself both as regional president, Gulf region, Commercial Telegraphers Union, and as assistant manager, Western Union Telegraph Company, has responded to our prior editorial in somewhat acerbic vein.

Among the sins laid to our door is the allegation of anonymity. We are not anonymous, Mr. Mitchell. The writer of the editorial is named Robert LeFevre and he not only wrote the article which upset you but serves as editor of the Gazette Telegraph.

Possibly you are not aware that this is standard newspaper policy around the nation and has been so, traditionally. Authors of editorials are presumed to be speaking for the owners of the newspapers, the publishers. Therefore, they are not supposed to sign their names but, by inference, the publisher has spoken.

But the reason we say we are not anonymous is that most of the people who read the Gazette Telegraph, or any other newspaper, understand that the editorials printed on the editorial page represent the view of the publisher and not the view of the editorial writer, necessarily. Some newspapers have a full staff of editorial writers, none of whom is ever identified by name. All of them simply write the editorials which, when they appear in the favored position on the editorial page, may be taken to represent the view of the publisher.

Therefore, although Robert LeFevre wrote the editorial, the publisher, Mr. Harry Hoiles, approved of the editorial before it was published. And the views expressed, although set down on paper by Editor LeFevre, were also the views of publisher Hoiles. And since you mentioned Mr. Hoiles in your first sentence, clearly there could have been no anonymity.

Now, let us proceed to some of the other items of your letter. The regional president of the Gulf Region of the Telegraphers Union is a labor boss, by definition, Mr. Mitchell. But you are right in correcting us on one point. We had no idea that any soundly managed business would permit a labor boss to hold a supervisory position high enough up the ladder to be labeled an assistant manager. And if this is the case locally, then we certainly would have to question the business acumen of the local general manager. As a matter of fact, in view of the efforts you are taking to prevent him from exercising his authority, we suspect he is already questioning his judgment in placing you in so exalted a position.

No man can properly serve two masters, Mr. Mitchell. And your letter reveals it. When a man presumes to serve management, he cannot at the same time serve the interests of a union. If he is to serve the union, then he cannot presume at the same time to serve management. Even most labor unions understand that point.

If this policy of permitting labor bosses to attain to positions of real management authority within the organization is general, this may very well be at the root of some very real problems with which Western Union has been plagued for lo, these many years. The conflict of interest would invariably reduce efficiency and might conceivably encourage competition which might otherwise have less encouragement.

The case in point provides a precise illustration. If your interest is in behalf of Western Union, and, as you state, you really want the company to prosper, then you will hastily amend your view and call for the full enforcement of the management's decision to reduce hours in which few if any customers appear.

If, on the other hand, you really have the interests of the union at heart, you will do what you have done and are doing. Clearly, on the evidence at hand, your concern is not with the company, although you protest that it is. But actions speak much louder than your protest.

Suppose, as editor of the Gazette Telegraph, the writer should disapprove of some policy set forth by the publisher. He has several steps he may take within a framework of personal integrity. He can bring his disapproval to the publisher with reasons why he disapproves. He can obey the decision, even though he disapproves. Or he can resign and look for another position. Each of these actions is honorable.

But we do not believe that it would reflect favorably upon our integrity were we to take a difference of view to the public generally and call upon the public or the government to correct the publisher. This would indicate to all and sundry that we had little loyalty for the management, whose bread we eat.

Patriotism

When revolutions are hot, patriotism consists of supporting the revolutionary cause in favor of the country one loves. When revolutions grow cold, patriotism switches to support of reform, because it is the only way to express love of country ... opposition to those in power.

Personification Of Abstractions In Elections

It is an election year. And the news wires are humming with political information and political propaganda. Everything is pointing toward November, when our great national popularity contest will terminate in the finals, in which the concept that might makes right will emerge triumphant.

And in any election year there is a curious phenomenon that can be observed. Most people begin to associate certain desirable qualities with certain persons who are running for office. They begin to believe that their champions, whoever they may be, are the very embodiment of the qualities they admire and that the opponent or opponents of their champion are the very embodiment of all the qualities they detest.

This is a psychological development that is as old as mythology. The ancient Greeks and Egyptians, as well as most other ancient peoples, had great difficulty in expressing and explaining abstract qualities. Most of us still experience that difficulty. So it was a normal occurrence in ancient days for the people at that time to worship an entire pantheon of gods and goddesses. Each god or goddess "represented" certain qualities that were either desirable or undesirable. And gods were loved and feared in relation to the qualities presumably epitomized by them.

The god to whom most of the desirable attributes could be attributed, rose in rank and finally became the head deity. Others, embodying other qualities, took lesser posts. It was a great invisible bureaucracy and to it the people of ancient cultures took their love and their devotion, their hopes and fears. In a very real sense the difference between the divine bureaucracy of the ancients and the much more corporeal bureaucracy along the Potomac, relates only to the matter of visibility. The ancients envisioned abstract qualities and appended them to their gods. We envision them and append them to political candidates.

Now, no one can quarrel with the desirability of many of the qualities we all admire and long to see about us. But it is as foolish to attribute abstract goodness or abstract evil to men of flesh and blood as it is to attribute these same qualities to wraiths of the imagination. The ancients deified concepts, and humanized them. We tend to deify men, and elevate them to a political heirarchy.

Now, the fact is that most men are pretty much alike. They are all, alas, human. And while we cannot predict the behavior of any person, we can predict that each person will endeavor to behave according to his deepest convictions.

However, it is never given to us to be able to discern the deepest convictions of other people. Actually, we have difficulty in really understanding ourselves and in trying to figure out exactly what we ourselves believe in.

But since we cannot predict human action in any individual case, including our own, we have no way at all of knowing just how a given candidate for office will behave after he gets into office — except to this extent. We can predict that he will act differently in certain cases than we would like him to.

So, this practice of attributing certain abstract qualities to politicians invariably leads us to grief. We confuse political promises with abiding convictions. And then we experience recurrent waves of shock when our champion, whoever he may be, strays from the conduct we would have prescribed for him.

We are not trying to suggest that all political candidates are two-faced and insincere. This is usually not the case, although it may be the case in certain instances. Actually, each candidate is trying to win to a seat of power. And if he is sincere in this drive for power, he is almost certain to say and to do those things he fancies will enhance his chances in this direction. Once in office, conditions are never quite what he thinks they are. This is true of all of us.

Our ability to envision the future is always limited and never true. The reality is invariably a digression from the most careful pre-delineation. Thus, conduct varies as new and unpredicted phenomena appear to demand attention. And, as Robert Burns was to observe: "The best-laid plans of mice and men gang aft aglay."

The truth is that regardless of the outcome in November 6, most of the people in this country are going to be disappointed. The abstract qualities they have affixed to certain personalities aren't really affixed at all.

The time will pass. The election will merge into history. But life will go on as it always has. And political fulfillment of political promises will remain what it has always been.

Dullest Elephant Joke

By GEORGE BOARDMAN

Well, the dullest elephant joke of the year is over and the socialist conglomerate has a scapegoat — the admitted conservative political leader who will be blamed for the idiocies of the socialists. With the most obviously socialist of both political parties in full charge of government, a good many aspects of the national economy have been going from bad to worse, propaganda to the contrary notwithstanding, and the bosses were in trouble, right up to their ears. From now on, the so-called conservative candidate for the post of top ruler will be blamed for everything from street riots to the worsening economic situation, and you can bet on that.

The candidate, his cohorts and supporters should not be held blameless, of course, since they have advanced the cause of socialism, conservatively. On the other hand, they will be blamed for many things over which they have had little, if any, control. A good example of what I refer to is the socialist power and water bill which was coauthored by Senators Hayden and Goldwater within recent months. The effects of this bit of socialism will not begin to be felt until next year. The candidate, himself, can hardly be blamed for the fact that the Federal Reserve $1 bill is being less than cordially accepted by the public at large and that this situation may result in other odd conditions which may have a profound effect upon the economy before long.

Please do not misunderstand me. I am not making a case for Senator Goldwater, who is, in my book, a conservative socialist. As I have mentioned several times before, I will never again sanction the right of any human being to rule over me or to represent me in any way in government, and you can depend upon that. My outlook, however, does not alter my ability to recognize the direction which will be taken by the socialists presently in power. They've felt the need of a real solid scapegoat for some time.

Without a little opposition to the wildest of the socialist economic idiocies, the socialist conglomerate sometimes finds itself in big trouble. With the conservative socialist strength at an ebb for a good many years a few of the wilder schemes have been enacted into law before the socialist conglomerate was quite ready and this has put them in a tough spot from time to time. They seriously needed some tough opposition to hold the line just a little.

There's no doubt about it — you will read that Europe is worrying about Goldwater, Khrushchev wonders about Goldwater and that the leaders of other governments will be wondering if Santa Claus will continue to support which government with what sums stolen from the American people. Even if you don't read about it, those same people and same governments will also be wondering what Johnson might do about the goodies, too. In fact, they began worrying just as soon as Mr. Johnson became the head of the government of this country.

From my point of view, the incumbent is a very weak candidate who spent a lot of time in Washington because the people at home wanted to keep him out of Texas. The actual political weakness of the incumbent was demonstrated when he and the late Sam Rayburn tried to show off their power in an attempt to unseat Representative Bruce Alger. Their failure was brushed under the political carpet but the brushing didn't change the situation.

The primary strength of the incumbent stems from the vast number of people who are drawing government checks and have vested interest in the status quo, but I can't feel sorry for the "outs" because they greatly aided in creating the conditions which may perpetuate their status as "outs." Of course, there are also a flock of government check receivers who received increases in pay and I mentioned the political implications when the bills were passed and still another may pass before November.

In any event, the next few months will provide a little fun for those who enjoy masochism and some interest for those who always like to see an odds on favorite whipped. Personally, I will refuse to take sides because I refuse to sanction the system and realize that government is the enemy of freedom.

Good luck and good health to you, in Freedom.

OPEN PARLIAMENT

WESTERN UNION UNION

To the Editor:

On July 15, you ran an editorial entitled "We Protest the Protest," written by some unknown member of the Hoiles hierarchy. Not being a subscriber to your anti-union publication, I find it a bit odd to find no information in your masthead indicating the author of your masterpiece of misinformation and invective, especially in view of the requirement that your Open Parliament contributors are compelled to identify themselves. Nevertheless, I want to reply to the editorial written by Mr. Anonymous.

It is obvious that no effort was made to develop the true facts before publication of the anti-union tirade.

For the information of Mr. Anonymous the only labor bosses in the Western Union division of the Commercial Telegraphers Union are the dues-paying members. All union officers are employees of Western Union who are elected to office by their fellow workers and retain their status as employees of Western Union. Less than a dozen of our officers nationwide devote full time to the union's activities but even these retain their status as furloughed employees of Western Union, subject to return when the "labor boss" members choose not to re-elect them.

The union representatives have a keen sense of the necessity for Western Union's prosperity, as our livelihood depends thereon. We protest reduction of hours and closure of offices only when we are sincerely convinced that such action on the company's part is a short sighted and unrealistic approach to their problem. Many officers, including this writer, hold Western Union positions of a supervisory nature. Many of us have been approached regarding "promotion" to higher management positions, which would necessitate our resignation from the union. Some accept these offers, others decline, but regardless of the decision we are all vitally interested in the continued success of Western Union, for without Western Union there would be no jobs for any of us, either as union officers or Western Union employees.

Mr. Anonymous, speaking whereof he knows not what, would leave the impression that our union is composed of outsiders intent upon the destruction of the company, with no knowledge of its operation and with no business acumen of any kind.

Our sharp-tongued critic would do well to familiarize himself with at least some facts before charging that organized labor is headed by chowder heads who are inept in managing their own business. I know of no bankrupt unions. In our organization we have 57 locals, all with substantial financial reserves invested in sound securities for the protection of the membership.

As for knowing how to run Western Union, we DO help run it. When we do not agree with some of the obtuse retrenchment programs of top management, it is our privilege and duty to the members we represent to protest and that is exactly what we have done and will continue to do, Mr. Anonymous and his ilk notwithstanding.

As a final word of advice I would suggest that our critic confine his activities to the newspaper field, wherein he is supposedly adept, rather than attempt to tell the unions how to operate, an area in which he is obviously a prejudiced novice.

POLITICAL TACTIC

To the Editor:

Tax deductions from pay checks was a political tactic introduced by those who believed in tax and tax, spend and spend, elect and elect. For decades this old plan worked to perpetuate the New Deal through a series of Democrat-Republican administrations. But like all such measures, it was overdone.

Finally, to keep the economy booming, the life-long New Dealer Lyndon Johnson saw political advantage in cutting down the tax deductions on pay checks.

But comes spring, incidently after the elections are all over, and tax report time rolls around, many of us will find deductions have not covered our tax liabilities. Either we won't get the usual refunds or, worse, we'll have to pay in additional amounts to meet our taxes. It may only be $25 or $50 but it may amount to many hundreds of dollars.

At that time a lot of us will wonder why we have to pay all those extra taxes. We'll wonder if all that federal spending was necessary. We'll wonder what happened to all those economies President Johnson has been talking about. We'll wonder why they had to make those foreign aid giveaways so big.

Maybe then popular feeling will force reductions in government spending. Maybe then people will begin to understand where all this "free" money from the federal government comes from. Maybe then the taxpayers will realize who provides the money for federal aid. Too bad, they'll then say, that we did not know about this before the elections.

At least those voters with foresight can be expected to support the economy-minded candidates and reject those who waste the taxes we must pay.

MOMENTOUS PROBLEMS

To the Editor:

Barry Goldwater and William Miller have been elected to be the Republican candidates for President and vice president for the next three months. That is fine as far as it goes. I think and hope they will be elected. But in the meantime the Johnson crew plan to pass many bills that will cost the country much money, and will all be detrimental to our free enterprise system. I hope our Republican congressmen will try to prevent any more foolish bills to be passed, before the election in November.

Johnson has done enough harm during the passed five months, so that the country will be paying for them, and remember him because of them for the next decade or more. His pride law is the war against poverty, and that will cost five billion if enacted, and he has others that are liable to cost that much or more. He was the main pusher for the salary raise bill which was just passed, and that will cost five million and more annually. It should be revoked by congress before the first payments are made in January 65. It was an uncalled for increase in salaries already too high. Johnson thought it would increase his popularity and win votes; instead, it will cause most people to vote against all that voted for the steal.

Those Executive Orders No. 10995 to No. 11005 are now the law of the land. They give the President POWER to take over all the business of the country in case he thinks there is an emergency. These eleven items are as follows:

1. Communications media.
2. Electric power, Petroleum and gas, fuels and minerals.
3. Food resources and farms and farm machinery.
4. Take-over of all modes of transportation, highways, seaports.
5. Mobilization of all citizens into work force under government supervision.
6. Take-over of all health, education and welfare functions.
7. Designates postmaster general to operate a national registration of all persons.
8. Government to take over all airports and aircraft.
9. Housing and Finance authority to relocate communities, build new housing with public funds, designate areas to be abandoned as unsafe, and establish new locations for populations. Complete integration will be enforced hereby under JFK's latest executive order against discrimination in housing built with public funds.
10. Government to take-over all railroads, inland waterways and public storage facilities.
11. Designates responsibilities of office of emergency planning. Gives authorization to put all other executive orders into effect in times of increased international tension or economic or financial crisis.

Facts: These executive orders are duly recorded in the Federal Register and have been adopted or approved by congress. Under these edicts, the complete takeover of the United States from within can take place at any time the executive declares an "emergency." The only thing that stands between this country and complete socialist slavery is the will of the EXECUTIVE.

Write our congressmen for immediate withdrawal of the executive orders.

We are really in a trap that some traitor may snap at any time. Our congress has been very lax in okaying these awful executive orders. I would like to have a few letters from readers who really appreciate our predicament, and have any ideas about how we the people can force the congress to act, to revoke these awful orders.

Of course we can vote in a Republican administration and that will help but it takes time, we need action now. We realize we are helpless now.

Question Box

(We invite questions on economics and the proper functions of government which will not injure anyone.)

Question No. 550: These days especially after the Civil Rights Bill has been passed I have heard a number of people say that the Negroes will never be satisfied and that they want to rule us. Do you see any truth in this statement? Please answer the question as I would like to know. Also, a lot of people say that the Negroes' chief aim in the Civil Rights Bill was more freedom to intermarry. Do the Negroes want to intermarry? Are the Negroes proud of their race or do they want to be white? I've heard a lot of people say that the Negroes are stupid compared to the whites. Is this true? These questions may seem blunt but a lot of people are wondering about them. Answer them as unbiased as possible. I'd really like to know because it's so easy to get misinformation these days. I'd like to know the truth.

VIRGINIA DE COURCEY

Answer: These are blunt questions. Let us be as forthright in answering.

1. Let us trust that the individual Negro will never be satisfied. Why should he be? But we will fail in our analysis if we treat Negroes as a group and assume that all Negroes fall into specific categories. Negroes, like any other racial or ethnic group, are nothing but individuals, each one quite different from every other. Thus, we can safely assume that individual Negroes will continue to try to better their conditions. If there are some who will not want to do this, they and no one else should suffer the consequences.

2. Will the Negro try to rule the white man? In all probability many of them will make this attempt. The Negro has been ruled by the white man. If we rely on political solutions to our problems it is only reasonable to assume that some Negroes will make the attempt to gain the highest possible offices so they can return the favor.

3. Do the Negroes seek more freedom for intermarriage? This may provide some stimulation for support of the Civil Rights procedures in certain cases. In others, it would not. The Negro, in general, wants to be accepted as a person in the same way all the rest of us want to be accepted. He does not want to be denied the same rights others have. With some individual Negroes, they may want to intermarry. In other cases, they would not want to. Again, this would depend on individuals. At least it can be assumed that the Negro does not want to be stigmatized because of his color. And if he marries across the racial line, he does not want his children looked down upon.

4. Are the Negroes proud of their race? Again, the question reverts to individuals. Some undoubtedly are very proud of their race. Others may not be.

5. Are the Negroes stupid compared to the white man? Actually, no. But again, one must compare individuals and not groups. There are a great many Negroes who do not measure up intellectually to a great many whites. Also, there are a great many whites who do not measure up intellectually to a great many Negroes. Stupidity is not a racial characteristic.

There are statistics available which show that if you take a given group of Negroes and chart its course through a government school this group will have an AVERAGE that is lower than that of a corresponding group of whites. The Negroes contend that this result arises from the lack of educational opportunities.

Also, statistics will show that much of the increase in crime in this country is directly traceable to Negroes, as a group. But most Negroes are fine and upstanding individuals who are a credit to their communities and who would not stoop to criminal behavior.

The principal problems derived from the Civil Rights Bill relate not to any advancement for the Negro but to the invasion of property rights embodied in the measure. By virtue of this act, businessmen and proprietors are denied the right of choice in the management of their affairs. And this will provide a backlash, not only against white people who own property but Negroes who own property. Individual rights have been invaded here, by a bill which proclaims a supposed right of a Negro group that individuals of any race do not have as individuals.

If there are such things as rights, they are an inherent quality which each man, white or black, has naturally and individually. Groups cannot have rights (properly) which are denied individual members of the group.

Actually, the Negro has become a political pawn in all this Civil Rights hullaballoo. If the Negro demands more and more political power, he will reap the whirlwind for this effort. The real problem between the races is one caused and encouraged by political action, not by individual differences.

What we really should encourage is individual discrimination all the way around.

We should choose our friends and our business associates and our marriage partners with great care; not on the grounds of what group they belong to, but on the grounds of their individual worth. The Civil Rights Bill seeks to cancel out discrimination (careful choice) on the grounds that it is a sin or crime. Actually, what we need is a great deal more careful choices conducted on an individual basis.

Medical Care

By AMBROSE HILLS

Even doctors, who have grave doubts about a national, compulsory medical care plan, are not willing to engage in an all-out fight against it. Doctors, in the main, are convinced that in the long run it will do damage to the quality of service they are able to give.

Doctors fear many persons will abuse such a service, and make it very difficult for the patient in serious need of treatment to get it promptly. They would have preferred that governments, instead of taking over the entire field of medical care, would provide financial help to give care to those unable to provide it for themselves. Or provide a form of disaster insurance against huge bills.

Modern thinking, however, seems to be that you can't help the needy without helping everybody. If the poor man is offered assistance, it must also be given to the rich man — forced upon him, if need be. Charity is thought to degrade the recipient. The Good Samaritan would be puzzled about how to behave in our modern society!

My bet is that we will have a full-scale Medicare Plan in Canada within ten years. It sounds so attractive to voters. Those who oppose it appear to be meanies, enemies of the sick and maimed. Those who, having paid Hospital Insurance for years only to find no hospital bed available when they took sick, will listen closely to the critics. They will recall the fruit stand owner who priced his bananas away below his competitor — but had no bananas to sell.

One thing is certain. If we get a national Pension Plan plus a national Medicare Plan, the total is going to give the family man in the middle-income level so many headaches he will need his doctor more than ever before. Canada is becoming a country in which it is best to be either very poor or extremely rich. The middle class takes the onerous load.

QUICK QUIZ

Q—What is agrometeorology?

A—It is the study of the relationship of weather and climate to agriculture.

A—Sir Winston Churchill.

Q—How did the name of horse latitudes originate?

A—The term is said to have started in the early days when windjammers sailed the Atlantic. The calms and heat of the area killed cargoes of horses which were frequently transported.

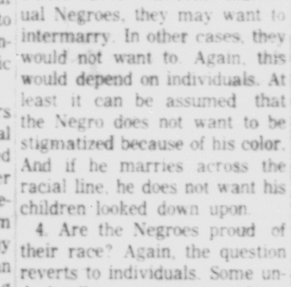
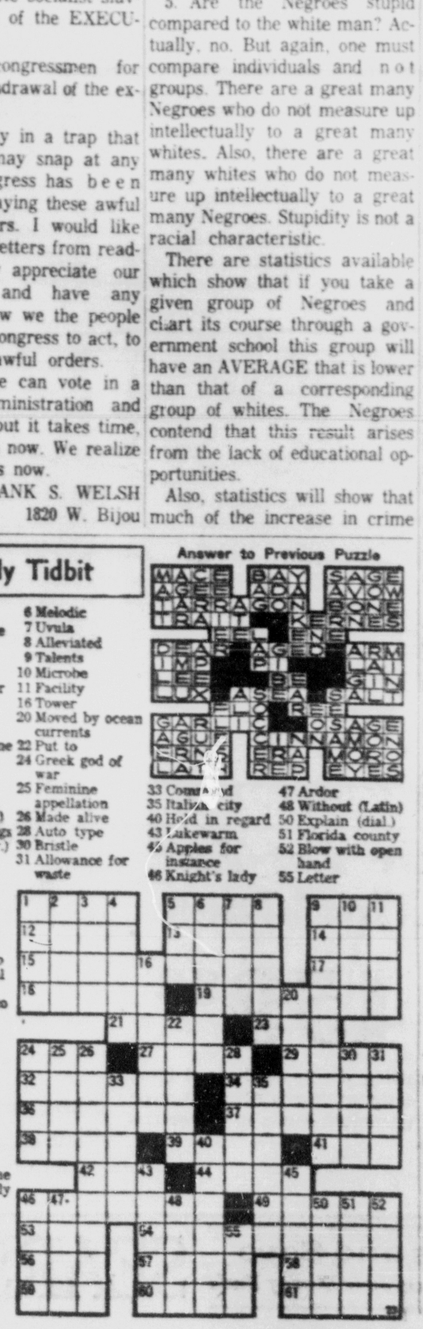
Answer to Previous Puzzle





Sukarno's Big Appetite May Worry Diplomats

By ELON DENNEN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (NEA) — What price will the United States now offer President Sukarno to stop him from attacking Malaysia?

When Indonesia's dictator hit the warpath in 1962, the U.N.—with back door U.S. help—gave him West New Guinea with its 700,000 Papuan inhabitants.

Sukarno had no historic, racial or religious grounds for annexing the territory. Leaders of the Papuans pleaded in vain before the U.N. councils against an injustice that doomed their people to living under a dictator.

But Sukarno—like Hitler after he swallowed Danzig and Austria—said that he was satisfied. He pledged to work for peace in Asia. It appears he never meant to keep his word.

Last January President Johnson had to send Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy to Jakarta to remind Sukarno of his promise not to attack Malaysia. Asia's little Napoleon, who still gets millions of dollars in American aid, refused to commit himself.

However, State Department officials — always ready to see a silver lining in their negotiations with Red dictators — were "cautiously optimistic" after the Kennedy - Sukarno talks. They were similarly optimistic after Undersecretary of State Averell Harriman received Nikita Khrushchev's pledge to back neutrality in Laos.

Today, Laos, hovers on the brink of disaster and time is fast running out for Malaysia. While Premier Khrushchev talks "peaceful coexistence" in the West, he is heating up the crisis in Asia to convince fellow Reds that he is as anti-imperialist as his Chinese rival Mao Tse-tung.

Russia now proclaims full support for Sukarno's ambition to "crush" Malaysia. The Kremlin's top salesman, Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan, even promised Indonesia further massive shipment of Russian arms that may include missiles.

Encouraged by Moscow, Sukarno is expanding Indonesian guerrilla warfare in Malaysia. In the view of U.N. observers, he may soon launch a full-scale offensive.

The destruction of Malaysia could be a greater blow to the Free World than the loss to communism of Laos and Viet Nam.

The little nation of 10 million inhabitants — united-hearted Malaya, Singapore, Sarawak, North Borneo and Brunei — is one of the few genuinely democratic states in Southeast Asia. It is also the most prosperous country, with the highest per capita income rate.

Equally important to the West is the fact that Malaysia is one country in Asia that depends entirely on private investment for the development and maintenance of its prosperity.

Yet despite emphasis on private investment and a conservative fiscal policy, Malaysia has not neglected large investment on public works and extensive social welfare services. An efficient tax collecting system and a realistic tax program assure sufficient funds for the public sector.

No wonder Khrushchev, Mao and Sukarno want to "crush" Malaysia. It is proof that even in a little country free enterprise offers greater benefits to the ordinary people in a shorter time than communism.

Once - lush Indonesia, with a population of 100 million, is nearly bankrupt. Its economy is in chaos; hunger stalks the land. Sukarno can do nothing to improve the lot of the hungry masses as long as 80 per cent of his budget goes to the armed forces. All he can offer them is a diversion—war on neighboring Malaysia.

Washington diplomats, unfortunately, are not yet convinced that Sukarno is little more than Moscow's puppet. They see the conflict between Indonesia and Malaysia as a "British show." President Johnson's experts regard it as an irritating diversion from the serious business of saving Viet Nam and Laos.

But Khrushchev and Mao know better. They understand that the destruction of Malaysia would be a great victory for communism in Asia.

Sheepskin Race Still Wolfs Up Family Finances

CONCORD, N.H. (UPI) — Parents whose son or daughter has won a scholarship can heave a sigh that they will get some financial help in putting their offspring into the sheepskin race.

But they will be disappointed if they think the scholarship alone erases financial fidgets over college.

Even with scholarship help, parents almost always must contribute a major share of the cost of the bachelor's degree.

This reminder comes from James L. Yeager, president of Tuition Plan of New Hampshire, Inc., which finances tuition and fees on the installment plan at any approved school or college.

The firm is an affiliate of Tuition Plan Inc., pioneer firm in the field which works with more than 700 schools and colleges, making pay-as-you-learn a reality.

"Most scholarships seldom cover academic costs entirely these days, to say nothing of such extensive costs as room, board, clothing, transportation and the like," Yeager said.

"In any event, the amount of the scholarship granted by the college usually depends on the family's financial condition.

"As a general rule, the amount is adjusted to meet the family's needs and situation—usually by an outside, independent organization specified by the college particularly for this purpose."

One of the points such organizations consider, according to Yeager, is the number of dependents.

For example: a family of $5,000 annual income before taxes might be expected to contribute $700 a year toward total expenses with only one child, while the contribution for a two-child family with the same income would be $350.

Similarly, the $10,000-income family would be expected to supply $1,750 with one child and $1,350 with two children.

Yeager said special family circumstances or extraordinary expenses that might affect ability to pay college costs also are considered, along with such things as the wage-earner's business and position, family debts, automobiles owned by the family, the student's assets and other family resources available for college expense.

"In any case," he said, "parents who hope to see their children win a scholarship must be prepared for a searching investigation of the family budget."

Systematic savings can help meet college costs. But with most clans it's "too little and too late."

Yeager cited results of a recent Ford Foundation study of 5,900 families. Seventy per cent of the children in the famlies expected to go to college. But only 40 per cent of the families had saved anything. The average nest-egg among the savers: $150.

Uncle Sam estimates the yearly cost of a student in a public college at $1,520 for the coming academic year. For private universities, the yearly expenses are estimated at $2,370.

ASSEMBLIES' CAMP

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (UPI)—Thousands of Assemblies of God members throughout the United States are flocking to "old-fashioned" camp meetings in a program that started June 15 and is scheduled to run through Sept. 13. Ranging from five to 45 days, approximately 60 camps, equipped with dining, lodging, meeting and recreational facilities are being conducted by about 40 districts of the Assemblies of God, most of which follow state lines.

Services of the typical camp include daytime prayer meetings and Bible teachings and evening evangelistic services. Superintendents of the districts serve as camp "pastors."

Britisher Stars In Film About Undertakers

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—He looked more like an itinerant basketball pro than the winner of this year's Academy Award for direction.

Tony Richardson, un-British in faded blue jeans, royal blue windbreaker and sneakers, was directing tests of Anjanette Comer as a mortuary assistant and Sir John Gielgud as a corpse for "The Loved One." The director was working on a tiny stage of a Hollywood television studio despite the fact that the film is being released by MGM.

"The Loved One," based on Evelyn Waugh's satire of the Southern California undertaking industry, will be filmed entirely on location. The closest Richardson will come to MGM is the parking lot and the administration building, which will double for headquarters of a "Memorial Park."

"I hate studios," Richardson explained. "I am simply not the studio type. I feel constricted in them. I would much rather work outside studios despite the difficulties you encounter. The freedom is worth it."

Richardson is the man who made "Tom Jones," which brought him every award in sight, including the Oscar. He had no inkling that it would prove such a success.

"After I finished making it, I thought it was a mess," he recalled. "It seemed all jumbled and disjointed, and I didn't see how anyone would make any sense out of it."

"Tom Jones" was shot entirely on location, he said, using houses of the period of the Henry Fielding novel. In some cases sets were improvised within the houses by using screens and backdrops.

He estimated the film's cost at $1,300,000 and hears that its predicted gross ranges between $25 and $30 million. "Incredible," he commented.

"Ever since Tom Jones' I've been deluged with offers to make films from novels of the same period," he said. "I wouldn't even consider them. I have an abhorence of repeating myself in anything I do."

"The Loved One," which also stars Robert Morse and Jonathan Winters, appears to be proof of that. After that he plans two American subjects: "Reflections in a Golden Eye," a Carson McCullers story to be filmed in Georgia, and James Baldwin's "Another Country" for shooting in New York City.

"I plan to make four films before I undertake 'The Charge of the Light Brigade,'" the director said.

Richardson would like to film the Crimean war story in the actual locale, making use of Russian cavalry. He said the Russians have offered to cooperate, but he has his doubts. The script, he explained, would detail what he called colossal stupidity on both sides of the conflict.

Bob Kennedy Views Mementoes of JFK

CHICAGO (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy was moved emotionally Wednesday as he viewed a display of mementoes of his late brother's years in the White House.

"I think it's sad," Kennedy said as he looked at photographs of the late President John F. Kennedy in intimate moments with his family.

The attorney general in Chicago for arrival of the traveling exhibit of photographs, historic documents and personal papers, told a news conference that about half the $10 million needed to construct the John F. Kennedy Library already has been donated. The library will be built in Boston.

Pershing Missile Test Reported Successful

WHITE SANDS, N.M. (UPI)—A Pershing ballistic missile, the Army's newest and longest-ranged, winged 350 miles from Blanding, Utah, to White Sands Missile Range today.

The latest in a long series of Pershing firings was carried out by missilemen from the Federal Republic of Germany (West Germany).

The firing was the second from Blanding by the West German Missile Group 13. The first firing Friday was a success as was today's shot.

ADC Major Gets Merit Certificate

An Air Force major assigned to headquarters Air Defense Command's Deputy Chief of Staff for Materiel here was among 20 civilians and military personnel who received Department of Defense Certificates of Merit today from President Lyndon B. Johnson in Washington.

Maj. Richard T. Moss, electronic staff officer, Directorate of Maintenance, received the award for developing the Air Defense Command Electron Tube Life Improvement Program. This program resulted in a cost savings of more than $5.5 million during the 1964 Fiscal Year.

Air Defense Command has recorded an estimated $33.2 million savings at the end of the third quarter of the 1964 Fiscal Year.

The Electron Tube Management Program began in 1957 when new, more sophisticated radar systems became operational in Air Defense Command. These new systems introduced the magnatron klystron tubes which range in price from $1,500 to $30,000 each.

The management program instituted by Maj. Moss, a veteran of more than 20 years service, extended the life of the tubes thus decreasing replacement costs.

During the past Fiscal Year, the Power Tube Management Program was one of the largest money savers in Air Defense Command's Cost Reduction Program.

Maj. Moss and his wife, Thelma, their daughter, Patricia, 18, and two sons, Richard and Ronald 8, make their home at 1928 E. San Rafael. The major is a native of Wichita, Kansas.

Ex-Envoy Sentenced For Smuggling Dope

NEW YORK (AP)—Salvador Pardo-Bolland, 61-year-old former ambassador to Bolivia, was sentenced to 18 years in prison today for conspiracy to smuggle $13.5 million worth of pure heroin into this country.

Pardo-Bolland also was fined $40,000 on the charge.

Two others also were given stiff sentences by Judge John M. Cannella.

Rene Brouillet, 48-year-old Frenchman who is in this country illegally, received a 15-year prison term and a $40,000 fine. He had been deported from the United States in 1949.

Juan Carlo Arizti, 61, formerly of the Uruguayan State Department, was given a 10-year sentence and a $40,000 fine.

U.S., Indonesia May Battle in Borneo

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—If the Indonesians attack Australian troops in Malaysian Borneo, New Zealand and the United States will be obliged to help them because of their membership in the Anzus Pact, Prime Minister Keith Holyoake said today.

He said New Zealand has 1,700 troops in Southeast Asia but there is no thought at this stage to committing them to any combat role in South Viet Nam or Malaysia.

BIGGEST CROSS

NEW YORK (UPI) — A cross said to be the biggest in the world stands on a hill on the Trans - Canada Highway overlooking Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, says the Catholic Digest. It is a 22-ton, 125-foot steel structure, outlined in neon and visible for 15 miles.

Manhattan Not Affected by Racial Rioting

By ROBERT HOLTON

NEW YORK (AP)—At Times Square, a red-faced peddler hawked his wares from the curb, smiling and joking with the throngs on the sidewalk.

Five miles to the north, in Harlem, tension mounted as the sun went down and Negroes wondered whether the night would bring more riots, gunfire, looting and violence.

The city's Negro communities were in the throes of one of the worst racial disorders in decades. Broadway seemed to go on without noticing.

"Don't kid yourself," the peddler said. "The ones that live here are a little scared. They just laugh and smile on the outside. But if they have to travel near the bad areas at night, they're scared inside."

Shriner Irving W. Larrick, of Decatur, Ill., stood in a long line waiting to see the Radio City Music Hall show. He is attending the 90th annual convention of the Shriners of North America.

"We heard about the riots before we came here," he said. "But, just like I said to all my friends back home, if you stay out of the trouble spots you won't even know there's a riot going on."

A Shriner calliope from Cleveland, Ohio, blared forth with "Hello, Dolly" in front of the Hotel Americana. Some couples did the twist on busy Seventh Avenue.

The crowds of laughing, joking Shriners and amused onlookers in mid-Manhattan provided a startling contrast to the violence in the Negro sections.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner said Wednesday night the city's tourist trade has been damaged. He appealed to people planning to visit the city and the World's Fair not to cancel their plans, assuring them they would be safe.

"We don't see any evidence of tension in here," she said. "We have plenty of Negro customers here tonight. They come because they love music."

Matt Bruno, an employe of a Manhattan sightseeing firm that operates buses, said he saw no evidence of fright among his customers.

"We've been running buses in the daytime through parts of Harlem and I haven't noticed any drop in business," he said. "Now at night is a different thing."

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Novotny, of Youngstown, Ohio, said they were enjoying their city vacation despite the racial unrest.

"Just like any other city, say Cleveland—if you go where the trouble is you can get in trouble," he said. "We haven't had anything but a pleasant time and I never once thought of canceling the trip."

Johnny Jeffries, 12, a Negro shoeshine boy who lives in a riot-troubled section of Brooklyn, walk near Times Square.

"I went home to Brooklyn last night about midnight and I heard some shooting and banging," he said. "I won't get home until late tonight again. Business these days is too good to pass up."

Brigadier Jackson W. Martin conducted an evening service at the Salvation Army's corps headquarters in the Times Square area.

He devoted part of his address to a plea for God's help to end the racial strife in Harlem and Brooklyn.

"That's what I believe in, prayer," he said.

Food Poisoning Wave Reported in Budapest

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Cream cakes, apparently spoiled by Budapest's 100-degree heat, are blamed for a wave of food poisoning in the Hungarian capital.

Fifty acute cases have been hospitalized and 35 who were less seriously ill were treated at home, the newspaper Nepszabadsag reported.

The paper said a number of confectionery and cake shops were closed pending a government medical inquiry.

Dr. Sam Sheppard Wins Another Round in Court

By JOHN F. WHEELER

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard has outlasted the prosecution in another legal battle to remain out of prison and it appears it could be weeks or even months before he learns his fate.

Sheppard won a new round Wednesday when a three-judge federal panel of the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals held his $10,000 bond—and his freedom—were valid until the court could decide if the U.S. District Court order for his release would stand.

The court is not scheduled to meet again until October and there was no indication that earlier action would be possible.

Dr. Sam, central figure in one of the nation's most publicized murder cases, headed with his new wife to their Cleveland home to wait until the legal smoke cleared.

His attorney, F. Lee Bailey of Boston, said: "I don't think this case will ever be retried."

Sheppard, convicted of second-degree murder in the 1954 bludgeon slaying of his pregnant wife, Marilyn, was freed from Ohio Penitentiary a week ago after U.S. Dist. Judge Carl Weinman of Dayton ruled he had not received a fair trial.

Presiding Judge Paul C. Weick of Akron said the appellate court would not void Judge Weinman's granting of bail but would modify it. He said the granting of bail was at the discretion of Judge Weinman.

Weick added that the panel would stay the habeas corpus writ until it could rule on the merits of it. He said the court would act "at an early date."

This amounted to freedom for Sheppard and threw the case into a new legal tangle that could reach the U.S. Supreme Court.

Before reading his decision, Judge Weick warned the crowded, steamy courtroom he would allow no demonstrations. When he finished speaking, Sheppard turned to his bride of five days, the former Ariane Tebbenjohanns, and embraced her.

"Honey," she said, "we got it."

They were married in Chicago last Saturday after federal marshals refused to arrest Sheppard in Columbus.

Sheppard said he felt "very optimistic" after Wednesday's decision.

Then he and his bride and lawyer Bailey took off for a restaurant to celebrate.

The court ruling tied the hands of the state of Ohio in the case.

Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) Prosecutor John T. Corrigan said after the court's decision "We have no interest now in picking up Sheppard" but that the state would try to get the Weinman release order voided. The court ordered Sheppard to make a new bond within three days, this time under the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals.

Bailey said this amounts to a technicality and that attorney Ben Clark of Columbus would take care of it. The amount of bond will remain at $10,000.

Butler and Nikita Will Discuss Peace

LONDON (UPI) — British Foreign Secretary R.A. Butler will meet with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev next week to discuss overall prospects for further relaxations of East-West tensions diplomatic sources said Wednesday.

Butler is scheduled to fly to Moscow Monday for a five-day visit at the invitation of the Kremlin. He lunched Wednesday with Soviet Ambassador Alexander Soldatov to make the final arrangements for the trip.

The sources said Butler will confer with Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko before meeting Khrushchev, either in Moscow or at the latter's summer residence on the Black Sea. The Soviet premier is scheduled to return to Moscow Thursday from a visit to Poland.

TACH WATCH STYLES

BASLE, Switzerland (AP) — Feminine watch styles are switching to larger models, according to indications at the Basle Fair. A larger diameter makes possible a wider range of decoration, and better harmonizing with the bracelet design. Preference this year in ladies' watches was for white metal, grey gold, or platinum, decorated with diamonds.

Most men's watches still were round, but there was a marked trend toward square or rectangular models, especially for evening wear.

Vast Rebuilding Is Planned in Nation's Capital

By JOHN PIERSON

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Your nation's capital is in the midst of a vast rebuilding overhaul that is fast becoming one of the city's tourist sights of tomorrow.

The southwest urban renewal area of "New Southwest," as they call it, is an attempt not only to get rid of slums—seven out of 10 of the old houses had no central heating, four out of 10 no baths—but also to rebuild in a manner befitting the nation's capital.

While the work is less than half finished, there's enough done to warrant taking a couple of hours off from your other sightseeing to have a look.

Walk south from the Mall and the first thing you run into is a cluster of new government office buildings, all gleaming and splendid in the sun.

Continue south, crossing the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington Railroad tracks, and you come to what one day will be a brand new commercial area, including a world communications center, an aviation and space building and a new hotel.

The most important of these will be grouped around another mall, which runs south from the Smithsonian and perpendicular to the big Mall. This represents a deliberate attempt to tie southwest Washington to the rest of the city.

Farther south, you cross the Southwest Expressway and reach the Washington Channel, where they've planned a series of parks, marinas, restaurants and a fish market. Some of these already are built.

To the east of the Channel lies the residential part of the new southwest. On your way you pass one of the area's most notable architectural achievements, the Arena Stage, a theater-in-the-round.

One of the most striking things about the residential section is the mixture of high-rise apartment buildings and town houses. The planners wanted to avoid the monumental monotony of high-rise alone but also realized they had to have some high-rise if the project was going to pay.

Design contracts for three of the residential clusters were awarded after competitions in which there were 37 entries. The winners were picked by three panels of leading architects and planners.

The 5,000 houses and apartments that eventually will be built are for families in the $5,000 to $15,000 income range. This has been a source of distress to some who had hoped to build for a large number of the area's poorer families.

But private developers say low-income housing doesn't pay and there was too much opposition to allow for more than 1,000 units of public housing. This public housing is not mixed in with the private and thus retains much of the ghetto quality of public housing everywhere.

Most of the poor have been forced to move away, and in their place have come middle- and upper-income people. More of the poor might have stayed had some of the sound old houses been rehabilitated. But the southwest project was begun in 1951 when urban renewal still meant the bulldozer alone without the paint brush.

In the midst of the residential section is Town Center, an urban shopping center that will include churches, a library and parks. The hope is that people will continue to use it in the evening after the stores have closed.

BLACKIE WORKS AT SHOP

Strapped to his back is an order pad and pencil for the convenience of customers. And that's not all that Blackie, a cocker spaniel, does.

He'll trot to the grocery with coins that McGinnis puts in a shopping bag and return with hamburger or liver in the bag.

When McGinnis goes to the bank, Blackie gets the parking lot ticket and carries it in his teeth to his master. Quite often, he takes the deposit bag to the teller.

More than 1 million farmers are engaged in growing cotton in the United States and another 1.5 million in producing cotton cloth and products.

Duke of Windsor Relives Life On Movie Film

By TOM A. CULLEN

LONDON (NEA)—The British are taking the news quite calmly that the life of King Edward VIII, now the Duke of Windsor, is being rushed into film here by an American movie producer.

So far no passions have been inflamed by the announcement, though the king's abdication in 1936 to marry Mrs. Wallis Simpson, an American divorcee, split the nation wide open.

Britons are still divided as to the merits of the abdication, some arguing that the Duke of Windsor was the victim of an unholy plot to maneuver him off the throne. The Duchess of Windsor has never yet been received by any member of the royal family. Many obstacles have been placed in the way of making the film biography.

"Everyone is being terribly, terribly helpful," says Jack Le Vien, 46-year-old New Yorker who is making the film. "The British government has loaned us over duke's many friends here in Britain are co-operating."

The Duke of Windsor, himself, has given Le Vien 15,000 feet of private film, much of it home movies never before seen publicly. This includes the record of an African safari when the duke, then Prince of Wales, shot animals with his camera instead of a gun.

But, will the film appeal to a younger generation that has never known any rule other than that of the duke's niece, Queen Elizabeth II? Will the "mods" and "rockers" of today find the dramas of 27 years ago boring?

"Not at all," says Le Vien. "Youngsters are fascinated by the glittering 1920s and early 1930s when the duke, as Prince of Wales, was the idol not only of Britain, but of Europe and America as well."

The Windsor story will not be given the Hollywood treatment. "There will be no actor impersonating the duke. Instead, it will consist of movies and some stills, with the duke doing the spoken commentary."

It will open with shots of Edward being dandled on the knee of his great grandmother, Queen Victoria, and end with him aboard the destroyer, HMS Fury, leaving England forever as his permanent home.

The climax of the film will be the abdication crisis, when Edward was faced with the choice of renouncing marriage to Mrs. Simpson in order to retain his throne, or giving up the crown for "the woman I love."

In between will be sandwiched film footage of the Prince of Wales, then the world's most desirable bachelor, sowing his wild oats in Paris. Once again the world will see him pick himself up smiling after his many falls from polo ponies.

A generation of Britons that has never known poverty will see the duke touring the depressed areas of England, including Welsh mining towns whose squalor moved him to exclaim angrily, "Something must be done."

Since his abdication as king, the duke has lived abroad, mostly in the United States and in France, with occasional fleeting visits to England.

Recently, however, there has been some indication of a softening of attitude towards him on the part of the royal family. The queen has named her youngest baby Edward.

"I believe that the film will help to strengthen the monarchy," the American producer concludes, "It will show that the monarchy is flexible enough to deal with crises such as wars and abdications and still survive."

RADAR IN GLORIOUS COLOR

New techniques permit an operator to assign the three dimensions of color — hue, brightness and saturation — to radar and sonar display screens. He could, for example, choose shades of red to identify aircraft. He could make friendly planes pink and enemy planes crimson.

Idea of using color on radar screens is to enable an operator to receive and show on his screen signals of many differing frequency ranges at one time, without confusion.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Fox and family returned home last Friday after a vacation around Colorado. While away they attended the wedding of Junior's cousin, Jerry Fox, at Stratton. They also visited their daughter Hazel and her husband Tommy at Ouray.

Rev. and Mrs. Mack Cantwell were recent guests of Mrs. Cantwell's mother, Mrs. Carrie Hendrix, of Colorado Springs. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tyer of Salt Lake City, Utah. Mrs. Hendrix and Mr. Tyer, who are brother and sister, and had not seen each other for 21 years. The group took in all the sights around Colorado Springs, including the Glen Erie area.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith West, of Olney Springs, were Sunday callers at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Mack Cantwell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Marr called on Mr. and Mrs. Junior Fox and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick O'Dowd and daughter of, Colby, Kan., called on Mr. and Mrs. Junior Fox and Family Saturday.

The Calhan Home Demonstration Club met July 15 for a picnic at Mrs. Eugene Warren's home, instead of at the Lions Park in Calhan. Those present were: Mrs. Emma Tarpenning, Mildred Bearfoot, Mrs. Eugene Warren, Mrs. Lillie Warriner, Mrs. R. W. Warren and Mrs. Charles Warren and three daughters. We also had as guests, Mrs. Ruby Cotton and Mrs. Hal Warren and two children.

We discussed the Home Economics Building to be used for the El Paso County Fair, which is to be held on August 14-16. A few of the club members will go up to the grounds and help get the building ready. There will not be a meeting in August. Our next regular meeting will be on Sept. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vorenberg and family were picnicing up on the Deckers area last week. On their way they stopped at the nursing home where Mr. T. J. Bruce is. He is reportedly quite ill.

On July 15 Miss Susan Vorenberg was a guest of honor at a surprise birthday dinner which was held at the Broadmoor Hotel by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Vorenberg. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Prager and daughter, of Denver, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vorenberg, Susan's parents, and her brothers and sisters.

Sunday, July 12, a surprise birthday dinner was held in honor of Mrs. Bill West. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill West, Mr. and Mrs. Keith West, and Rev. and Mrs. Mack Cantwell and family, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Dale West and family.

July 15 the Peyton Guild held a covered dish dinner in honor of its 50th anniversary. The ladies met at the Peyton School. More than 50 members were present. This club is among the oldest in the state. Those who attended from the Calhan area were Mrs. Bill Beaman, Mrs. Dale Beaman, Mrs. G. P. Brauer, Mrs. Mark Hankins, Mrs. Walter Hertel, Mrs. A. L. Pieper and Mrs. Hugh Kelley.

On Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Warren and family were supper evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Kucerik and family.

Tuesday evening, Ivan DeWitt celebrated his 14th birthday. He entertained a couple of his friends, Boby Hahn and Ricky Wellington with cake and ice cream.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tex Marley and family were Mr. and Mrs. Peter McDonald and family and Mr. A. E. Lanning, all of Thornton.

Next Sunday, after church, there will be a potluck dinner so that everyone may have a chance to get acquainted with our new Methodist minister and family, the Rev. and Mrs. Stafford. Everyone is invited.

Methodist Choir practice will be held every Wednesday at 3 p.m. July 30, the Methodist Church will hold its annual ice cream social in Fellowship Hall, from 7 to 9 p.m. Every one is welcome.

ARCHITECTS' TOUR

NEW YORK (UPI) — A 16-day tour for architects departing for Portugal, Spain and Italy Sept. 29 has been planned by Alitalia Airlines.

The tour includes visits to contemporary housing developments, old castles, fortresses, palaces and villas of historic and traditional architecture, as well as visits to modern skyscrapers and sports arenas.

Main Provisions Of Anti-Poverty Program Noted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here are the major provisions of President Johnson's $962.5-million antipoverty program legislation which the Senate takes up today:

— Unemployed youth programs, $412.5 million, a jobs corps to provide education work experience and vocational training at conservation camps and job training centers; a work training program for youths in high school and a work - study program providing part - time jobs for needy college students.

—Community action programs, $340 million. This would provide authority to pay up to 90 per cent of the cost of communitywide action in health, welfare, job training, vocational rehabilitation, housing and basic education.

—Combatting rural poverty, $50 million, including authority for grants of up to $1,500 for low-income rural families and loans of up to $2,500 to finance nonfarm enterprises and to establish housing, sanitation, education and child day-care programs for migrant farm workers.

—Work experience programs, $150 million, experimental and demonstration projects to encourage state programs for unemployed fathers.

AFGHAN — Afghanistan may start an airline.

CENTENNIAL

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The 100th anniversary this year of organized church extension in Methodism is being led by the Methodist Board of Missions here of the 10,235,000-member Methodist Church.

To mark the centennial, the Board is planning a new move in Methodist church expansion during the 1964-68 quadrennium, including the starting of 400 new congregations a year and the raising of $28 million in loan funds or building programs.

Thundershower Soaks Boy Scout Jamboree

By LEE LINDER

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP)—"We didn't mean to do an air dance," Hidesaburo Kurushima, a Boy Scout from Tokyo, Japan, said as thundershowers soaked some 52,000 boys watching a world talent show at the sixth National Boy Scout Jamboree.

Kurushima and 17 other Japanese scouts dressed in shoe-length kimonas danced and bowed on the 350-foot grass stage at historic Valley Forge as the rains came down.

"Why should we move and run for cover?" asked Tom Thompson of Cobourg, Ontario. "We were waiting for this for six days."

Boys of all nations, of all races, of all religions, of all shapes mixed—and swapped, particularly, handshakes. They spoke of friendships, not politics.

Two scouts from Jordan sang a song, and two boys from Israel listened and applauded. Taly Silber, 17, Jerusalem, then sang, too.

There was a babble of strange sounds as scouts across the world sought to find the words each could understand.

Joe Debecker, 28, Zaventem, Belgium, said, "The friendliness and hospitality of America is tremendous. We like the outdoor cooking and the ice cream best."

Joel Molas, 19, of Asuncion, Paraguay, leader of 18 scouts, said, "the food is different, but we like everything. American boys are very kindly."

Norway's eight scouts, headed by Tor Marud Ekravn of Oslo, are learning to play baseball and to speak American.

"They are trying to do what the boys in your country do," said Tor.

The talent wasn't professional, but the thousands who sat and cheered and yelled liked it swell. They asked questions about the different native costumes.

Six Pakistanis danced. So did eight from the republic of China and six from South Korea.

An eight-boy patrol from Trinidad did a hot calypso and nine Iranians sang two native songs, followed by African folk music by six Nigerians.

"I wish I could understand it," said Guillermo Solano, 15, of San Jose, Costa Rica, who played the accordian. That no one had to interpret.

HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?

A mulch is any material that is applied to the surface of the soil around plants to help keep down weeds, avoid erosion and conserve moisture. It's a must for anyone who wants a fine garden. Straw is the most suitable material for a mulch and should be about six inches deep when first applied. Never apply a mulch too early in the spring or the ground will be kept too cool and plants won't grow.

CHAPEL GOING UP

NEW YORK (UPI) — Construction on the new Protestant Chapel at Kennedy International Airport is now scheduled for completion by Dec. 1.

The structure is being erected in the shape of a Latin Cross, with the horizontal providing space for reception, office, counseling, library and small meditation areas. The vertical of the cross housing the main chapel designed to seat 110 persons extends 44 feet high and 30 feet wide.

Designed by noted architect Edgar Tafel, the chapel will be the spiritual center for all Protestants either using the air terminal, visiting, or working there.

Plenty of Room Still Reported In U.S. Colleges

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP)—Many colleges and universities are slamming their doors on thousands of applicants because of a lack of space.

But a survey by The Associated Press showed today there still is room in many other institutions of higher education, especially in less populated states.

The survey indicated the school rush isn't as heavy as it seems. In some instances prospective students are playing sort of an academic parlay—applying, say, to three different colleges in the hope of getting into one of them.

A high school graduate seeking admission to the University of Massachusetts or to one of the 10 state colleges in the Bay State came up against odds of almost 5-1.

The university received 12,000 applications for 2,600 openings in the freshman class entering in September. The state colleegs, primarily for teacher training, admitted 3,700 of 18,000 applicants.

Georgia Tech has closed its registration books. The University of Georgia did likewise May 4, the earliest cutoff date in its history. Emory University took similar action March 10.

The University of Rhode Island and Rhode Island College had to cease consideration of new applications in the spring.

Providence (R.I.) College rejected more than 1,000 requests for admission.

"In all divisions of Rutgers (New Brunswick, Newark, Camden) by Feb. 12 we had received 14,000 applications from fully qualified students," a spokesman said, "and yet have room for only 3,555 in the next freshman class. The men's colleges in New Brunswick cut off applications Feb. 15."

The University of Illinois has announced it may have to turn away 2,600 would-be students at its Urbana and Chicago campuses.

Dartmouth is rejecting applicants by the platoon.

In some schools, such as the University of Missouri, enrollment will be limited by a shortage of housing. In others, lack of adequate classroom facilities is a big factor.

But the biggest factor is that children born early in the postwar baby boom now are knocking on college gates.

The State University of New York, comprising 58 units scattered across the state has had to turn away students in recent years. It pointed out that it receives applications from young folks who apply simultaneously to several schools.

The New York State Education Department reported that applications this year to the 147 private colleges and universities in the state are running about 33 per cent higher than last year. But high school graduating classes are only 20 per cent larger. This indicates a rise in multiple applications.

SOVIET BAPTISTS SEND GREETINGS

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) —Greetings from Baptists in the Soviet Union were delivered to the recent annual meetings here of the Southern and American Baptists by a group of Russian Baptist leaders.

The fraternal messages were conveyed by the Rev. Michael Zhidkov, president of the All-Union Church of Evangelical Christians (Baptist).

Bigger Fines Urged For Traffic Violation

DENVER (UPI)— William Cassell, Colorado Motor Division chief, charged here that judges continually violate state law in failing to assess minimum fines against motorists who drive with suspended or revoked licenses.

Cassells told 60 judges, prosecutors and traffic court officials attending a regional traffic conference that such violators could be fined up to $500.

"But judges let them go with a $5 fine—a slap on the wrist—when the minimum fine is $50," Cassells charged.

Cassells also accused judges of "passing the buck," in freeing violators with suspended fines, but recommending his department suspend their drivers' licenses.

The five-day conference, co-sponsored by the Traffic Institute of Northwestern University, is being held in the University of Denver Law Center.

ECUMENICAL SPIRIT

MARYKNOLL, N.Y. (UPI)— In a report to Maryknoll headquarters here, the United Presbyterian Church of the United States described the work of the alumni (Class '41) of Collegio San Andres, a well-known Protestant school in Lima, Peru.

This group was on a television giveaway program which demands that contestants before appearing must raise 50,000 soles for their project. They raised 300,000 soles (about $11,000) and won another 20,000 soles on the program.

Their project? To raise money for Father Frisancho, a former classmate, now a Catholic priest, who plans to build a housing development for the poor near Lima.

SOLDIERS URGED TO VOTE — To stimulate troop voting interest in the coming election, Army Air Defense Command headquarters arranged for representatives of the two major parties and the League of Women Voters to talk with ARADCOM personnel here. Capt. George D. Bertish (left), executive officer of the Headquarters Battery, is shown with the three speakers before the command information program. From left, they are Weldon Tarter, chairman of the El Paso County Republican Central Committee; Mrs. L. T. Kircher, president of the League of Women Voters; and John F. Bennett, chairman of the El Paso County Democratic Central Committee. The talks were part of a continuing command-wide program to keep soldiers informed about their voting rights and the obligations that go with citizenship.

Gourmets May Find Time Is Leaving Them Behind

By ROSETTE HARGROVE

PARIS (NEA)—The gourmets around the city shook their heads and tremblingly sipped another spoonful of potage a la printaniere.

The news was out that a 30-year-old Frenchman had betrayed his heritage by opening a snack bar off the Champs Elysees.

That was seven years ago.

Now the enterprise of Jacques Borel has grown to such proportions that this year he expects to serve 13 million meals in his 100 self-service restaurants. (Although he still has far to go before matching New York's Automat restaurant pace of 175 million customers a year.)

In the beginning, Borel and his wife, Monique, put in long hours to master the inner workings of the restaurant business.

His hunch seems to be right—that the younger generation has not only adopted the American way of eating but is drinking cola and milk shakes and boycotting red wine for lunch.

"Only 1½ per cent of our sales are for wines," he hastened to point out.

"When I started I figured that by 1964 there would be around 8 million Parisians. Of these, 500,000 would need a midday meal. In the past five years more and more people have moved outside of Paris, and they can no longer go home to lunch. They take a short food break, around 45 minutes. This is where I come in."

Borel did not invent the chain restaurant. At the turn of the century an outfit called the Cafe Biard, which served cheap snack meals, had 84 establishments dotted around the less fashionable quarters of Paris.

But old-style meals, Borel decided, were great time wasters. So he devoted an entire year to study the management of 500 restaurants abroad. He also ate in 250 establishments and covered some 90,000 miles by air over that period.

Back in Paris he disregarded the established ideas of catering. His slogan became "Vive le Snack Bar." It paid off.

In 1957 his personnel consisted of 35 workers and two managers. Today he employs 1,600 people with 120 managers.

What Jacques Borle has done in most cases is to take over an old cafe-restaurant and give it a facelift, usually retaining the original name.

Many Frenchmen, Borel realizes, want more than just a cold sandwich and a malted milk for lunch every day. So grilled meat is usually on the menu. Hamburgers and hot dogs are big items.

An old Paris waiter's reaction to the new vogue: "I still have customers who take 90 minutes for lunch, but it's the fashion with youngsters to adopt American ways. But they are asking to inherit American ulcers as well."

More American Business Seen With Russians

BOSTON (UPI)— Doing business with the Russians will be "old hat" for American firms within 10 years, a New England industrialist believes.

Thomas W. Chesterton, treasurer of the Chesterton Packing & Seal Co., thinks this will happen because "people on the wrongside of the Iron Curtain are demanding quality products." To meet these demands, the Soviet bloc will require American products, he feels.

Chesterton returned recently from a trip through Russia and the Iron Curtain countries looking for business.

"We can melt down the Iron Curtain and thaw the Cold War by increasing our trade with the Soviet bloc nations," he said. "They need our goods, and we need growing markets."

CIVIL RIGHTS ACTION

NEW YORK (UPI) — A "self-help" plan to promote civil rights in the state has been launched by the Pennsylvania Council of Churches, says the Religious Newsweekly.

The plan, announced by Dr. Jesse D. Reber, general secretary, calls for the active participation of church people with civil rights consultants in efforts to eliminate discrimination in barber shops, swimming pools and other public accomodations.

Vague Decisions Mark African Summit Meet

By LYNN HEINZERLING

CAIRO (AP) — Africa's kings, presidents and premiers probably did nothing more significant in their five days of oratory here than their snub of Premier Moise Tshombe of the Congo.

By that single act, the African leaders who finished their second summit meeting Tuesday threw their program for overthrowing the Portuguese rulers of Angola into jeopardy.

It is difficult to assess the accomplishments of the second summit meeting of the Organization of African Unity. The final communique was so vague that it is difficult to pinpoint anything.

The government heads were so shielded from newsmen and conference sources were so meager with real information that it was impossible to determine how deep the discussions went.

But the rejection of Tshombe was unmistakeable. Prodded by President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana and President Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria, the preparatory session of foreign ministers declared the Congolese premier's presence was undesirable. Congolese President Joseph Kasavubu boycotted the conference in retaliation.

The Congo is the seat of the revolutionary Angolan government-in-exile headed by Holden Roberto. It is a staging ground for guerrillas who have infiltrated northern Angola, the Congo's southern neighbor.

Whatever Tshombe did as leader of the Katanga secession, he has become one of the Congo's authentic leaders, and will have to be reckoned with.

The Congo is the most strategically placed nation in Africa for any move against Angola, and the Congo does not win much by alienating its neighbor.

Only about half of Katanga's rich copper exports can be shipped abroad over the Congo's own transportation system. The rest must move through Angola and Mzambique.

Tshombe and Kasavubu cannot be enchanted by the idea of cutting out these export channels for a group of African leaders who humiliated them.

If the Congo ever succeeds in quieting its spear-throwing tribes and bringing a degree of sophistication to its belligerent politicians, it will become one of the two or three richest states in Africa. It will not have to submit to the intervention in its political life to which it has been subjected in the past.

The fact that Roberto is turning to Moscow, Prague and Peking in search of money and weapons may also have a sobering effect on the Congolese and other Africans.

Roberto's campaign in northern Angola is reported practically stalled in recent months. At a news conference during the Cairo meeting, Roberto charged that this was partly due to lack of the support promised him at last year's Addis Ababa summit meeting.

Chenoweth Will Be Reelected, Cheever Says

DENVER (AP) —Colorado's acting governor, State Sen. Vernon A. Cheever, predicted today that J. Edgar Chenoweth will win re-election to a new term as congressman from the southeast Colorado district.

Cheever, a Colorado Springs Republican, said he thinks changes made in the congressional district by the Legislature will aid Chenoweth's chances since the counties added to the district are normally Republican.

Chenoweth has been GOP congressman from the Third District since 1940 except for one term.

Cheever served as acting governor because of his post as president pro tempore of the Colorado Senate. Both Gov. John A. Love and Lt. Gov. Robert Knous were in Cheyenne, attending the opening of Frontier Days.

Army to Lend Aid to Manitou Pancake Party

Second Battalion, 61st Infantry, Ft. Carson looks forward to pancake day at Manitou Springs as the next event for joint participation with its adopted community. The infantrymen have delayed taking a training holiday until the Aug. 13 date for maximum attendance.

Firt Lt. Ward M. Chewning, battalion supply officer, is planning liaison between his unit and Manitou Springs. Traditional support for pancake day will include cooks, field ranges and introduction on new battalion troops to their adopted community.

Mayor L. L. Longaker has attended recent battalion events such as the recent ceremony when Major Thomas F. Connolly took command from Lt. Col. C. B. Nerdahl.

The mayor recognized the high scorer among advanced infantry trainees at their March graduation as well as the squad of the month.

MY ANSWER
by Billy Graham

© 1964 by Chicago Tribune N.Y. News Syndicate, Inc.

QUESTION: Although there is no reason for it, my husband and I are tormented by jealousy. Please tell us how to overcome this jealousy. — R. B.

ANSWER: Jealousy without cause is a terrible disease. It's bad enough when one has reason to be jealous.

I think you and your husband are jealous because you are bored with each other. You haven't any great purpose or cause to fight for so you fight each other. I have known of couples with great gifts, with boundless energy, and with a need for belonging, who for some reason couldn't find the outlets for their energies and became bored, fed up and jealous of each other.

My suggestion is that you find a Christian outlet for your gifts and talents. Teach a Sunday School class, clothe an orphan, adopt a child, visit the sick. Anything to get your minds off yourselves. The best of us would be miserable if we had no high challenges. That's what the Bible means when it says, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might." There is a joy in sharing with and helping others. Look at Christ. He was never bored. He lived His healing power. His wisdom. His love. His food, and at last, His very life. We can often find ourselves by losing ourselves in some great, noble cause. Jesus said: "He that loseth his life shall find it." Get lost in God's service and you'll never quibble over petty jealousy again.

During 1963 nearly 97 million Americans spent $17.4 billion on holiday or business trips.

'Egypt' Remains Most Popular Name in Egypt

After thousands of years, Egypt" was to give way to United Arab Republic.

Of all the revolutionary changes President Gamal Abdel Nasser has made since coming to power, this has been one of the least successful.

Egyptians cheered the proclamation of the new republic but went on calling their country Egypt.

The term United Arab Republic is largely confined to official documents, postage stamps and some bank notes. Because of the continued popularity of the word Egypt it is now generally accepted that one name is as correct as the other. Designation was adopted when Egypt merged with Syria in 1958 to form one nation.

Egypt connotes stability and continuity. United Arab Republic is an amorphous thing—part Syria yesterday, solely Egypt today, part Iraq tomorrow.

Another problem is that no one has ever coined an adjective to correspond with United Arab Republic. It's much easier to say "Egyptian" than "Citizen of the United Arab Republic."

U.A.R. is a handy abbreviation in English. But an abbreviation is not used in Arabic and the full Arabic name is Gumhouria Al-Arabiya Al-Mutahida which partly accounts for the fact Egyptians don't like it.

PLEA ENTERED

PUEBLO (UPI)— Testimony was to be heard in Pueblo District Court today in the trial of three Pueblo residents. Two of them, the parents of 10 children, are charged with involuntary manslaughter in connection with the death of a 2-year-old boy Jan. 22. The three — Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cardenas Sr. and Joe Abeyta— entered innocent pleas Tuesday. The victim was Rueben Abeyta, the son of Joe and Abeyta. The Cardenas couple, the child's aunt and uncle, were caring for the child when he died.

Detectives Use Laundry Party to Catch Crooks

By BEN THOMAS

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The police gave a party Tuesday night and a crowd of crooks was taken to the cleaners.

The party-goers included a number of persons wanted on charges of shoplifting, narcotics sales and burglaries.

The party—it was actually catered with food and refreshments costing $104—capped a three-month undercover investigation.

The hosts were detectives Robert N. Frey and George J. Hughes who three months ago opened a laundry shop just four blocks off busy Canal Street in the heart of the city's commercial district.

Informers passed word to the underworld that Frey, posing as Harry Long, the laundry operator, was a fence—criminal jargon for a man who buys stolen goods.

Police Supt. Joseph I. Giarrusso said Frey and Hughes actually bought $47,000 in stolen property at a cost of $11,000 from 32 persons, including several real fences.

Giarrusso, Mayor Victor Schiro, Chief Asst. Dist. Atty. Frank Klein and newsmen gathered at police headquarters Tuesday night to listen over the police radio to the party.

It started at 8 p.m. Frey met his first guest at the door and ushered him to a back room. Other officers handcuffed the guest, who stood staring unhappily at the refreshments as a phonograph blared.

Sixteen of Frey's customers showed up. Another 14 uninvited guests came along and police said many were wanted in connection with other cases.

Then Giarrusso ordered sweeping raids on the homes of 10 known fences where a number of other persons were arrested and a large amount of stolen property was recovered.

By early today a total of 32 arrests had been made.

We didn't do too good in the laundry business," said Deputy Chief Alfred Theriot. "We lost about $900 the first month."

Frey said his laundry business was good at the start but "it dropped off after people saw all the characters coming here. What's funny, though, nobody made a complaint to the police about it."

Frey said some of his customers bravely brought large stolen articles such as lawn mowers, stereo sets, and televisions to him in broad daylight.

Using a two-way mirror, police technicians filmed each of Frey's transactions and recorded the conversations on tape. About 26,000 feet of film—nearly five miles—was used.

APPLICATIONS RECEIVED

DENVER (UPI)— The Civil Service Commission said Tuesday it had received application from nine persons for the $11,000 a year post as state insurance commissioner. The job now is held by J. Richard Barnes, 46, who is acting commissioner. Permanent appointment will be made on the basis of exams to be given to all of the applicants.

More than a million passports were issued to Americans last year, according to the U.S. Passport Office.

Springs Man Takes Command Of Company C

Maj. Thomas F. Connolly took command of the 2d Battalion, 61st Infantry, July 15, and 1st Lt. Gary Gregory of Colorado Springs became Company C Commander in recent personnel changes at Ft. Carson.

The major succeeds Lt. Col. C. B. Nerdahl who is going to Viet Nam.

Maj. Connolly had been battalion executive officer for the past year coming from command and General Staff College and an intelligence assignment at HQ USARPAC. He is a native of Boston, Mass., and lives at Carson.

Gregory was battalion operations and training officer for air since January when he returned to Colorado from Korea. A 1961 graduate of Colorado State University, he is the son of Lt. Col. (ret.) and Mrs. R. O. Gregory, 126 Fordham.

The colonel was retired in 1961 the same day his son went to active duty. Col. Gregory was with the 9th Division at Carson and later served as the assistant chief of staff for operations and training.

Lt. Gregory lives at 1427 Rushmore Drive.

Hanover News

By MRS. RUTH CHISMAN

An unusual caller landed nearly across the road from our house in the pasture when Ralph Kolstad, age 14, landed the glider he was piloting. He landed about 3:30 p.m. from his ride from the Glider Port in the Black Forest, approximately 35 miles in one hour and 49 minutes. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Kolstad, of 429 E. San Rafael St., in Colorado Springs. The family loves to do this as a sport and this was Ralph's solo flight. Johnnie Baker took him to a phone and his father and sister came with a long trailer on which they loaded the glider and trailed it back to the starting point.

Pat Poer left Saturday, July 11, for his two weeks reserve training. Pat's sister is staying with Helen while Pat is away.

The Lincoln Holmans had a family dinner honoring the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Porter and family. They have been visiting relatives here and are going on to Seattle, where they lived before going to the Panama Canal Zone.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baker and family spent Sunday at Rockdale with the Trogden family. Lynne DeGroot, of Howard, has been visiting at the Bill Baker home. Sevilla Baker has been visiting relatives at Dodge City, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Vette and family were at Gill, Colo., over the weekend, helping Mr. and Mrs. Ken Akerman and daughter move to Greeley, where Ken has a school for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Akers and Claudia drove to Camp Iana Sunday, after Sunday School, and got Jeanie, who has spent the week at the camp. Virginia Reble also attended camp and returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Reble and and Timmy drove to Colorado Springs Sunday and had dinner with Mrs. Maude Patterson. Mr. and Mrs. Edd Whalley and daughter, of Grand Junction, were there, also the Billy and Lawrence Rebles. Mrs. Patterson had gone to Grand Junction with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Potter and family and visited her daughter, Mrs. Whalley and Mrs. Cunningham and family, then the Whalley's brought Mrs. Patterson home.

Those attending the services at the Hanover Community Church Sunday morning and evening had a real treat of sacred music when Larry Hammit, Ruth White, Jan Barnes and Don Richart conducted the services. It is truly wonderful to see young folks giving their talents. Gary Hammitt and the girls attended Friends Bible College at Havlin, Kan. Gary had charge of the devotional in the morning and at evening service the young folks gave their testimony in person and song. Gary is the youngest son of Mrs. Myrtle Sollo and lived in Hanover several years ago.

Flovd Fox of El Paso, Tex., and Verl Harris, of Oklahoma City, son of and daughter of Mrs. Daw DeGroot, visited from Monday until Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Daw DeGroot.

Elaine Smith plans to arrive the first of August from Berkely, Calif., to visit relatives here, Elaine is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest DeGroot.

Mrs. Nellie Dickson returned home after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Christian, of Greeley, getting acquainted with the new grandson. All are doing fine. This is the 26th grandchild of the Dicksons.

Mrs. Williams, mother of Harold Williams, was in a Colorado Springs hospital recently and is now in a rest home in Colorado Springs.

OLD ENOUGH TO VOTE AND RUN

URBANA, Ohio (AP) — If Roger Stillings had been a year younger, he wouldn't have been able to vote for himself as a candidate for sheriff of this central Ohio community.

But time was on his side and Stillings, 21, is the Republican candidate in next November's elections. He won the nomination handily in heavily Republican Champaign County.

Stillings, now a deputy sheriff, is trying to succeed Sheriff Jay McKeever, who is retiring after 30 years.

The youthful candidate admits his basketball fame (he's 6 feet, 6 inches) is no handicap but points with even more pride to his score of 99 in a police academy test.

A total of 734,993 visitors to this country spent $275 million in 1963, the American Society of Travel Agents reports.

PARTICULAR MOTHER

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — When a ewe in Mrs. W. S. Watson's sheep herd refused to have anything to do with her new lamb, another ewe had to take over.

But two weeks later the same ewe gave birth a second time and this lamb suited her. Mrs. Watson said all the mother instincts worked fine for the second lamb.

Academy Class 'All Wet' From Survival Training

The entire Class of 1968 at the Air Force Academy is "all-wet."

As part of training prior to orientation flights in Lowry based T-29s and T-33s, basic cadets are this week undergoing water survival training in the swimming pool of the gymnasium.

In addition to attending pool-side lectures and training films, basics take to the water to become familiar with the R-2 anti-exposure suit, life preservers, and the one-man, six-man, and 20-man life rafts.

Special training is given in the methods of separating from the parachute canopy and harness in the water. A special T-29 fuselage mock up is also used to drill basics in proper ditching procedures from this type of aircraft.

Each basic has the opportunity to fly both in the T-33 jet trainer and the T-29 navigation trainer.

COLORADAN ELECTED

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (UPI) —Jeffrey C. Bauer, 17, of Boulder, Colo., Tuesday was elected president of the American Legion's Boys Nation. Bauer defeated John E. Nix, 18, of Sylacauga, Ala., for the presidency. Timothy J. Battaglia, 17, of Belleville, Ill., was elected vice president.

Cuban Creaky Economy May Face More Damage

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Organization of American States is expected to ask all non-Communist nations this week to join in a new crackdown on trade with Cuba.

Should the bid be even partially successful, Prime Minister Fidel Castro's creaky economy undoubtedly would suffer serious new damage through the denial of badly needed imports.

Cuba's railway system is reported to be in a crippling state of disrepair. Trucks and buses are urgently required to replace worn-out highway transport. People stand in long, slow-moving lines to buy food at the stores.

The price of gasoline, which Cuba reportedly gets only from Soviet sources, is up to 60 cents a gallon as against 34 cents a year ago. Production of sugar, Cuba's big export crop, is off more than 25 per cent.

In the judgment of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and some of the other Western Hemisphere foreign meeting here this week, the Castro regime is vulnerable on its economic front. To them it makes sense to seek to apply new pressures among the punitive measures proposed for adoption because of Castro's support of terrorist activities in Venezuela last year.

But the trend in Cuban trade with non-Communist countries is now upward, after declining for four years. Britain and France have broken with Washington's policy of economic boycott in order to sell transportation equipment. Other European allies may follow this lead.

The first question faced by the United States and other Western Hemisphere nations, therefore, is whether they can arrest this upward trend in Cuba's Non-Communist trade and start it declining again.

The proposed new move to tighten the economic noose around the Castro regime would not mean any change in U.S. policy. This country has had a total embargo on trade with Cuba since February 1962 except for food and medicine. The United States also has pressed a diplomatic campaign to get allied and friendly countries around the world to cut their Cuban trade to the bone. This effort has been only partially successful.

The new proposal, however, would put an inter-American sanction behind what has been primarily a United States drive so far, and Washington officials believe this could have one practical result. It could accuse Latin-American buyers to boycott the products of European countries trading with Cuba.

And since they need to buy many of the same things that the Cubans require, those companies interested in Cuban trade might be faced with the loss of markets more important than those they could gain by opening up commerce with Cuba.

U.S. officials say that their policy of trying to isolate Cuba from the supplies of non-Communist industrial countries is responsible for some of the severe difficulties which Castro now has to deal with. They estimate that the level of Cuban economic activity is about 20 per cent below that of 1958, the year before Castro took power. They say studies of living standards in Cuba also show a 15 per cent drop in the Cuban food diet.

No one here claims, however, that the boycott policy is wholly responsible for Castro's ills. Officials put a considerable share of the blame on what they call Castro's mismanagement of Cuban affairs and his determined effort to remake the country along Communist lines with highly organized central planning and elimination of individual incentives.

Nor does any responsible official in the U.S. government claim that economic stresses alone have created any serious threat to Castro's control of Cuba. Those most familiar with conditions inside Cuba say that his power appears to be solidly entrenched and strongly supported by an elaborate network of police and informers so that he is able to deal ruthlessly with any incipient opposition.

Couple of Cool Cats Continue to Live in Luxury

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—A couple of cool cats are living the life of puss-and-boots, modern style, in a $35,000 home today—their future secure.

They were assured of the continuing income from a $435,000 trust when the will of the late Dr. William W. Grier was given final approval in San Diego Superior Court Tuesday.

The cats are old as cats go. Brownie is 15 and Hellcat is 14.

Dr. Grier who died June 2, 1963, named four cats as heirs in his will, but two died before he did.

Mrs. Avila Horn, a retainer in the Grier household for 14 years, is taking care of Brownie and Hellcat. They eat the best, but at that it only costs about $10 a week. There is an occasional visit to the veterinarian to pay for.

That's about all. Brownie and Hellcat are rich enough for all sorts of high cat life, but they are too old.

"Mostly," said Mrs. Horn, "they just east and sleep a lot."

YOUTH SENTENCED

DENVER (UPI— A young Denver man who police said led them on a high speed chase which eventually touched off a demonstration of bottle-throwing and swearing at officers by a gang of teen-agers was fined $500 and sentenced to six months in jail Tuesday. Police said James A. Thompson, 18, of Denver, drove at speeds of 70 miles an hour and ran 10 stop signs before colliding with a police cruiser. Another police vehicle which was chasing him crashed into his car. When he was stopped at the Dahlia Sopping Center, a gang of teen-agers threw bottles at officers.

HORSETIES

CHOL-CHOL, Chile (UPI) — Horses wear neckties in this agricultural area to keep them from getting lost.

Each of six Maryknoll catechists here has an old tie with his name painted on it and, to separate the catechists' horses from the rest of the town's, each catechist takes his tie off a rack and puts it on the horse.

Transportation Company Trains At Ft. Carson

The 212th Transportation Company (Heavy Truck) based at Tullahoma, Tenn., is supplementing year - round Reserve classes with two weeks of practical work at Ft. Carson through Saturday with the 557th Transportation Company (Heavy Truck).

About 150 members of the 212th are working with 557th personnel. Their active duty service gives them opportunity to perform maintenance on 10-ton "Dragon Wagons," load and unload the heavy vehicles.

The unit was initiated in 1956 as an engineering battalion and redesignated as a transportation company in 1960. The Reserve company is under the XII U.S. Army Corps, Atlanta, Ga., and is commanded by Col. James H. Reeves Jr.

Capt. Milton H. Nesbitt Jr. is commanding at Ft. Carson. The unit has officers, all of Tullahoma and has had active duty tours at Ft. Bragg, N.C.; Ft. Benning, Ga.; Ft. Eustis, Va.; and Camp Pickett, Va. While this is its first year at Ft. Carson, the 212th was attached to the 557th at Ft. Eustis.

Sfc. Richard O. Scott, Bradyville, Tenn., is first sergeant.

FISH STORY

Visitors are told the bullet hole in the fish was put there by Jesse James when he left town in 1868 after robbing the bank.

But that's a fish story.

After the Civil War, a Union Army soldier passed through here, spotted the fish and drilled it with one shot.

Tung oil, obtained from the nut of the tung tree, is the most powerful drying agent known. It is used in printing ink, varnishes, enamels and many other products.

Empire State Native Ascends Maroon Peak

Army life can take a soldier around the world or above it says Spec-4 Donald Rogers who climbed 14,500-foot Maroon Peak recently with search teams from Ft. Carson's Leadership and Mountain Training School.

This upstate New Yorker never climbed a mountain in his life until the Army sent him to Carson and assigned him to the leadership school as scheduling specialist.

He qualified as a member of the school's military mountaineering teams which are on call for search, rescue and recovery missions in the rugged western mountains. They are trained by H. G. Sorensen, former Olympic skiier.

As a climber he scaled Maroon Peak west of Aspen with other team members to recover the body of a man who was killed in a fall from the summit. The teams went up the peak first with civilian searchers to find the missing man.

Rogers also appears on Tuesday and Thursday throughout the summer at 10:30 a.m. when Carson's military mountaineering demonstrations are held for the public and to keep the climbers in training for their missions.

He is the former recreation director at Hudson River State Hospital, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where Mrs. Rogers is head nurse. Rogers grew up in Whitehall, N. Y., at the foot of the Adirondacks where he has never climbed.

BIDS RECEIVED

DENVER (UPI)—Firms from Denver and Pueblo submitted apparent low bids Tuesday totaling $781,841 on two highway construction projects. The Western Paving Construction Co. of Denver bid $391,768 for work on two miles of S. Federal Blvd. in Denver. The Pioneer Construction Co. of Pueblo bid $389,073 for work on 4.8 miles of U.S. 50 west of Las Animas, in Bent County.

Dancer Jose Greco Says He Is Scared of Films

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Italian-born, Brooklyn-reared Jose Greco, whose flashing feet have danced over half the world, is facing his dramatic debut in films and he says he is scared.

"Sure, I've been performing since I was a kid," he remarked, "but it has always been dancing. Now I'm supposed to play dramatic scenes. How do I know I can handle them?"

Greco is one of the passengers on Stanley Kramer's "Ship of Fools," and the producer-director picked him on sight. That worries the dancer, too. He recalled his first interview with Kramer.

"I went into his office and he took one look at me and said to an assistant, 'He'll be all right.'

"At the time, I didn't know what I was getting into. All I heard was the title, 'Ship of Fools.' I thought maybe it was a musical. Then my agent gave me the book to read, and I found out the role I was to play was Pepe, the pimp."

So far Greco has done little in the month's shooting besides dance and stand in the background. His dramatic scenes are coming up soon. If physical condition means anything, he'll be ready.

"Guess how old I am," he challenged. I hazarded the late 30s, and he confessed: 46. He added that he could outrun any of the 30 dancers in his troupe, most of them in their early 20s.

For two decades his weight has remained a constant 149 pounds. This was a revelation to a constant dieter who watched him sail through a lunch of lentil soup, pot roast and potato pancakes with a couple of glasses of beer.

"I eat this way all the time," he explained. "With my kind of dancing I burn up the carbohydrates. I do 10 dances at each performance, and it takes a lot of fuel to keep that up."

Greco's kind of dancing has been a sensation for the past dozen years wherever he has toured, and that includes most countries of North and South America and Europe, this side of the Iron Curtain. As soon as he finishes "Ship of Fools," he takes his company to South Africa.

Flamenco dancing has been around for a long time, but it took Jose Greco to make it really pay; his annual gross: a half-million dollars.

He was born in Montorio, Italy, to an Italian father and Spanish mother, and spent his years from 7 to 10 with his mother's family in Seville. There he picked up his feel for flamenco.

"But the important factor came after I moved to Brooklyn when I was 10," he said. "For six years I was a runner for ticket scalpers along Broadway. I got to see all the shows free. I studied what audiences enjoyed, how timing and production values could keep their attention."

Greco now travels most of the year, maintaining an apartment in Madrid and a villa in southern Spain, where he is affectionately termed "The gypsy from New York."

Looking At Hollywood

By HEDDA HOPPER

© 1964, By the Chicago Tribune

HOLLYWOOD — Mrs. Reese Taylor asked me to pick up Sir Edward Hallstrom of Australia, and deliver him to her Pasadena home for a dinner in his honor. He's a charming knowledgeable man, and a shrewd kangaroo trader. For the two white kangaroos with baby in pouch which he presented to our zoo, Sir Edward took home the bones of a saber-toothed tiger from our tar pits. He collects everything from rare animals and birds to hats. When President Truman honored him for presenting a rare Audubon drawing to the United States, Harry asked if he didn't want something. He asked for the President's hat, and it was at the hotel before he got back. The only topper missing from his collection is Sir Winston Churchill's and he hopes to get that soon. I was glad I wasn't wearing one. I've have taken it right off my head and handed it over.

SIR EDWARD'S latest interest is dolphins, and I traded places at the dinner table with "Flipper" producer Ivan Tors so he could explain to Sir Edward how you go about catching them. Tors is sending two men to Australia to instruct his trainer. "You must give dolphins lots of love and affection," he cautioned. ..... Mayor Sam Yorty gave Hallstrom the key to the city. Revue's Taft Schreiber also received a citation. He and Mrs. Taylor never cease working for the zoo. Jimmy Stewart was there without Gloria, who was in Honolulu. Dolores Hope came stag, too. Saw Bradley Jones, lawyer son of the late, great bone specialist, Dr. Ellis Jones, and his wife. Also there Peggy Bolton and Morgan Adams Jr. A great evening. Nobody but Mrs. Taylor could have gotten that interesting group together. But the star was Sir Edward.

SEAN CONNERY makes his first picture without women for 7 Arts. Titled "The Hill," it's about British officers in a prison camp during World War II. Picture starts in September with Sidney Lumet directing on the Spanish main. . . . . The Hollywood Studio club, where would-be actresses live cheaply ($24-50 a week for room and two meals a day) until their careers get going will have to close its doors unless some money is raised fast. Former Resident Janet Blair did her bit by giving the proceeeds from a performance of "Sound of Music." Of the more than 10,000 girls who gave moved in and out during the years, Janet is one of the few who reached stardom. Others were ZaSu Pitts, Donna Reed, Kim Novak, Marily Monroe, Linda Darnell, Marie Windsor, Rita Moreno, and Maureen O'Sullivan. The girls at the club said Marlyn passed the supreme test — she was beautiful at breakfast.

Minor Mystery Noted In Case of Jack Ruby

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A minor mystery has developed over a newspaper which investigators reported finding in Jack Ruby's car, a defense lawyer said Wednesday.

Although prosecutors say they know nothing to link the newspaper with the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, FBI agents and a representative of the Warren Commission have expressed an interest in it.

"Jack tells me he is mystified," defense attorney Joe Tonahill said. "He says he never read the Wall Street Journal, had not seen a copy of the Nov. 16 issue, and doesn't have any idea what it was doing in his car."

FBI agents asked about the newspaper when they gave Ruby a lie detector test in the county jail Saturday.

Alligator Shoes Become Again Status Symbol

NEW YORK (UPI) — When we heard that one of the big shoe companies was mass producing $125 alligator shoes this fall as a new status symbol for men we rushed over to talk with Arthur Edelman, one of the experts in that field.

Edelman, at six feet six and 237 pounds, looks big enough to wrestle his own alligators but the closest he ever came to that was last summer when someone pulled a 4½-foot crocodile into his boat while he was floating down the Zambesi River during a safari in Southern Rhodesia.

Edelman, 38, is president of Fleming-Joffe, Ltd., which specializes in tanning reptile hides. His office is in New York but the tannery is in Newark, N.J. and he says "that smell you get on the way to the Newark airport is probably us."

Most of the men's quality shoe companies have had one or two lines of alligator shoes in their collections, usually for golf, but this year Johnston & Murphy of Nashville, Tenn., decided to go all out with 14 styles ranging from dress shoes through boots, leisure shoes and moccasins—at $125 a pair.

Why so expensive?

"We get some skins from Florida and Louisiana but Africa is the big supplier of alligator and crocodile," Edelman said. "It used to be you could go out and shoot them between the eyes at night—the light blinds them. This is now forbidden.

"Usually it takes 50 years for an alligator to grow big enough to produce a hide for men's shoes and sometimes it takes two skins for one pair—100 years of alligator for one pair.

"The square grain used in men's shoes is near the lower end of the body. The squares must taper from toe toward the ankle so only a small part can be used. The rest is used for watch straps, etc. Sometimes you can get a pair of shoes near the head but not often. All of this has to be cut by hand.

"We use 70,000 alligators per year. We use alligators and crocodiles interchangably. The only difference is that one has a long nose and the other a round nose, I forget which. (The crocodile has a long nose and chases people more than the more sluggish Louisiana and Florida alligators.) They come from India, Singapore, Argentina, all over."

"Men go all out on alligator golf shoes—that is the primary use up to now," he said. "There is a tremendous pride of possession. Once when I was in Cleveland at a golf course Eddie Stanky (now a scout for the St. Louis Cardinals) came out carrying his own shoe cream so the boy could shine his alligator golf shoes properly and keep them soft.

"We sell color to all the world but in America men only wear brown and black. They like a neutral tan in Italy and a very dark brown called Grasso which means grease in Italy and comes from the oil in the tanning. They like navy blue in France."

Duke Rose, president of J. & M., calls the whole thing his $2 million alligator line. He says alligators traditionally have been classed as casual but some of the new stylings are dressy enough to be worn with business clothes. But they are a real luxury, a prestige symbol, and should be treated as such."

Texas Man Fails To Appear; Forfeits Bond

Thomas M. Henderson, 56, Paris, Tex. did not appear in Justice of the Peace H. C. McShane's court Wednesday to answer a charge of careless driving and forfeited his $50 bond. Henderson was ticketed Friday on Colorado Highway 27 by State Patrolman Dan Morrissey.

Marsalan William Coil, 25, 3100 Wood Ave. was charged with the same violation and fined $10 and costs. State Patrolman R. D. Allen gave him the ticket Tuesday on Templeton Gap Road.

Daniel Wayne Batholomew, 19, 36 Elm Ave. got a ticket from State Patrolman Carl Drake, Tuesday for driving a defective vehicle on Harrison Road. A $10 fine and costs was imposed.

Roger Kay Roemmich, 21, 218 Iron Rd. was fined $6 and costs for having no operator's license when driving on West Pikes Peak Avenue Tuesday. Ben McFarlen of the police department was the officer.

Ursula Bloom, 27, 1815 Francis Place paid a $10 fine and costs as she did not signal to make a turn on U. S. Highway 85-87 July 15. R. D. Allen was the state patrolman.

Sandra Faye Asland, 16, 15 Arlen St. got a ticket at Monument from State Patrolman J. Mathis July 16 charging her with making an improper turn. She was fined $15 and costs.

African Boy Scout Has Never Seen Lion

The youth likes hunting at night for antelope, but prefers his old matchlock-type gun to the automatics used on the jamboree rifle range.

Kennecott Cuts Down on Deliveries

NEW YORK (UPI)— Kennecott Copper Corp. said today it is no longer able to meet some of its deliveries because of strikes in its mines in the United States and Chile.

President Herman H. Kremer of Kennecott Sales Corp. said that in consequence, Kennecott has invoked the Force Majeure clause in some contracts. He said Kennecott is not taking any new orders.

Liberace Breaks Record; Appears Here Monday

She said that an unprecedented number of requests that the pianist return were received by the management.

She said that the theatre has had a large advance sale for the Liberace show but good seats still remain. The same is true for the Ken Murray Hollywood Home Movies show which plays the theatre Friday and Saturday.

The box office is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Central Airlines Names New Sales Vice President

Central Airlines has named Harold J. Salfen as vice president of sales, according to an announcement made by L. E. Glastow, Central's president.

Salfen had been the airline's general sales manager since February, 1962. In his new position he will be incharge of the company's sales and marketing program.

Salfen, who has an extensive background in aviation sales, had been with Delta Airlines since 1950. He headed Delta's military transportation department until 1956 when he assumed duties as sales promotion manager. He also held positions as city assistant traffic and sales manager and manager of reservations.

Walton League, City Team to Stop Mistletoe

A campaign to eliminate dwarf mistletoe among pine trees in Palmer Park has been launched by the City Parks and Recreation Department and members of the Izaak Walton League.

Bill Schacht, forester for the parks and recreation department said that 10 volunteers from the Izaac Walton League spent one weekend combating the parasite in a 12 to 15 acre tract in the southern section of the park.

"We are mighty grateful for the bang up job they have done," Schacht said. Heading the Waltonian work crew was Col. H. A. Fulton, U. S. Army (ret.), whose Colorado Springs home is at 2306 Chelton Road after 32 years in service.

The dwarf mistletoe is a seed plant and not a fungus. Since it is a true parasite, it can kill a ponderosa pine in time, but it will weaken many others and make them easy prey for the Black Hills beetle.

Schacht said infected branches were trimmed away from the parent tree, but some trees estimated to be 90 years old had to be destroyed. These trees and branches will be fed into a department chipper and the chips used for soil erosion control.

The Waltonians became interested in the project following a guest speaking appearance by Stuart Richter, director of the City Parks and Recreation Department, and Schacht. The prevalence of the dwarf mistletoe was discussed at the time.

Schacht said the Waltonians came interested since they are vitally concerned with the conservation of all things pertaining to natural resources.

The forester said there is also some dwarf mistletoe on pines in North Cheyenne Canon, and it is hoped that a similar program can be worked out for that area.

Kings Supers Pays Extra 25 Cent Dividend

L. J. King, general manager of Kings Supers, a division of J. S. Dillion and Sons Store Co., reports that the board of directors voted Monday to pay an extra dividend of .25 cents a share on the common stock of the company. Date of payment was set for Aug. 17 to stock of record.

With this dividend there will have been paid $1.50 per common share in cash plus 5 per cent in stock during the past 12 months, King said.

Criminal Charges Filed Against Three Friday

Franklin Levi Lewis and Kenneth Lloyd Edwards, both 24 and from Denver, were charged with larceny from the person and bond set at $1,500 each by Judge William M. Calvert.

According to the information filed against them, they robbed Sgt. David N. Monk of Ft. Carson, of his wallet containing $115, July 1.

A sheriff's report at the time said the pair offered Monk a lift back to Ft. Carson and when they reached Stratton Hill they forcibly took the sergeant's wallet.

They were picked up a few minutes later but according to Deputy Sheriff Vincent Denboske, did not have the wallet in their possession. It was found in the road nearby.

It is alleged that the defendant broke into the Kerr Motor Co., 14 W. Colorado Ave., July 7.

Joy Riding Costs Man 30 Days in Jail

An Air Force Academy man, William Bukala, 24, received a suspended sentence of 30 days in County Jail and $10.20 costs from Justice of the Peace H. C. McShane Wednesday for joy riding.

Bukala was accused of taking a car belonging to Michael J. Muggs, June 26.

Peter John Smith, 70, 1520 S. Cascade Ave. was fined $25 and costs for disturbance.

It is alleged that the defendant broke into the Kerr Motor Co., 14 W. Colorado Ave., July 7.

Engineer Group At Carson Aids Boy, Girl Scouts

Heavy equipment of the 7th Engineer Battalion is moving on many fronts as new men from Fort Carson learn to operate machinery and help youth programs and the National Forest Service.

At Carson an extensive program of renovating two squad and two assault courses by Company A begins Monday. These courses are used in the continuing training of 5th Infantry Division (Mechanized) personnel.

In the Lock Park area of San Isabel National Forest, a road improvement project is underway by Company D, approximately 10 miles south of Canon City. This forest area has been and will be used for division training and improves access for tourists and the forest service, according to Lt. Col. C. C. Baldwin, 7th Engineer commander.

Company A has completed a project at Camp Alexander for the Boy Scouts. The dam forming a swimming area had been leaking. Four pieces of earth-moving equipment were used to repair it in April and a recent check has determined that the repairs have held.

Army support of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts is authorized by Congress. Engineer support of these groups and of other government agencies strengthens Army - civilian relations and provides training for soldiers.

Pair of Clowns To Serve Ute Trail Cowboys

This year's Ute Trail Stampede rodeo at Woodland Park will feature two rodeo clowns during the bull riding event, according to Bob Beach, vice president of the Woodland Park Saddle Club which sponsors the benefit three-day rodeo.

The clowns, although dressed in baggy pants and circus make-up, perform a needed service to the cowboys during this wild event. Their job on the serious side consists in distracting the Brahma bulls while the cowboys scramble to safety after attempting to ride the humped-back beasts. Many clowns carry permanent scars from unfortunate encounters with the unpredictable Brahmas. These scars are the badge of the rodeo clown.

On the lighter side, rodeo clowns go through a repertoire of zany antics to amuse the spectators and liven up the seriousness of the major man-against-beast contests. The Ute Trail Stampede will feature the five major events of big time rodeo this year — saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc busting, Brahma bull riding, bull dogging, and barrel racing.

Beach said that clowns this year will be H. R. Williams and Pistol Holiday. The pair have appeared at rodeos in the southwest for a number of years.

The Ute Trail Stampede in the rodeo arena in downtown Woodland Park will be staged at 1:30 p.m. performances only Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Carbon Black Proves Useful in Modern Industry

Carbon black — a sophisticated "cousin" to that unpopular substance, soot — is one of the most useful products of modern industry, according to an article in Petroleum Today.

The magazine says that more than 2 billion pounds of carbon black are produced each year in 41 American plants, a quantity that comprises about 70 per cent of the total world production.

Carefully designed to perform a variety of functions, carbon black is manufactured in 30 different grades by the controlled burning of oil or natural gas in the absence of sufficient oxygen to consume all the carbon.

The resulting product, light and fluffy in texture, is used to strengthen and toughen rubber tires, raincoats and conveyor belts. It goes into bowling balls, typewriter ribbons, eyebrow pencils, television tubes and printer's ink. Its particles are so tiny that the period at the end of a sentence in ordinary printed matter contains nearly one billion particles of carbon black.

It also has been used to help control the weather and to protect farm crops against frost damage. The article says that under certain conditions, clouds can be made to produce rain when carbon black is dropped into them from an airplane. When released in moist, cloudless air, carbon black can lift the fog from airports by absorbing heat and causing the air to rise and form clouds in the sky.

Though soft to the touch, carbon black is used as an abrasive for polishing the lenses, prisms, and reflectors of optical instruments. It is also used to make some of the hardest tool - steel alloys and the most powerful explosives.

History records the use of lampblack as a pigment as far back as 1200 B.C. Ancient Romans and Egyptians used ink made from lampblack, and centuries later Gutenberg used the same black substance to give body to the ink used in printing his Bible.

Carbon black's particles are so fine and powdery that one pound can cover a 10 - acre area. The late Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd made use of this characteristic of carbon black by having bombs of the substance dropped on the snow at the South Pole to provide his surveyors and mapmakers with wide and easily visible points of reference.

In recent years, scientists have developed an electrically conductive form of carbon black which can be used in making tires that ground static electricity. This provides important safety advantages for vehicles carrying large quantities of fuel, such as airplanes and tank trucks.

Local Products Marketed Nationally Bring Money in

By SAM CAMPBELL

General Electric Vice President Virgil B. Day was in Los Angeles to talk to the California Industrial Development Conference.

"By one count," he said, "there are over 15,000 public and private organizations engaged in industrial development work in the United States."

This type of work has several aspects to it. The aspect you run into most often is the endeavor to coax a company at City A to locate a plant in City B.

Local To National

That effort is all right too, but since all economic activity begins with the consumer or user, doesn't it hit you that some attention should go to the marketplace?

Namely, how can a company that manufactures and sells successfully in City A and environs expand it sales so that its goods also appear on the market in City Z? In other words, how do you take a local product and put it on the national market?

Let me give you couple of examples.

Santa Ana has a man-and-wife operation known as California Window Products, 420 Terminal Ave., which has acquired patents and machinery to make an outside window louver. The device is trade-named Hasco Sun Control Louvers.

Owner Jay Rider is determined to market this adjustable sun-shade nationally, and has made the necessary arrangements to do so. Pending now is the outcome of a market test in Southern California. The promotional ads are scheduled to run next week.

Example number two is Mark Chemical Co. in Anaheim which makes a valve for dispensing washing and sanitizing chemicals correctly and automatically in restaurant kitchen sinks. The device passed its market test with flying colors locally.

Company President Garth Biscoff went the franchise route and now has dealers in Omaha, Las Vegas, and Hawaii beside Southern California.

Well, these sales of local products outside of Orange County bring money to Orange County and create jobs just the same as if a new factory had located here. The same general idea will work for plants in Colorado, Ohio or anyplace else.

Of course, finding just the right channel for entering the national market takes some technique. Even so, that technique is less difficult than trying to attract an outside industry to move in.

He has collected figures to show that stopping window glare while it is still outside a building cuts down air conditioning costs on the inside.

Gunmen Escape With $1.4 Million Worth of Gems

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP)—Four masked men shot a policeman and another man today as they held up a jewelry store near the Monte Carlo Casino and escaped with more than $1 million worth of gems.

It was the fourth holdup of the Clerc Jewelry Shop in the past decade. The owners have estimated their losses in the four robberies at 12,260,000 francs ($2.45 million). The haul in today's holdup was estimated by them at 7 million francs ($1.4 million).

The robbers drove up to the shop today in a small pickup truck and doubleparked in the street. Policeman Henri Natali saw the truck—which had been stolen Wednesday night — and told the driver to move on. As he turned his back, Natali was felled by a machine gun burst to his legs.

The four men rushed into the jewelry shop, covered the three employes and scooped up the jewels in the main display case.

Utility Car Theft Reported to Sheriff

W. H. Becker of the Colorado Springs Equipment Co., 136 Garden of the Gods Rd. reported to the sheriff's office Wednesday that the company's two-door white Scout had been stolen.

He told Deputy Sheriff Larry Holien that the Sout was in the parking lot at the Garden of the Gods office, was locked and that the keys were in the office but had now disappeared. The vehicle's ID is FC57881A. It is worth $2,200.

Frontier Breaks Record for June Earnings

Record - breaking June earnings for Frontier Airlines exceed those of any month in the carriers 18 year history. This announcement was made today in Denver by Lewis W. Dymond, president of the company.

June operating profit of $292,385 with net earnings of $120,907 after provisions for interest and taxes brought this year's first half total earnings to $454,825 or 38c per share — compared to $402,815 or 34c per share for the first six months of 1963.

Dymond pointed out that this increase was most gratifying in view of the better than 9 per cent decrease in subsidy payments per mile flown during this period and the large number of unsubsidized operations conducted in 1964 between Denver, Colorado and El Paso, Texas.

Initial operation of Frontier's new turbo prop powered Convair 580 aircraft was a factor in June's record breaking month. Operating cost per mile for the new jet powered 52 passenger Convair 580 including depreciation for June was 16 per cent below that of the smaller piston powered 44 passenger Convair 340 aircraft and equal to that of the 21 passenger DC-3 aircraft exclusive of depreciation.

The company is currently operating two of the newly designed Convair 580s with an additional two entering service before the end of this year. The company now has options for purchasing an additional 14 of the modern 52 passenger jet powered Convair 580s during the next 18 months.

Favored Players Post Wins In Broadmoor Men's Action

By TOM CUSHMAN
Gazette Telegraph Sports Writer

Denver's Claude Wright had a running start on his bid for a third Broadmoor Men's Invitational crown this morning — but it appeared as though one of his strongest arguments was going to come from a member of the family.

Wright was one of three 8 and 6 winners as the 43rd annual tournament rolled through its first round of match play under scorching skies Wednesday. The other two who posted those lopsided margins were Colorado University graduate Gary Polumbus of Denver, and Claude's son Gary.

And, in an unusual twist, 49-year-old Claude was to battle his strapping son as second round action got underway this morning. It was the second time the two Wrights have carried on a friendly feud over the Broadmoor acreage. The first occurance was in the quarter-finals of this same tournament in 1962 and the father nearly got a lesson from the son before Claude finally slipped away with a one-up victory on the 19th hole.

The battle of Wrights was to be the highlight of the second round pairings, although there were several other matches which were potentially tight struggles. These included an upper bracket battle between pendulum-putting Frank Bostock of Scottsdale, Ariz., and Topeka, Kan.'s Jack Clevenger. Both were entries in the recent Trans-Mississippi Tournament here.

In the lower bracket, medalist Herb Pollock of Salt Lake City faced H. B. Bolas of Denver, a veteran area player who had to be regarded as a dangerous opponent. Polumbus, who is appearing in this tournament for the first time, was to meet Frank Tallman of Pueblo, another highly-regarded Colorado veteran. And Jim Hardy of Hutchinson, Kan., a semi-finalist last summer, was paired with Jim Rheim of Chula Vista, Calif. in a battle of collegians. Hardy is a member of the Oklahoma State squad that was second in the NCAA championships and Rheim plays his golf for Stanford University.

Wednesday's action varied only slightly from the form sheet. There was a slight upset in the upper bracket where Parker ousted Loy Martin, Jr. of Tulsa, Okla., 3 and 2. And in the lower bracket Thomas surprised veteran player, H. R. Berglund of Denver. Berglund had turned in one of the better medal scores during qualifying with an even-par 72.

Liechty, the Iowa power plant who virtually routed the entire field a year ago, picked up where he left off in Wednesday's action. He won four of the first five holes against Bill Wigley of Dallas, Tex. and coasted on to a 6 and 5 triumph.

Both of the Wrights started more slowly but picked up steam just before the turn and headed back to the clubhouse after playing 12 holes. Claude whipped Chuck Fish of Hutchinson, Kan. and long-hitting Gary buried James Metzler of Kansas City, Mo.

English, who is one of Colorado's consistently fine players but who has had difficulty here in recent summers, launched his title campaign in that same fashion Wednesday. He finally squeezed out a one-up victory over D. Storey of Wichita, Kan.

Pollock had one of the day's few exciting matches. He and Dr. William Martin of Colorado Springs had a fist-tight struggle for 18 holes before the Salt Lake City star ran in an eight foot birdie putt on the final green for a one-up win. Clevenger was forced into the day's lone extra hole battle before he defeated Jack Harden, Jr., of El Paso, Tex. on the 19th.

Tallman also posted a one-up victory over a Colorado Springs foe, Jack Might. Other Wednesday results saw Bostock whip Larry Eaton of Greeley, 4 and 3; Bolas defeat Pete Click of Denver, 6 and 5; Zuspann oust Harold Watson of Denver, 2 and 1; Polumbus blast Cecil Monaghan of Wichita Falls, Tex., 8 and 6; Hardy defeat O. B. English of Dallas, 4 and 2; and Rheim whip Wilbur Bartels of Kansas City, Mo., 3 and 2.

All of Wednesday's loser dropped into consolation flights so the entire field was due for another tour of the course today. The tournament will continue through the 36 hole finals in the Championship Flight which are scheduled for Sunday.

HE'S ACTUALLY PUTTING — It may appear as though Frank Bostock of Scottsdale, Ariz. is merely lining up a putt but he's actually just stroked the ball during his 4 and 3 win over Larry Eaton of Greeley in Wednesday's action in the Broadmoor Men's Invitational. Bostock is an advocate of the pendulum putter and it has served him well during appearances here in the Trans-Mississippi and the current tournament.

DEFENDING CHAMP IN ACTION—John Liechty of Marshalltown, Ia., the defending champion of the Broadmoor Men's Invitational, lofts a shot toward the green in his first round match with Bill Wigley of Dallas, Tex., Wednesday. Liechty built a sizeable lead on the early holes and coasted to a 6 and 5 victory. He was to meet John Parker of Hutchinson, Kan. today.

Colorado King Gets Top Weight

INGLEWOOD, Calif., (AP)—Colorado King, a big winner in his last two starts, will pack high weight of 124 pounds when the Hollywood Park meeting draws to a close Monday with the $75,000 - added Sunset Handicap.

The South African champion equalled the world record for nine furlongs of 1.46 2-5 in taking the $55,200 American Handicap.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Morrison's Mustard Plaster draws the next to the highest impost Monday of 122 pounds. Mrs. Ann Peppers' Mr. Consistency is third at 120.

Coach Mickey Vernon of the Pittsburgh Pirates won the American League batting title in 1946 and 1953.

Sertoma Clinches American Legion 'A' Championship

By CHARLIE DREUX
Gazette Telegraph Sports Writer

Behind the strong arm of Clay Chambers, the Sertoma team clinched the American Legion "A" championship Wednesday night when the undefeated baseballers dumped the Elks, 8-2, in the second game of a twin bill engagement at Memorial Field. This was Sertoma's 10th consecutive victory.

In the first game Wednesday night, the Rotary nine maintained its second place standings with a 9-0 triumph over the winless Lions via the two-hit pitching of Ted Jones. The Rotary aggregation is 7-3 in Legion "A" standings behind the champion, Sertoma.

The Sertoma group will meet the winner of the Pueblo American Legion "A" league chase in the Legion District playoff, which is slated for Aug. 1-3 in the best of two out of three series on a home and away basis.

Should the Sertoma team win the District playoff, the local squad will qualify for a berth in the Legion State finals scheduled to be played Aug. 7-9 in Denver.

This Saturday night's exhibition slate calls for a twin bill with an American Legion team from Pueblo. The Lions meet the Pueblo team in the opener at 6:30 p.m., followed by the Rotary-Pueblo contest at 8:30 p.m. Both games are scheduled for Memorial Field.

Wednesday's doubleheader concluded the regular schedule. However, two nights during the season were postponed because of rain. Those games have been rescheduled for this Sunday, July 26, and Wednesday, July 29.

Sunday's agenda calls for two games with Sertoma meeting Rotary and the Elks tangling with the Lions. The same scheduled is set for Wednesday, July 29. Regardless of the outcome of the four games, the league standings will not change. Sertoma is the champion and Rotary the runner-up.

In the Sertoma-Elks encounter Wednesday night, Chambers contained the Elks batsmen to two runs on three hits. Chambers walked four and struck out 12 during the seven inning contest and sewed up the Legion championship.

The Sertoma bombers collected 10 hits to record the victory with Tom Stanley and Jim Smith leading the way with two hits apiece. Ray McCaffrey took the loss for the Elks as he was tabbed for seven runs on nine hits. Bill Savio relieved McCaffrey in the sixth inning.

John Gannon, Sam Zavatti and McCaffrey spoiled Chambers no-hitter as all three Elks batters collected single tallies.

Jones kept tight reins on the Lions batters as the fireballing right-hander limited the opposition to two hits while walking two and striking out nine.

For the Lions, Danny Gieck took the loss despite the fact that the Lions' pitching mainstay struck out 15 Rotary batters. Gieck gave up five earned runs on 10 hits and walked two.

Meininger Wins Colorado Jaycee Golf Tournament

GREELEY (AP)—Paul Meininger of Fort Morgan repeated his performance of last year by winning the Colorado Junior Chamber of Commerce Golf Tournament Wednesday. His score was 224 for 54 holes.

Second went to Steve Quinn of Durango who beat Dan Dymresky of Aurora in a playoff after both finished the regular 54 holes with 225s. Bill Opdyke of Greeley took fourth with 227.

Those four qualified for the national tournament sponsored by the Jaycees in St. Paul Aug. 3-8.

Bov Vandal of Pueblo won the novice championship for boys under 14. He shot 86-39—125. Tied for second were Steve Voss, Durango, and Butch McGlothelen, Greeley, with 130s.

Steve Quinn, Durango, 74-76-75—225.

Dan Dymersky, Aurora, 72-77-76—225.

Birkland Seeks State Title

DENVER (AP) — Joan Birkland is matched with Paula Sue Fix in one of today's semifinal matches in the Colorado Women's Golf Tournament as the four-time winner continues her quest for another title.

All four are from Denver.

Miss Yonker won over Lael Emerick 4 and 3 and Mrs. Fix had little trouble in defeating Jeanne Smith 6 and 4.

Firemen Pace Softball League

The undefeated Fire Department outlasted Denver Equipment 5-4 to hold onto first place in the Industrial League in softball action Wednesday night at Memorial Field.

Gazette Telegraph edged Simms Super 11-10, the Telephone Company dumped the 425L Gofers 15-8, and Phil Long Ford nipped Ward's 8-7 in other Industrial League contests.

Singles by Ray Spears and Tom Mudd and an error gave the Firemen their winning run in the fifth inning against Denver Equipment. Third-baseman John Southcotte had three singles for the Firemen.

Shortstop Jerry Almen singled and scored the tying run and leftfielder Mike Bralley crossed the plate with the winning run on an outfield error for Gazette Telegraph. A triple by catcher Dale Willmeth and four consecutive singles produced five runs for Simms in the top of the seventh to erase a 7-5 GT lead.

The Telephone Company scored in every inning against the Gofers. Tom Coley and Auren Rench both had a pair of run-producing hits for the Phonemen.

Senators Post Ninth Straight YAL Win

The Sertoma Senators streaked to their ninth straight win with a 10-3 win over the Corpus Christi Colts and Manitou blanked the Jets 9-0 in Yong America Heavyweight baseball Wednesday night at Monument Valley Park.

The unbeaten Senators banged out 13 hits in five innings to smother the Colts. Tom Waymire led the Senator attack with two singles and a double.

In YAL Middleweight baseball the Rocky Mountain Electric Red Sox overpowered the Bums 9-2 with an 11-hit attack and the Bruins downed the Pirates 9-6 at Bonney Park. The undefeated Rick's Nursery Sioux shut-out the Ed's Upholstery Blues 7-0 and the Southgate Bank Chiefs edged the Collier Lumber Eagles 5-3 in six innings at Vermijo Park.

The Broker Realty Yanks bowed to the Reds 8-1 and the Custom Blueprint Hawks, owners of first place, stopped with 33 runs against the Mobile Dispatching Orioles who scored 10 at Audubon Park.

Shamrock Kennel to Start Pup for Pueblo Sprint Race

PUEBLO — Lynn Breford, owner of the Shamrock Kennel of Colorado Springs, has startled officials at Pueblo Greyhound Park by nominating a pup with only two official starts for the $1,000 Sprint Challenge Race proposed for Aug. 1.

Breford nominated Hi Keedo, a September 1962 daughter of Ample Tip-Rosey Sherry after the youngster won two in a row on top of two schooling race victories. The official wins were in maiden and Grade D ranks.

Ordinarily, kennel owners nominate seasoned Grade A dogs for extra-purse races such as the Sprint Challenge.

Racing Secretary Fred Griffin said the Hi Keedo nomination will be accepted if Breford still feels that this should be his entry by the time the deadline for entering rolls around. Otherwise Breford will be allowed to substitute one of his Grade A veterans, possibly Rushaway Spot.

Two Grade A races are included on tonight's 11-event program, the ninth and the 10th. Dogs in the ninth include Rushaway Spot, Fred French and Charlie's Gone. Entries in the 10th include Steel Mike, Lynn's Shamrock and Happy Hook.

A ROUGH PROBLEM — A bad lie is studied by Lida Matthews of Portsmouth, Ohio, during the Women's Western Amateur Golf Tournament during Wednesday's play in Elmwood Park, suburban Chicago. The trip to the rough helped Lida lose to Patti Shook of Saginaw, Mich., the intercollegiate champion, 4 and 3. Earlier, Miss Matthews had knocked out defending champion Barbara McIntire of Colorado Springs. The Western was held last year at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs. (AP Wirephoto)

Local Golfers in Quarters Of Women's Western Golf

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Ill. (AP)—A strong collegiate flavor spiced today's quarter-finals of the 64th Women's Western Amateur golf tourney, in which 1962 champion Carol Sorenson holds the favorite's role.

But a sharp challenger in the opposite bracket is hot-shooting Barbara Fay White, Shreveport, La., six under par for 25 match play holes.

Miss Sorenson, 21, an Arizona State senior from Janesville, Wis., stroked the most decisive victory in Wednesday's second round of this longest uninterrupted tourney in major feminine competition.

She downed Marcella Rose, 26, a St. Louis social worker, 6 and 5 advancing along with two other collegians, who were second round spoilsports of sorts.

Maggie Martin, 5-foot-8 willowy brunette and an Ohio State junior from St. Clairsville, Ohio, ousted the meet medalist, Maureen Crum, Plant City, Fla., 3 and 2.

Miss Crum, who led Monday's qualifiers with a two-over-par 75 at heavily-bunkered, stream criss-crossed Oak Park Country Club, bowed out 11 over par in her 13-hole loss.

In today's lower bracket with Miss Sorenson is the current women's national collegiate champion, Patti Shook, 21, education major at Valparaiso University from Saginaw, Mich.

Miss Shook bounced out the tourney's glamor gal—shapely Lida Matthews of Portsmouth, Ohio, 4 and 3. Tuesday. Miss Matthews scored a stunning upset of defending champion Barbara McIntire, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Although Miss White won Wednesday only 4 and 3 over 17-year-old Susan Lance, Woodland Hills, Calif., she was one under par for 15 holes. Tuesday, Miss White was five under for 10 holes in trouncing Mexico City's Fela Chavez, 9 and 8.

CHICAGO (AP)—Results of second round play in the 64th Women's Western Amateur Golf Tournament Wednesday at Oak Park Country Club:

Maggie Martin, St. Clairsville, Ohio, defeated Maureen Crum, Plant City, Fla., 3 and 2.

Barbara Fay White, Shreveport, La., defeated Susan Lance, Woodland Hills, Calif., 4 and 3.

UPPER BRACKET
Martin vs. Ashley; White vs. Bell.

LOWER BRACKET

Mexico City Netter Wins Tennis Match

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Eighth-ranked 14-year-old Samuel Nunez of Mexico City met stubborn opposition in one of the feature matches of the National Boys and Girls Tennis Tournament Wednesday.

Rain fell during a crucial point in the third set of Nunez' third-round marathon match with Buddy Miles of Jackson, Miss. The ball was kept in play throughout the rain, which lasted almost six minutes, and the ball crossed the net 218 times before Nunez took the point.

The ball whizzed past the net 112 times on match point, which went to Nunez, giving him a 3-6, 6-4, 6-2 victory.

Wednesday's upset was scored by Mimi Raney of Little Rock, Ark., who ousted second-seeded Ann Roberts in the girls 14 quarter-finals. She beat the Coral Gables, Fla., favorite 6-2, 6-3.

Sugarman Quits Colts Training Camp

Sugarman, an agile 250-pounder who was the seventh draft choice of the Colts, had been considered a good prospect to make the team as an offensive tackle.

Sandy Takes Mound Again; Dodgers End Losing Streak

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ho-hum.

Sandy Koufax pitched again Wednesday night.

Won again. Struck out 10 or more again. Didn't allow any runs again.

Same old stuff.

That's the way it is with systematic Sandy. His latest effort was another Koufax special, a four-hit, 12-strikeout job that beat Houston 1-0 and ended the Los Angeles Dodgers losing streak at four games.

Walt Alston's personal tranquilizer — the Dodgers have to mix in at least one run for complete relaxation—now has won 11 games in a row since he last lost on May 27, boosting his record to 15-4 while his sixth shutout lowered his earned run average to a remarkable 1.78.

Just as remarkable was the feat of Philadelphia's light-hitting Bobby Wine, a .205 swinger who slammed his second homer in two nights, a bases-empty shot off Warren Spahn that triggered the National League leading Phillies to a 4-1 victory over Milwaukee.

Hitting honors for the day, however, went to Pittsburgh's Bill Mazeroski and Willie Stargell. Mazeroski drove in five runs and Stargell hit for the cycle with a single, double, triple and homer as the Pirates lashed 18 hits and crushed St. Louis 13-2.

Elsewhere, the second-place San Francisco Giants remained one game off the pace by belting the Chicago Cubs 7-3 but the third-place Cincinnati Reds fell 4½ games back by losing their fifth straight to the New York Mets, 4-3 in 10 innings.

Koufax, who struck out 10 or more batters in a game for the 58th time in his career, had to be at his best against Houston's Ken Johnson, who allowed only seven hits before he left for a pinch hitter in the eighth.

Hottest Club in Majors Makes Bid in American

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Quick quiz. Which major league team has the best record since June 15?

You're wrong.

It's not the American League leading New York Yankees, and it's not the Baltimore Orioles, who until two days ago were on top of the AL 27 out of 28 days. And it's not Philadelphia or San Francisco in the National League.

It's the Los Angeles Angels, who moved into sole possession of fourth place in the AL Wednesday night with a 3-2 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

The Angels, one of the zaniest collections of major leaguers since St. Louis' Gas House Gang, were lodged in ninth place June 15 with a poor record of 24-37. Since then, they have won 26 and lost 11, a lofty percentage of .703.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It took a gimpy-legged second baseman named Ernie Bowman to finally put a halt to the Arkansas Travelers. Bowman, limping badly on a sore leg, homered in the sixth and delivered a run-producing single in the seventh as Denver beat the Travelers 8-6 in Pacific Coast League play Wednesday night.

In all, six homers flew out of the park in Denver's rarified air. Tommy Aaron hit for the circuit with to men aboard in the second for Denver while Arkansas' attack featured two homers by Alex Johnson and solo homers by Norm Gigon and Wayne Graham. But it was Bowman's single which put Denver ahead to stay.

Jose Cardenal doubled home Gil Garrido in the top of the 12th to give Tacoma a 3-2 nod over San Diego. Art Shamsky's 16th homer with Cesar Tovara board in the sixth was the extent of the Padre attack. Tito Fuentes sent the game into overtime with his second homer of the season in the ninth.

Knuckleballer Tom Sturdivant won his fourth game in a row as Oklahoma City took the nightcap 5-1 after Indianapolis won the opener 4-1 behind Bruce Howard's two-hit pitching.

Sturdivant the much-traveled former big leaguer was nicked for an unearned run in the first but shut the door the rest of the way as he doled out only four hits. Chuck Dees and Jim Mahoney homered for the 89ers. Larry Himes homered for the Indians in the opener.

Seattle curveballer Hal Kolstad baffled Spokane for seven innings as the Rainiers gained a 5-3 victory. Five hits produced four Seattle runs in the third inning. Kolstad pitched hitless ball for five innings and shut out the Indians until the eighth when Spokane bats came alive too late.

Billy Ott stroked four hits and John Boccabella drove in four runs as Salt Lake City crushed Dallas 9-0. Boccabella's 19th homer drove in three runs. Cal Koonce coasted to his ninth victory on a four-hitter.

In an extra-inning affair at Honolulu the Islanders edged Portland's Beavers 7-6 on J. C. Hartman's single in the bottom of the 10th. Jack Spring last of five Hawaii pitchers got creadit for the win. The loss kept Portland a 1½ games behind San Diego in the Western Division.

Bob Hayes May Miss U.S.-Russia Dual Meet

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bob Hayes, rated the world's fastest human, may miss the dual meet between the United States and the USSR this weekend because of a recurring cramp in his left leg.

The chief trouble lately has been a twitch in his thigh which doctors attribute to an injury suffered early in the season.

Alternate John Moon of the U. S. Army worked out in Hayes' place in the 400-meter relay. Should Hayes be unable to compete Saturday and Sunday, Moon will replace him also in the 100 meters.

But Bell said that the decision won't be made for another day at least, adding: "Hayes wants very much to run."

Moon has been timed at 10.5 for 100 meters this season.

Polevaulter Fred Hansen, a postgraduate student at Rice, cleared 17 feet in practice at Memorial Coliseum Wednesday. Hansen, who has done 17-2 in competition this year, started at 15 feet and took seven vaults in working up the 17 foot level.

Then he quit for the day. It was the best he'd ever accomplished in a practice session.

Both teams were booked for a tour of the Disneyland amusement park today. The athletes were guests at a civic luncheon Wednesday attended by 700 persons.

Mayor Samuel W. Yorty drew laughs when he addressed the visiting Soviets in not-too-perfect Russian.

Youth Tourney In Quarter Finals

LAKE BLUFF, Ill. (AP)—Favorite Jane (Peaches) Bartkowicz of Hamtramck, Mich., was one of seven seeded players who took the court at the Bath and Tennis Club today for quarter-final round matches in the national 16-year-old-and-under tournament.

Miss Bartkowicz, the defending champion, led the way into the round of eight in the upper half of the bracket by dropping only one game in the opening set and two in the final set in eliminating Cathy Apple of San Diego, Calif., 6-1, 6-2.

Useeded Carol Hunter of Kalamazoo, Mich., who was ranked sixth last year in the 14-and-under class, pulled off the first big upset of the tournament Wednesday when she ousted Julia Anthony of Malibu, Calif., who was seeded No. 7 by scores of 6-4, 6-4.

McKinley Leads Play In Pennsylvania Tourney

HAVERFORD, Pa. (AP)—Chuck McKinley, the No. 1 U.S. tennis player, led a wholesale advance of Americans in the men's singles competition at the Pennsylvania Lawn Tennis Championships Wednesday, sweeping aside all foreign competition, as the field was narrowed down to eight.

Defending champion McKinley, of San Antonio, Tex., in advancing to the quarter-final round, was extended to 3-6, 6-3, 6-2 in a tough 65 minute match with Ray Moore, South African junior champion.

Impressive in his victory was Dennis Ralston, of Bakersfield, Calif., McKinley's Davis Cup teammate, who disposed of William Lenoir of Tucson, Ariz., 6-1, 9-7.

Ralston said he had worked a lot with pro tennis star Pancho Gonzales who started him on a "whole new serving action that through developed the more I used it," said the 21-year-old Southern California collegian.

Pasarell ousted Patricio Rodriguez of Chile, 6-1, 6-2, to advance to the quarter-finals.

Third-seeded Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., also advanced to the quarter-finals, overcoming Bitsy Harrison of Richmond, Va., 6-3, 6-2.

Other top-seeded players among the eight survivors in the tournament are Eugene Scott of St. James, N.Y., who beat David Sanderlin of El Cajon, Calif., 6-3, 9-7, and Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., who rallied to defeat Clark Graebner of Shaker Heights, Ohio, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4.

Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn, N.Y., eliminated Premjit Lall of India's Davis Cup team 13-11, 6-3, and Martin Riessen of Evanston, Ill., beat Abe Segal of South Africa 6-4, 10-8.

Kathleen Harter of Seal Beach, Calif., defeated third-seeded Judy Alvarez of Tampa, Fla., 6-3, 6-4.

Although the race will be an exhibition this week, the track will be putting up a guarantee purse to attract some of the best drivers in the state. This type race has drawn large crowds in the Denver area, as well as around the rest of the country.

In this unique race, cars make the turns on each end of the asphalt track but then cross over in the middle of the infield to form the figure eight course. The excitement comes when two or more cars are making the cross-over in the infield at the same time.

The cars are like normal stock models, except that they must be made to turn in both directions. All glass is removed and roll-bars installed for safety.

Emphasis is on skill of the drivers rather than speed in this type of race, although many of the cars are tuned for high speeds. For any local drivers wishing to enter, rules may be obtained at Sportsman's track by calling 633-7321.

Through last weekend's regular stock car races, Dale DeWitt is still the point leader in the semi-modified division, with Bob Herrington of Denver and Walt Pickard of Pueblo close behind.

In the late model modified class, John Talley tops the points list with Delbert Moore and Mike Wooley trying to catch up. Last week Talley's and Moore's cars were not ready so this gave Wooley a chance to gain points. Wooley captured the main event.

Sportsman's Raceway Park is located six miles east of Colorado Springs on U.S. Highway 24, directly across from the entrance to Peterson Field. Time trials for the races start at 7:30 p.m.

This Sunday night, an exhibition of the Tournament of Thrills trick drivers will be held at Sportsman's oval. There will be 20 events during the evening. The first event will start at 8 p.m.

World Military Basketball Tourney

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—The United States, Brazil, France, Belgium, Holland, and Iraq will compete for the World Military Basketball Cup here in September, it was announced today.

Duty Free Supplies Allowed For Olympics

TOKYO (AP) — Foreign athletes, officials and newsmen coming to the Tokyo Olympics will be allowed to bring in 30-day supplies of liquor and cigarettes duty free, the Japanese Finance Ministry announced Thursday.

The cigarette quota will be figured at 40 per day, or 1,200 for 30 days. The daily liquor quota will include one bottle of wine, one bottle of beer, one-fourth liter of whiskey, and three bottles of mineral water.

American brand names of bourbon range from $7 to $10 per fifth gallon; scotch whiskey $10 to $13.

Ruby Claims He Killed Oswald On Sudden Spur

DALLAS (AP) — Jack Ruby told FBI polygraph operators that he had no intention of killing accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald until moments before he fired, the Dallas Times Herald reported today in a copyright story.

The story was from the Times Herald's Washington bureau and did not state how the paper obtained a transcript of the questions and answers.

The tests were made last Saturday in the Dallas County Jail, where Ruby has been held since shortly after the slaying of the man accused of assassinating President John F. Kennedy.

Ruby is under death sentence for killing Oswald Nov. 24, two days after Kennedy was shot.

Ruby told the polygraph—lie detector—operators that he did not help Oswald kill the president, that he was not a member of any organization advocating overthrow of the government.

He also said he killed Oswald to spare Mrs. Kennedy the ordeal of testifying at the Oswald murder trial.

The polygraph tests were given at Ruby's request. Also present was a member of the presidentially appointed Warren Commission which is investigating the assassination.

There has been no official report made public as to whether the tests showed Ruby was telling the truth during the tests.

WORRY CLINIC

By George W. Crane, M.D. Ph.D.

Belle is our elderly dog, but she can teach all middle-aged folks an important medical lesson. Don't grow unduly frightened when a person faints, for the usual fainting patient is not in serious danger. Notice the physical, emotional and even chemical types of fainting outlined below.

By GEORGE W. CRANE
Ph. D., M. D.

CASE T-427. Belle, aged 9, is the dog that belonged to Mrs. Crane's father till his death a few years ago.

Then we inherited Belle.

She is a splendid white, short haired dog, with an amiable disposition but with an intense phobia of lightning.

So she cowers in the stairwell going to our basement at our Indiana farm home, as soon as a storm threatens.

If we aren't there to let her inside, she will lie in the cold rain and clog the drain so the water may rise several inches around her.

In the spring or fall when it is often an icy rain, you can imagine how chilled she gets.

As a result, she has developed arthritis. And at the age of 9, she compares to a human being who is past middle age.

For a cold muscle or tendon may tear and develop a sprain if an athlete tries to run or make a football tackle before he is properly warmed up.

But slow, gentle exercise of a cold muscle will pull more blood into it and thus literally warm it up and permit more elasticity.

All of our organs, muscles and even the brain, function better when they have a rich blood supply.

Fainting can thus occur, as explained yesterday, just by jumping out of bed so fast that the heart hasn't adjusted to the demand for higher blood pressure due to the sudden vertical posture.

But when we suddenly spring out of bed, our height may shift from only one foot to five or six feet.

As a result, there is often a momentary deficiency of blood to the brain, so we black out and faint.

For the blood vessels are surrounded by tiny circular muscles. If they go into spasm, due to fear, they contract, thereby reducing the diameter of the blood vessels which they surround.

Many husky athletes are terrified subconsciously by a hypodermic needle, so they will faint as they stand in line to get a shot or obtain vaccination for smallpox.

Occasionally, too, sudden, severe pain in the abdomen may cause a similar spasm of the

40-Hour-Work Week Is 'Base,' Wirtz Declares

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz said today that the 40-hour work week "has become a base for computation of overtime pay rather than a socially desirable work week goal."

Wirtz, who said a 48 or 56-hour work week "should not be the general order of business" made the statement in testimony prepared for delivery before a House education and labor subcommittee considering the administration's overtime penalty bill.

The measure would require double pay instead of time and one-half for work beyond 40 hours a week in certain industries where it might induce employers to hire new workers.

Wirtz, urging enactment of the bill, said it would help the nation attain "a more efficient, more effective distribution of employment in the work force.

"This bill will not eliminate all overtime work or create jobs for all the unemployed," he said. "An increase in premium pay requirements for overtime. . .is certain to lead to a reduction in overtime and the creation of additional job opportunities."

Wirtz, whose testimony generally was concerned with answering objections to the bill advanced by its opponents, told the subcommittee increased overtime probably would not affect "moonlighting."

He said a survey by the University of California's Institute of Industrial Relations showed that "moonlighters," those holding more than one job, are "a rather special breed of individual."

Most are "caught in a life-cycle squeeze — too many dependents, and family resources below what their aspirations require," he said, although few are at the low end of the wage scale.

Wirtz said labor Department statistics showed that employes working ovetrime average about 9 hours a week rather than 2 or 3 hours. He said he believed most workers, rather than resenting loss of lucrative overtime, would prefer to see unemployed coworkers with jobs.

Sleeping in Park Okay in Ohio

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Residents have received official okay to sleep in the parks during the current hot spell.

Joseph Wyndham, superintendent of parks, said arrangements have been made for police to patrol Perkins and Packard parks for the benefit of those who take advantage of the offer.
